American Government and the Vision of the Democrats Mark Louis Latour, 2007-04-26 This work is a comprehensive introduction to the most important issues facing American citizens and their government. It addresses various interpretations of the proper role of government with a view towards the Democrats re-working of such integral issues as States rights Societal affluence and social needs Campaign finance reform Media Consolidation America's climbing debt ceiling China's military and political expansion Manufacturing's decline Job outsourcing The disappearance of pension plans The whittling away of America's middle class America's inadequate health care system Environmental degradation America's vanishing family farms.

The Drunken Silenus Morgan Meis, 2020-04-09 The Drunken Silenus is a book that is as hard to categorize as it is to put down an enlightening and mesmerizing blend of philosophy history and art criticism. Morgan Meis begins simply enough with a painting by the Baroque master Peter Paul Rubens of the figure from Greek mythology who is mentor to Dionysus god of wine and excess of every kind. We learn who this obscure minor god is why he must attend on the god who dies and must be re-born and educated all over again and why Rubens depicted him not as a character out of a farce but as one whose plight evokes pity and compassion The narrative spirals out from there taking in the history of Antwerp bloody seventeenth century religious wars tales of Rubens s father s near execution for sleeping with William of Orange s wife Nietzsche s Birth of Tragedy and the impossibility of there being any meaning to human life and the destruction of all civilization by nefarious forces within ourselves All of this is conveyed in language that crackles with intelligence wit and dark humor a voice that at times sounds a bit tipsy and garrulous but which ultimately asks us to confront the deepest questions of meaning purpose and hope in the face of death and tragedy

Faith Shift Kathy Escobar,2014-10-21 Hope for spiritual refugees church burnouts and freedom seekers After years of participating in a comfortable faith tradition many find themselves in a spiritual wilderness feeling disillusioned with church longing for more freedom and less religion in their lives If that describes you you re in good company Countless men and women are in the middle of a shifting faith and aren t sure where to turn But losing beliefs doesn t mean you have to lose your faith Pastor friend and spiritual director Kathy Escobar has journeyed with many who have experienced significant shifts in the faith they once considered unchangeable Through their stories and her own Kathy has discovered that growth and change are natural parts of life in our relationship with God Filled with honest stories and practical insights Faith Shift gives language to what many experience as their faith evolves With an inviting blend of vulnerability and hope it addresses the losses that come with spiritual shifts and offers tangible practices for rebuilding a free and authentic faith after it unravels Includes personal reflection and group discussion questions at the end of each chapter

Nature and Narrative Markku Lehtimäki,2025-05-23 The book explores environmental issues in twenty first century Anglophone fiction and how those issues are dealt with by specific literary means It proposes a reciprocal relationship between nature and narrative the idea according to which nature both informs and inspires artistic creations while literary designs and rhetoric also shape our ideas and perceptions of the natural environment It is argued that in order to address design and rhetoric in environmental texts we need a close analysis of those world shaping functions of literary narratives that unite ecocritical and narratological interests The author presents readings of contemporary novels and their varying ways of seeing nature through narrative devices and fictional minds The novels discussed in the book are Hilary Mantel s Wolf Hall Toni Morrison s A Mercy Ian McGuire s The North Water Barbara Kingsolver s The Lacuna Paul Harding s Tinkers and Enon J M Coetzee s Elizabeth Costello Ian McEwan s Solar and Jenny Offill s Weather
