Bellavia, 2012-12-25 On 8 November 2004 the largest battle of the War on Terror began with the US Army s assault on Fallujah and its network of tens of thousands of insurgents hiding in fortified bunkers on rooftops and inside booby trapped houses For Sgt David Bellavia of 3rd Platoon Alpha Company it quickly turned into a battle on foot from street to street and house to house On the second day he and his men laid siege to a mosque only to be driven to a rooftop and surrounded before heavy artillery could smash through to rescue them By the third day Bellavia charges an insurgent filled house and finds himself trapped with six enemy fighters One by one he shoots wrestles stabs and kills five of them until his men arrive to take care of the final target It is one of the most hair raising battle stories of any age yet it does not spell the end of Bellavia s service It would take several more weeks before the Battle of Fallujah finally came to a close with Bellavia miraculously alive In the words of the author HOUSE TO HOUSE holds nothing back It is a raw gritty look at killing and combat and how men react to it It is gut wrenching shocking and brutal It is honest It is not a glorification of war Yet it will not shy from acknowledging this sometimes it takes something as terrible as war for the full beauty of the human spirit to emerge United States Code Service, Lawyers Edition United States, 2004 U.S. Marines in Vietnam: Cosmas,
