University Of Johannesburg 2014 Prospectus:

Uprooting University Apartheid in South Africa Teresa A. Barnes, 2018-12-07 South Africa continues to be an object of fascination for people everywhere interested in social justice issues postcolonial studies and critical race theory as manifested by the enormous worldwide attention given to the RhodesMustFall movement In this book Teresa Barnes examines universities complex positioning in the apartheid era and argues that tracing the institutional legacies left by pro apartheid intellectuals are crucial to understanding the fight to transform South African higher education A work of interpretive social history this book investigates three historical dynamics in the relationship between the apartheid system and South African higher education First it explores how the legitimacy of apartheid was historically reproduced in public higher education Second it looks at ways that academics maneuvered through and influenced national and international discourses of political freedom and legitimacy Third it explores how and where stubborn tendrils of apartheid era knowledge production practices survived into and have been combatted during the democratic era in South African universities

Colour, Class and Community - The Natal Indian Congress, 1971-1994 Ashwin Desai, Goolam Vahed, 2021-11 Positions the history and inner workings of the Natal Indian Congress NIC against the canvas of the major political developments in South Africa during the 1970s and 1980s up to the first democratic elections in 1994 Following a hiatus in the 1960s the Natal Indian Congress NIC in South Africa was revived in 1971 In fascinating detail Ashwin Desai and Goolam Vahed bring the inner workings of the NIC to life against the canvas of major political developments in South Africa during the 1970s and 1980s and up to the first democratic elections in 1994 The NIC was relaunched during the rise of the Black Consciousness Movement which attracted a following among Indian university students and whose invocation of Indians as Black led to a major debate about ethnic organisations such as the NIC This debate persisted in the 1980s with the rise of the United Democratic Front and its commitment to non racialism The NIC was central to other major debates of the period most significantly the lines drawn between boycotting and participating in government created structures such as the Tri Cameral Parliament Despite threats of banning and incarceration the NIC kept attracting recruits who encouraged the development of community organisations such as students radicalised by the 1980s education boycotts and civic protests Colour Class and Community The Natal Indian Congress 1971 1994 details how some members of the NIC played dual roles as members of a legal organisation and as allies of the African National Congress underground armed struggle Drawing on varied sources including oral interviews newspaper reports and minutes of organisational meetings this in depth study tells a largely untold history challenging existing narratives around Indian cabalism and bringing the African and Indian political story into present debates about race class and nation Urban Transport XXI C.A. Brebbia, J.L. Miralles i Garcia, V. de Esteban Chapapria, 2015-06-02 Urban Transport XXI contains the proceedings of the 21st International Conference on Urban Transport and the Environment The series of annual conferences organised by the Wessex Institute was first held in 1995

Transportation in urban areas with its related environmental and social impacts is a topic of significant concern for policymakers in both municipal and central government and for the urban citizens who need effective and efficient transport systems. Urban transport systems require considerable studies to devise and then safeguard their operational use, maintenance and safety. Transportation systems produce significant environmental impacts and can enhance or degrade the quality of life in urban centres. Clearly the challenge of providing effective and efficient transport systems in urban settings remains an acute concern with financial, political and environmental constraints limiting the ability of transport system planners and operators to deliver the high quality outcomes expected by the public. Papers cover such topics as Urban Transport Planning and Management, Urban Transport Strategies, Public Transport Systems, Environmental Aspects, Economic and Social Impact, Safety and Security, Travel Behaviour, Studies, Customer Satisfaction, Transportation Modelling and Simulation, Infrastructure Development, Intelligent and Advanced Transport Systems, Transportation Integration, City Logistics, Resilience and Inter modal Transport Systems, Mass Transport Strategies, Social Impacts, Freight Transport, Railway Systems, Transport Governance and Administration, Port and City Mobility and Public Space, Life Cycle Management. Handbook of Research on Administration, Policy, and Leadership in Higher Education Mukerji, Siran, Tripathi, Purnendu, 2016-09-27. The creation of a sustainable and accessible higher education system is a pivotal goal in modern society. Adopting strategic frameworks and innovative techniques allows institutions to achieve this objective. The Handbook of Research on Administration, Policy and Leadership in Higher Education is an authoritative reference source for the latest scholarly research on contemporary management issues in educational institutions and presents best practices to improve policies and retain effective governance. Addressing the current state of higher education at an international level, this book is ideally designed for academicians, educational administrators, researchers and professionals. After Caliban Erica Moiah James, 2025-08-01. Drawing on Aim C saire's rewriting of Shakespeare's The Tempest, Erica Moiah James examines the rise of global Caribbean artists in the 1990s and their production of a decolonized art history for the Caribbean. War, Women and Post-conflict Empowerment Josephine Beoku-Betts, Fredline A. M'Cormack-Hale, 2022-01-13. Since the 1991-2002 civil conflict ended in Sierra Leone, the country has failed to translate the accomplishments of women's involvement in bringing the war to an end into meaningful political empowerment. This is in marked contrast to other post-conflict countries which have increased the political participation of women in elected and appointed office, increased the representation of women in leadership positions and enacted constitutional reforms promoting women's rights. Written by Sierra Leonean and Africanist scholars and experts from a broad range of disciplines, this unique volume analyses the historical and contextual factors influencing women's political, economic and social development in the country. In drawing on a diverse array of case studies from health to education, refugees to international donors, the contradictions, successes and challenges of women's lives in a post-conflict environment are revealed, making this an essential book for anyone involved in women and development. The

Changing Space Economy of City-Regions Koech Cheruiyot, 2017-10-30 This book addresses the South African Space Economy and its stark disparities and dualisms through an assessment of the Gauteng City Region the largest economic agglomeration in the country and on a continent bedevilled by a myriad of development challenges The book's focus on understanding the overall character of Gauteng City Region's Space Economy through data mining analysis and mapping comprehensively supplements the Space Economy literature on the region It covers the disparities exacerbated by an overlay of apartheid planning ideology and top down regional development based on selective encouragement of manufacturing investments in growth points or poles and how implementation of past policies intended to cure these disparities have yielded mixed results This book further offers the Gauteng City Region as a microcosm of the national economy in the form of evident significant place based variations in the intensity and character of economic structure that on the one hand enjoys massive agglomeration economies while on the other has high levels of poverty and large numbers of people living below the Minimum Living Level This book should appeal to urban studies specialists economists and development studies researchers in the Global South

Indigenous Studies: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources, 2019-10-11 Global interest in indigenous studies has been rapidly growing as researchers realize the importance of understanding the impact indigenous communities can have on the economy development education and more As the use acceptance and popularity of indigenous knowledge increases it is crucial to explore how this community based knowledge provides deeper insights understanding and influence on such things as decision making and problem solving Indigenous Studies Breakthroughs in Research and Practice examines the politics culture language history socio economic development methodologies and contemporary experiences of indigenous peoples from around the world as well as how contemporary issues impact these indigenous communities on a local national and global scale Highlighting a range of topics such as local narratives intergenerational cultural transfer and ethnicity and identity this publication is an ideal reference source for sociologists policymakers anthropologists instructors researchers academicians and graduate level students in a variety of fields

From the Colonial to the Contemporary Rahela Khorakiwala, 2020-01-09 From the Colonial to the Contemporary explores the representation of law images and justice in the first three colonial high courts of India at Calcutta Bombay and Madras It is based upon ethnographic research work and data collected from interviews with judges lawyers court staff press reporters and other persons associated with the courts Observing the courts through the in vivo in trial and practice the book asks questions at different registers including the impact of the architecture of the courts the contestation around the renaming of the high courts the debate over the use of English versus regional languages forms of addressing the court the dress worn by different court actors rules on photography video recording live telecasting of court proceedings use of CCTV cameras and the alternatives to courtroom sketching and the ceremony and ritual that exists in daily court proceedings The three colonial high courts studied in this book share a recurring historical tension between the Indian and

British notions of justice This tension is apparent in the semiotics of the legal spaces of these courts and is transmitted through oral history as narrated by those interviewed The contemporary understandings of these court personnel are therefore seen to have deep historical roots In this context the architecture and judicial iconography of the high courts helps to constitute preserve and reinforce the ambivalent relationship that the court shares with its own contested image

Bombardier Abroad David P. Thomas,2018-10-10T00:00:00Z In Bombardier Abroad Thomas examines several cases of the Canadian aerospace giant s work in the high speed rail sector in South Africa China Tibet and Israel Palestine and argues that these projects are deepening existing social and political tensions By participating in these infrastructure projects Thomas argues Bombardier is both inserting itself into highly contested social and political climates and profiting from actions that further exacerbate existing conditions of dispossession and inequality Thomas also examines the various ways in which the Canadian state supports the work of Bombardier in these countries Centred around a theoretical framework that combines concepts of dispossession political economy and important interventions from the field of settler colonial studies Bombardier Abroad is a critical look at the problematic practices of a Canadian corporation and the ways in which the Canadian state is culpable

Artefacts of Writing Peter D. McDonald,2017-10-11 Some forms of literature interfere with the workings of the literate brain posing a challenge to readers of all kinds including professional literary critics In Artefacts of Writing Peter D McDonald argues they pose as much of a challenge to the way states conceptualise language culture and community Drawing on a wealth of evidence from Victorian scholarly disputes over the identity of the English language to the constitutional debates about its future in Ireland India and South Africa and from the quarrels over the idea of culture within the League of Nations in the interwar years to UNESCO s ongoing struggle to articulate a viable concept of diversity McDonald brings together a large ensemble of legacy writers including T S Eliot James Joyce and Rabindranath Tagore putting them in dialogue with each other and with the policy makers who shaped the formation of modern states and the history of internationalist thought from the 1860s to the 1940s In the second part of the book he reflects on the continuing evolution of these dialogues showing how a varied array of more contemporary writers from Amit Chaudhuri J M Coetzee and Salman Rushdie to Antjie Krog Arvind Krishna Mehrotra and Es kia Mphahlele cast new light on a range of questions concerning education literacy human rights translation indigenous knowledge and cultural diversity that have preoccupied UNESCO since 1945 At once a novel contribution to institutional and intellectual history and an innovative exercise in literary and philosophical analysis Artefacts of Writing affords a unique perspective on literature s place at the centre of some of the most fraught often lethal public controversies that defined the long twentieth century and that continue to haunt us today

A Discourse on African Philosophy Christian B. N. Gade,2017-04-18 Many have argued that ubuntu was a formative influence on the post apartheid Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC South Africa s famous transitional justice mechanism A Discourse on African Philosophy A New Perspective on Ubuntu and Transitional Justice in South Africa challenges and contextualizes this view in a way that not only provides new findings and reflections on ubuntu and the TRC but also contributes to the field of African philosophy One of Christian B N Gade s key findings founded on qualitative interviews in South Africa is that some former TRC commissioners and committee members question the importance of ubuntu in the TRC process Another is that there are several differing and historically developing interpretations of ubuntu some of which have evident political implications and reflect non factual and creative uses of history Thus ubuntu is not a shared cultural heritage in the ethnophilosophical sense of a static property characterizing a group In fact throughout this book Gade argues that the ethnophilosophical approach to African philosophy as a static group property is highly problematic Gade s research presents an alternative collective discourse on African philosophy collective in the sense that it does not focus on any single individual in particular that takes differences historical developments and social contexts seriously This book will be of interest to scholars in African philosophy transitional justice politics and cultural heritage and law in South Africa

The Business Student's Guide to Sustainable Management Petra Molthan-Hill, 2017-11-30 Aimed at undergraduates this is the first textbook to offer a full introduction to sustainable management covering all subject areas relevant to business students The book includes chapters and seminars on subjects such as Corporate Sustainable Strategy Sustainable Marketing Sustainability Reporting Supply Chain Management Human Resources Management Supporting Sustainable Business Environmental Economics Sustainable Operations Management Greenhouse Gas Management and System Thinking in Sustainable Management The book contains nearly 30 ready made seminars employing various teaching methods Each chapter follows the same easy to use format This book provides a true treasure chest of materials to support staff wanting to integrate sustainability into their teaching and provides support to effectively embed sustainability in the curriculum The chapters also offer a starting point in developing teaching units for Masters and MBA students The material is not just useful to people in business schools but to those involved in wider scale curriculum change and those looking to make links between different disciplines

Peacemaking and the Extractive Industries Natalie Ralph, 2017-11-22 Peacemaking and the Extractive Industries addresses a significant gap in research on the political and diplomatic role of multinational corporations in peace processes in intrastate conflict Corporate Peacemaking The author focuses on corporations in the oil and mining sectors supporting or participating in peace negotiations and mediation The chapters explore national level peace processes as well as those at community and global levels While the focus is on extractive companies the findings are valuable to companies from all industries looking at peace related processes This ground breaking book gives a comprehensive picture of how Corporate Peacemaking currently works how it can be developed and implemented and how it is likely to impact global governance and corporate culture in the future The book demonstrates that Corporate Peacemaking has the potential to be a powerful element in international governance and peace efforts and Ralph shows through the business case that companies as well as communities will benefit Ralph presents a new framework for

Corporate Peace that will assist companies from all sectors in countries experiencing violent conflict in addition to instability human rights abuses and poor governance Based on rigorous academic research with practical case studies it is essential reading for practitioners academics policy makers and NGOs

In the Balance Hein Marais,2022-07 This timeous book presents a compelling analysis of the need conditions and possibilities for a universal basic income UBI in South Africa and globally It explores the vexing questions a UBI raises about the relationship of paid work to social rights and about the role of the state in contemporary capitalism As jobs disappear and wages flatline paid work is an increasingly fragile basis for dignified life This predicament deepened by the COVID 19 pandemic is sparking urgent debates about alternatives such as a universal basic income UBI In this incisive new book Hein Marais casts the debate about a UBI in the wider context of the dispossessing pressures of capitalism and the turmoil of global warming pandemics and social upheaval Marais surveys the meaning history and appeal of a UBI before even handedly weighing the case for and against it The book explores the vexing questions a UBI raises about the relationship of paid work to social rights about prevailing notions of entitlement and dependency and about the role of the state in contemporary capitalism Along with cost estimates for different versions of a basic income in South Africa it discusses financing options and lays out the social economic and political implications Highly topical and distinctive in its approach In the Balance The Case for a Universal Basic Income in South Africa and Beyond is the most rounded and up to date examination yet of the need and prospects for a UBI in a global South setting such as South Africa

Post-Education-for-All and Sustainable Development Paradigm Shoko Yamada,2016-06-27 This book sheds light on the nexus of driving factors for the paradigm shift based on the chapters on emerging state and nonstate actors and discourse on post EFA agendas Special attention will be given to actors in the Asia Pacific region which simultaneously demonstrate diversity and common regional features

Globalisation, Human Rights Education and Reforms Joseph Zajda,Sev Ozdowski,2016-09-23 This book the seventeenth instalment in the 24 volume series Globalisation Comparative Education and Policy Research explores the interrelationship between ideology the state and human rights education reforms setting it in a global context The book examines major human rights education reforms and policy issues in a global culture It focuses on the ambivalent and problematic relationship between the state globalisation and human rights education discourses Using a number of diverse paradigms ranging from critical theory to historical comparative research the authors examine the reasons for and the outcomes of human rights education reforms and policy The authors discuss discourses surrounding the major dimensions affecting the human rights education namely national identity democracy and ideology These dimensions are among the most critical and significant dimensions defining and contextualising the processes surrounding the nation building identity politics and human rights education globally With this as its focus the chapters represent hand picked scholarly research on major discourses in the field of human rights education reforms The book draws upon recent studies in the areas of globalisation equality and the role of the state in human rights education reforms

Furthermore the perception of globalisation as dynamic and multi faceted processes clearly necessitates a multiple perspective approach in the study of human rights education This book provides that perspective commendably It also critiques current human rights education practices and policy reforms It illustrates the way shifts in the relationship between the state and human rights education policy In the book the authors who come from diverse backgrounds and regions attempt insightfully to provide a worldview of current developments in research concerning human rights education and citizenship education globally The book contributes in a very scholarly way to a more holistic understanding of the nexus between nation state human rights education both locally and globally Museum Times Leslie Witz,2026-03-01 Museums flourished in post apartheid South Africa In older museums there were renovations on the go and at least fifty new museums opened Most sought to depict violence and suffering under apartheid and the growth of resistance These unlikely journeys are tracked as museums became a primary setting for contesting histories From the renowned Robben Island Museum to the almost unknown Lwandle Migrant Labour Museum the author demonstrates how an institution concerned with the conservation of the past is simultaneously a site for changing history Dreaming Red Linda Pace,Jan Jarboe Russell,Eleanor Heartney,Kathryn Kanjo,2014-12-16 Since its founding in 1993 by the late Pace Foods heiress Linda Pace Artpace has become one of the premiere foundations for contemporary art An artist residency program based in San Antonio Texas Artpace s goal is to give artists time and space to imagine new ways to work Each year nine artists three from Texas three from other areas of the United States and three from abroad are invited to the foundation to create new work Selected by guest curators like Robert Storr and Okwui Enwezor the artists who have undertaken residencies is impressive prescient and diverse including Felix Gonzalez Torres Annette Messager Tracey Moffatt Xu Bing Nancy Rubins Cornelia Parker Inigo Manglano Ovalle Glenn Ligon Kendell Geers Carolee Schneemann Mona Hatoum Isaac Julien Arturo Herrera and Christian Jankowski Dreaming Red includes images of all the works created at Artpace since its inception an essay by art historian Eleanor Heartney short essays on selected artists by guest curators including Cuauhtemoc Medina Lynne Cooke Chrissie Iles and Judith Russi Kirshner and a lengthy essay on the personal history of the foundation and its founder Public Intellectuals in South Africa Chris Broodryk,2021-07-01 This edited collection gives voice to neglected public intellectuals in the arts humanities and journalism in South Africa who gave voice and presence to those who have been marginalized and silenced in South African history Edward Said described a public intellectual as someone who uses accessible language to address a designated public on matters of social and political significance The essays in Public Intellectuals in South Africa apply this interpretive prism and activist principle to a South African context and tell the stories of well known figures as well as some that have been mostly forgotten They include Magema Fuze John Dube Aggrey Klaaste Mewa Ramgobin and Koos Roets alongside marginalized figures such as Elijah Makiwane Mandisi Sindo William Pretorius and Dr Thomas Duncan Greenlees The essays capture the thoughts and opinions of these historical figures who the contributors argue are public intellectuals who spoke out against the corruption of power promoted a progressive politics that challenged the colonial project and its legacies and encouraged a sustained dissent of the political status quo Offering fascinating accounts of the life and work of these writers critics and activists across a range of historical contexts and disciplines from journalism and arts criticism to history and politics it enriches the historical record of South African public intellectual life This volume makes a significant contribution to ongoing debates about the value of research in the arts and humanities and what constitutes public intellectualism in South Africa
