The Power of Female Friendship Paul Dobransky,L. A. Stamford,2008-05-27 A compassionate practical and science based guide to finding friends for life Psychiatrist Paul Dobransky author of The Secret Psychology of How We Fall in Love once again looks to the brain this time to examine the full range of female friendships A recent study has shown that women have fewer friends than they used to In the years after college and before children and even after that many women find that they have fewer friends and new ones are harder to make Taking his three parts of the brain theory Dr Dobransky breaks down the primal codes of friendship that many women aren t even aware of and gives scientifically grounded advice for understanding how to be a better friend and how to cultivate new friendships Women of all ages who are searching for deeper relationships or are trying to break free of a toxic friendship will find help and hope in this enlightening and prescriptive exploration of how the brain makes friends

Breaking Away from the Textbook Ronald Hans Pahl,2010-10-16 Teaching history should not be reciting an endless list of dead men entombed between the covers of a textbook Instead Breaking Away from the Textbook offers a fascinating journey through world history Not a comprehensive theory heavy guide this book focuses on active classroom activities methods for students to grapple with humanity s issues and innovative ways to show students the relevance of the past to the world today Simply put this book makes world history fun Soon your students will be busy debating thinking applying and learning about information that will stay with them for a lifetime The key to this wonderful work is its incorporation of various disciplines including art music and writing to create a fun and active classroom Volume I covers prehistory to the Renaissance and Volume II covers the Enlightenment to the 20th century Includes pictures and drawings appendices indexes maps and a bibliography Volume III More Creative Ways to Teach World History covers ancient times through the 20th century and beyond Appropriate for all grade levels

Those Good Gertrudes Geraldine J. Clifford,2016-03 This book explores the professional civic and personal roles of women teachers throughout American history Its themes and findings build from the mostly unpublished writings of many women Clifford studied personal history manuscripts in archives and consulted printed autobiographies diaries correspondence oral histories interviews to probe the multifaceted imagery that has surrounded teaching This work surveys a long past where schoolteaching was essentially men s work with women relegated to restricted niches such as teaching rudiments of the vernacular language to young children and socializing girls for traditional gender roles The Dogaressa of Venice, 1200-1500 H. Hurlburt, 2016-09-27 This book focuses on the identity and public personae of the dogaressa wives of the elected doges of medieval and early modern Venice The study traces the evolution of the public functions of the group of quasi royal wives rare for their visibility during Venice s development into a regional economic and political power The Lieutenant Nun Sherry Velasco, 2009-12-03 Catalina de Erauso 1592 1650 was a Basque noblewoman who just before taking final vows to become a nun escaped from the convent at San Sebasti n dressed as a man and in her own words went hither and thither embarked went into port took to roving slew wounded embezzled and roamed about Her long service fighting for the Spanish empire in Peru and Chile won her a soldier s pension and a papal dispensation to continue dressing in men s clothing This theoretically informed study analyzes the many ways in which the Lieutenant Nun has been constructed interpreted marketed and consumed by both the dominant and divergent cultures in Europe Latin America and the United States from the seventeenth century to the present Sherry Velasco argues that the ways in which literary theatrical iconographic and cinematic productions have transformed Erauso s life experience into a public spectacle show how transgender narratives expose and manipulate spectators fears and desires Her book thus reveals what happens when the private experience of a transgenderist is shifted to the public sphere and thereby marketed as a hybrid spectacle for the curious gaze of the general audience Handbook to Life in Renaissance Europe Sandra Sider, 2005 Examines architecture and design dance fashion literature music philosophy religion theater and visual arts in Europe between 1300 and 1600
