Thursday 8 September 1977:

Conserving Europe's Wildlife Andrew L.R. Jackson, 2018-03-28 The Natura 2000 network of protected areas is the centrepiece of European Union nature policy currently covering almost one fifth of the EU's entire land territory plus large marine areas. This vast EU-wide network which aims to conserve Europe's most valuable and threatened species and habitats has major impacts on land use throughout all Member States of the EU. This book critically assesses the origins and implementation of the Natura 2000 network established under the Birds Directive of 1979 and the Habitats Directive of 1992. Based on original archival research and interviews with key participants, the book records a detailed history of the origins and negotiation of Natura 2000 policy and law with the history of EU environmental policy provided as a framework. An historical institutionalist approach is adopted which emphasises the importance of understanding legal and policy development as processes that unfold over time. Three phases in the history of EU environmental policy are identified and described and the history of EU nature policy is placed within the context of these three phases. Informed by this history, the author presents a comprehensive summary and assessment of the law and policy that protects Natura 2000 sites at EU level and reviews the nature conservation outcomes for the targeted species and habitats. The book reveals how a knowledge of the history of Natura 2000 enriches our understanding of key issues such as conflicts in establishing and conserving the Natura 2000 network, EU integration in the field of nature conservation and the future of EU nature policy. Downing Street Diary Volume Two Bernard Donoughue, 2009-01-19 The first volume of Bernard Donoughue's Downing Street Diary was described by Charles Moore in the Daily Telegraph as the best account of Harold Wilson's last days; the sheer scale and detail are fascinating, wrote Peter Riddell in the Times Literary Supplement. This second volume covers the three years 1976-79 when Donoughue was Senior Policy Advisor to James Callaghan. At first Callaghan quickly established dominance over his cabinet and restored calm after the plots and scandals of the later Wilson years. His incomes policy reduced inflation and in the teeth of opposition from the left wing he negotiated the notorious IMF loan at the expense of eliminating some of Labour's most cherished dreams. By 1978 Callaghan, a politician of great patriotism and decency, seemed to have succeeded in steering Britain into calmer waters. But then the storm broke. Trade union militants brushed aside their mediocre leaders and launched a ferocious attack on Callaghan's pay policy, driving up inflation and demonstrating the government's impotence. In the diaries we see the prime minister and the government paralysed as the Winter of Discontent began to bite and politics took to the streets. As Labour drifted to inevitable defeat in the 1979 election we see Callaghan fighting honourably. From the smoke of battle there emerges a striking new leader, Margaret Thatcher. The diaries describe vividly both the decline and final collapse of old Labour and how Mrs Thatcher took the opportunity to launch her crusade to dismantle trade union power and much of the British public sector. Besides James Callaghan, the chief figures in this volume of Lord Donoughue's diaries are Roy Jenkins, Denis Healey, Tony Crosland, Michael Foot, Shirley Williams, David Owen and Tony Benn. ,1978 Censoring the 1970s Sian Barber,2011-09-22 This book explores the work of the British Board of Film Censors in the 1970s Throughout the decade this unelected organisation set standards of acceptability and determined what could and what could not be shown on British cinema screens Controversial texts like A Clockwork Orange 1971 Straw Dogs 1971 The Devils 1971 and Life of Brian 1979 have been used to draw attention to the way in which the BBFC operated in the 1970s While it is true to say that these films encountered major classification problems what of the hundreds of other films being classified at the same time Did all films struggle with the British censors in this period and can these famous examples be fitted into broader patterns of censorship policy and practice In studying over 250 film files from the BBFC archive this work reveals how 1970s films such as Vampire Circus 1971 Confessions of a Window Cleaner 1974 and Carry on Emmannuelle 1978 also ran into trouble with the film censor This work explores the complex process of negotiation and compromise which affected all film submissions in the 1970s and the way in which the BBFC actively and often sympathetically negotiated with film directors producers and distributors to assign the correct category to each film The lack of any defined formal censorship policy in this period allowed the BBFC to work alongside the film industry and push cultural social and artistic boundaries however it also left the Board open to accusations of favouritism subjectivity and personal bias This work is not simply a study of controversial films and contentious issues but rather engages with wider issues of changing permission legal struggles the influence of the media and the legislative and governmental controls which both helped and hindered the BBFC in this important post war decade The focus on historical and archival research offers a great deal to scholars from associated disciplines including history social policy media and communications and politics
