Le salaire au travail ménager: Chronique d'une lutte féministe internationale (1972-1977) Louise Toupin, 2018-10-24 In this first ever international history of the influential feminist movement Wages for Housework Louise Toupin draws on extensive archival research and interviews with the movement s founders and activists from Italy England Germany Switzerland the United States and Canada Featuring previously unpublished conversations with Silvia Federici and Mariarosa Dalla Costa the book highlights the power and originality of the movement detailing its theoretical and organizational innovations around the unrecognized labour performed by women Challenging both classic Marxist theory and the mainstream women s movement Wages for Housework organized in the 1970s around the idea that domestic or reproductive labour is as crucial for the survival of the capitalist system as more typically male productive labour Its activists demanded the wage as a way of ensuring that housework's value be recognized an idea still hotly debated today Wages for Housework is a major contribution to the history of feminist and anti capitalist movements and a provocative intervention into contemporary conversations about the changing nature of work and the gendered labour market Explorers Collectif, 2016-09-08T00:00:00+02:00 This publication brings together an outstanding ensemble of works by artist explorers selected from France's national collections Whatever the terrain on land or at the depths of the ocean real virtual or even at the farthest limits of the subconscious exploration remains a quest accomplished thanks to and in spite of oneself to redefine the contours of a world whether it exists for real or in our imagination In this respect exploration is not so unlike art which is largely inspired by it both in terms of how it is done and its objective From Voyage autour de ma chambre by Xavier de Maistre whose detailed inventory encompasses just a single room to Jules Vernes Voyages extraordinaires in which we anticipate an exploration of the seas the centre of the Earth and outer space the paths taken by the explorer seem infinite from the most exotic to the most local from the direct trajectory to the most labyrinthine of routes In this book the artist assumes the role of explorer inventor and cartographer in turn plunges into the seas traverses the oceans digs beneath the earth loses their way finds it again or becomes a castaway taking the reader along with them on the ride This digital book is a revised and enhanced edition of the two catalogues created to present the Explorateurs exhibition shown at the Centre des Arts in Enghien les Bains in 2010 then at the Musée de l'Abbaye Sainte Croix des Sables d'Olonne in 2012 Sébastien Faucon Centre national des arts plastiques Removed for Further Study Nate Dorward, 2003 Literary Nonfiction Poetry History his many publications include TOTTERING STATE a selected poems now in its third edition and the monumental Collected Poems published in 2003 by Carcanet But such accolades seem only to chase their elusive subject who remains one of the liveliest and most provocative presences on the contemporary scene REMOVED FOR FURTHER STUDY is the first booklength appraisal of this quintessential moving target It brings together new writing on Raworth by twenty three poets and critics from both sides of the Atlantic previously uncollected texts by the poet and a detailed bibliography of his work Contributors include David Ball Chris Creek Ian Davidson Nate Dorward Ken Edwards Gunnar Harding Anselm Hollo Fanny Howe J C C Mays Peter Middleton Alan Munton Tom Orange Marjorie Perloff Simon Perril Joan Retallack Peter Robinson Claude Royet Journoud Robert Sheppard Ron Silliman Jonathan Skinner Keith Tuma Ben Watson and John Wilkinson REMOVED FOR FURTHER STUDY provides a fresh and engaging set of response to the work of one of the major poets of our time Strangers International Center of Photography, 2003 Presenting the works of 50 contemporary artists and photographers from around the world Strangers explores the different roles the camera now plays in negotiating the boundaries between public and private life trust and fear intimacy and isolation Accompanying the first recurring exhibition of its kind devoted to photography and related media at the International Center of Photography in New York Strangers investigates the social world through images that have been created as a result of encounters with people unknown to one
