Hiller,2009-05-01 Combining statistical analysis and ethnographic study Harry Hiller uncovers two waves of in migration to Alberta His innovative approach begins with the individual migrant and analyzes the relocation experience from origin to destination Through interviews with hundreds of migrants Hiller shows that migration is complex and dynamic shaped not just by what Alberta offers but also prompted by a process that begins in the region of origin which makes migration possible and helps determine whether migrants stay or return home By combining a social psychological approach with structural factors such as Alberta s transition from a regional hinterland province to its emerging role the global system discussions of gender the internet and folk culture Second Promised Land provides a multi dimensional and deeply human account of a contemporary Canadian phenomenon From Treaty Peoples to Treaty Nation Greg Poelzer,Ken S. Coates,2015-07-28 Canada is a country founded on relationships and agreements between Indigenous peoples and newcomers Although recent court cases have upheld Aboriginal title rights the cooperative spirit of the treaties is being lost as Canadians engage in endless arguments about First Nations issues Each new court decision adds fuel to the debate raging between those who want to see an end to special Aboriginal rights and those who demand a return to Aboriginal sovereignty Greg Poelzer and Ken Coates breathe new life into these debates by looking at approaches that have failed and succeeded in the past and offering all Canadians from policy makers to concerned citizens realistic steps forward Rather than getting bogged down in debates on Aboriginal rights they highlight Aboriginal success stories and redirect the conversation to a place of common ground Upholding equality of economic opportunity as a guiding principle they argue that the road ahead is clear if all Canadians take up their responsibilities as treaty peoples Canada will become a leader among treaty nations Urban Neighborhoods in a New Era Clarence N. Stone,Robert P. Stoker,2015-09-18 For decades North American cities racked by deindustrialization and population loss have followed one primary path in their attempts at revitalization a focus on economic growth in downtown and business areas Neighborhoods meanwhile have often been left severely underserved There are however signs of change This collection of studies by a distinguished group of political scientists and urban planning scholars offers a rich analysis of the scope potential and ramifications of a shift still in progress Focusing on neighborhoods in six cities Baltimore Chicago Denver Los Angeles Phoenix and Toronto the authors show how key players including politicians and philanthropic organizations are beginning to see economic growth and neighborhood improvement as complementary goals The heads of universities and hospitals in central locations also find themselves facing newly defined realities adding to the fluidity of a new political landscape even as structural inequalities exert a continuing influence While not denying the hurdles that community revitalization still faces the contributors ultimately put forth a strong case that a more hospitable local milieu can be created for making neighborhood policy In examining the course of experiences from an earlier period of redevelopment to the present postindustrial city this book opens a window on a complex process of political change and possibility for reform View from the Urban Loft Sean Benesh,2011-10-12 As the world hurtles towards urbanization at an ever increasing pace there arises the need for further theological reflection on the city Globalization international immigration and densification in cities are having a transformative impact on the urban landscape Urban mission is at the forefront of many denominations church planting networks ministries and mission organizations yearning for citywide transformation How are we to think biblically and theologically about the city View from the Urban Loft will take readers through the development of cities throughout history act as a guide to navigating the current forces shaping urban environments and seek to uncover a theology of the city that gives Christians a rationale and a biblical understanding of the meaning and purposes of the city and then how to live in it for the glory of God The Impact and Evaluation of Major Sporting Events Holger Preuss, 2013-09-13 The aim of politicians is to attract new investment to their city or region in order to develop infrastructure such as telecommunications transportation housing or even sport and entertainment facilities Sporting events are also intended to achieve intangible ends such as a better image more know how stronger networks emotional commitment and additional cultural benefits and enhanced identity All these so called event structures can improve sites in a city region by strengthening certain location factors They may improve general living conditions in the longer term and also boost the income of citizens by attracting new businesses tourists conventions or new events Finally they may foster economic growth at the city regional or national level This collection is of particular interest for anyone who intends to enter a bidding process for a major sporting event It offers the host of an event a good introduction to the potential ways to generate economic benefits and will enhance understanding of the economics behind major sporting events This book was previously published as a special issue of European Sport Management Quarterly

Host Cities and the Olympics Harry H. Hiller, 2014 Rather than interpreting the Olympics as primarily a sporting event of international or national significance this book understands the Games as a civic project for the host city that serves as a catalyst for a variety of urban interests over a period of many years from the bidding phase through the event itself Traditional Olympic studies have tended to examine the Games from an outsider's perspective or as something experienced through the print media or television In contrast the focus presented here is on the dynamics within the host city understood as a community of interacting individuals who encounter the Games in a variety of ways through support opposition or even indifference but who have a profound influence on the outcome of the Games as actors and players in the Olympics as a drama Adopting a symbolic interactionist approach the book offers a new interpretive model through which to understand the Olympic Games by exploring the relationship between the Games and residents of the host city Key analytical concepts such as framing dramaturgy the public realm and the symbolic field are introduced and illustrated through empirical research from the Vancouver 2010 Winter Games and it is shown how the social media and shifts in public opinion reflected interaction effects within the city By filling a clear lacuna in the Olympic Studies canon this book is important reading for anybody with an interest in the sociology of sport urban studies event studies or urban sociology

Household Politics Magda Fahrni, 2005-12-15 The reconstruction of Canadian society in the wake of the Second World War had an enormous impact on all aspects of public and private life For families in Montreal reconstruction plans included a stable home life hinged on social and economic security female suffrage welfare state measures and a reasonable cost of living In Household Politics Magda Fahrni examines postwar reconstruction from a variety of angles in order to fully convey its significance in the 1940s as differences of class gender language religion and region naturally produced differing perspectives Reconstruction was not simply a matter of official policy Although the government set many of the parameters for public debate federal projects did not inspire a postwar consensus and families alternatively embraced negotiated or opposed government plans Through in depth research from a wide variety of sources Fahrni brings together family history social history and political history to look at a wide variety of Montreal families French speaking and English speaking Catholic Protestant and Jewish making Household Politics a particularly unique and erudite study

Environmental Anthropology Engaging Ecotopia Joshua Lockyer, James R. Veteto, 2013-04-01 In order to move global society towards a sustainable ecotopia solutions must be engaged in specific places and communities and the authors here argue for re orienting environmental anthropology from a problem oriented towards a solutions focused endeavor Using case studies from around the world the contributors scholar activists and activist practitioners examine the interrelationships between three prominent environmental social movements bioregionalism a worldview and political ecology that grounds environmental action and experience permaculture a design science for putting the bioregional vision into action and ecovillages the ever dynamic settings for creating sustainable local cultures Sites of Governance Robert Young, Martin Horak, 2012 A rare glimpse into the world of public policy making in Canada s major cities The Tabernacled Presence of God Susan Booth, 2015-09-18 Although a large majority of believers agree that they should share their faith most report that they in fact do not That s not really all that surprising given today s pluralistic cultural setting But maybe this same culture s longing for transcendence community and a place to call home points to a backstory that makes sense of it all If such a narrative exists it deserves a hearing and those who know and live this story have both the responsibility and privilege of sharing its message of hope The narrative of the Bible tells just such a story where God s purpose from the beginning has been to dwell or tabernacle in the midst of the people he has created This book traces the theme of God s tabernacled presence across Scripture reading the story afresh through a missional lens in order to gain insights for mission and gospel witness The hope is that readers will awaken wide eyed to the wonder of God s tabernacled presence in our midst that we will live in such a way that others recognize this reality and that we will boldly and joyfully share the good news of Jesus under the direction and power of his indwelling Spirit
