Image of Istanbul, Impact of ECOC 2010 on the City Image Evinc Dogan, 2016-07-31 Istanbul took the stage as one of the three European Capital of Culture ECOC cities in 2010 In this spectacle the urban spaces were projected as the theatre d cor while residents and visitors became the spectators The images of Istanbul pile up in videos and posters to show the city in every aspect in which everything becomes mishmash and the message gets lost in the chaos While Istanbul is depicted as a mystified city through Orientalist representations this image of Istanbul moves between the opposite ends of the contrasting pairs and in contestation Culture defined as making sense of the world Hall 1997 2 is an integral part of branding a place which involves cultural exchange Anholt 2005 140 Mega events may be used as forms of advertising for city marketing and branding where the signification is not only about production of meaning but also staging of the meaning The cities hosting mega events can be turned into the protagonists of the spectacle by showcasing their cultural products as well as cultural being Thus what staged there are the city its image as well as the events The mega events are helpful to spread the word about the city but the meaning is created also through imaging the city and positioning this image in the minds of the people

Building Modern Antiquity Georgia Giannakopoulou, 2024-11-29 This book considers post 19th century Athens as a unique instance of a secret side of metropolitan capitalism With a focus on modern antiquity as the hidden element of the dialectic between the past and the present it suggests that the sociological study of one of the great European capital cities a city not intended as a modern capital and its architectural representations may expose part of the veiled processes of the reconstruction of the past thus shedding light on the abuse of antiquity for the celebration of European capitalist metropolitan modernity From the glorious white marble cityscape of the 19th century that aimed at re enchanting metropolitan modernity to the inglorious grey reinforced concrete 21st century metropolis modern Athens exposes the battle between the modern and a modern image of antiquity a false socially constructed historiography born of the dialectics between the ancient and the modern the new and the old collective memory and collective forgetting As such The Building of a Modern Antiquity will appeal to scholars of sociology with interests in social and critical theory urban studies sociology of architecture and visual sociology
