Tibet Tibet A Personal History Of A Lost Land:

Tibet, Tibet Patrick French, 2009-09-09 At different times in its history Tibet has been renowned for pacifism and martial prowess enlightenment and cruelty The Dalai Lama may be the only religious leader who can inspire the devotion of agnostics Patrick French has been fascinated by Tibet since he was a teenager He has read its history agitated for its freedom and risked arrest to travel through its remote interior His love and knowledge inform every page of this learned literate and impassioned book Talking with nomads and Buddhist nuns exiles and collaborators French portrays a nation demoralized by a half century of Chinese occupation and forced to depend on the patronage of Western dilettantes He demolishes many of the myths accruing to Tibet including those centering around the radiant figure of the Dalai Lama Combining the best of history travel writing and memoir Tibet Tibet is a work of extraordinary power and insight Tibet, Tibet Patrick French, 2004-09-28 At different times in its history Tibet has been renowned for pacifism and martial prowess enlightenment and cruelty The Dalai Lama may be the only religious leader who can inspire the devotion of agnostics Patrick French has been fascinated by Tibet since he was a teenager He has read its history agitated for its freedom and risked arrest to travel through its remote interior His love and knowledge inform every page of this learned literate and impassioned book Talking with nomads and Buddhist nuns exiles and collaborators French portrays a nation demoralized by a half century of Chinese occupation and forced to depend on the patronage of Western dilettantes He demolishes many of the myths accruing to Tibet including those centering around the radiant figure of the Dalai Lama Combining the best of history travel writing and memoir Tibet Tibet is a work of extraordinary power and insight Tibet - a Country Where People Have Leapt a Thousand Years Forward Vinař, Jan, The core of the book is a critical edition of an unpublished reportage of Jan Vina from his 1959 trip to Tibet called Tibet A Country where People Have Leaped a Thousand Years Forward Vina s text was never published officially there are only fifteen copies of a samizdat edition printed in 1983 in Zurich and today it can be considered an important documentary material of the given historical period The reportage written in 1960 echoes the official Chinese narrative of Tibetan history and social development and his views reflect the Chinese interpretation of the March 1959 uprising The book is accompanied by so far unpublished photographic material from the 1959 journalist expedition to Tibet and scholarly commentary by editors to the original text in the form of footnotes and several studies clarifying certain aspects of the topic and the historical and political context Kamila Hlad kov describes the clash of Chinese and Tibetan narratives explaining recent Tibetan history mainly regarding the occupation of Tibetan inhabited territories by the PLA in 1950 1951 and the legitimization of the regime after 1959 Lubo B lka provides detailed biography of Jan Vina and explains the historical background of the decade between 1950 and 1959 in Tibet analyzes the texts published by other visitors to Tibet in that time and introduces the phenomenon known in Tibetan language as thamzing or struggle sessions A History of Modern Tibet, Volume 2 Melvyn C. Goldstein, 2009-04-13 History The Dance of

17 Lives Mick Brown, 2010-11-15 In January 2000 two Ambassador taxis twisted their way up the narrow road leading towards Dharamsala in the Himalayan foothills of northern India the home in exile of the Dalai Lama In one taxi was a fourteen year old boy the 17th Karmapa one of the most important figures in Tibetan Buddhism The boy's arrival in Dharamsala was the culmination of an extraordinary escape which had brought him 900 miles across the Himalayas in conditions of high danger from the monastery in Tibet where he had lived since he was seven years old Fascinated by this charismatic young figure Mick Brown travelled to Dharamsala to meet him and found himself drawn into the labyrinthine not to say surreal web of intrigue surrounding the 17th Karmapa's recognition and young life Writing Lives in China, 1600-2010 Marjorie Dryburgh, Sarah Dauncey, 2013-10-31 This innovative collection explores the life stories of Chinese women and men between the seventeenth and twenty first centuries It draws on both biographical and autobiographical narratives and on perspectives taken from life writing theory to ask how lives were lived and written within and against the rules of the auto biographical game Going Places Robert Burgin, 2013-01-08 Successfully navigate the rich world of travel narratives and identify fiction and nonfiction read alike with this detailed and expertly constructed guide Just as savvy travelers make use of guidebooks to help navigate the hundreds of countries around the globe smart librarians need a guidebook that makes sense of the world of travel narratives Going Places A Reader's Guide to Travel Narratives meets that demand helping librarians assist patrons in finding the nonfiction books that most interest them It will also serve to help users better understand the genre and their own reading interests The book examines the subgenres of the travel narrative genre in its seven chapters categorizing and describing approximately 600 titles according to genres and broad reading interests and identifying hundreds of other fiction and nonfiction titles as read alike and related reads by shared key topics The author has also identified award winning titles and spotlighted further resources on travel lit making this work an ideal guide for readers advisors as well a book general readers will enjoy browsing The Tibetan Government-in-Exile Stephanie Römer, 2008-05-15 This book provides a detailed account of the structure and political strategies of the Tibetan government in exile the Central Tibetan Administration CTA in northern India Since its founding in 1959 it has been led by the 14th Dalai Lama who struggles to regain the Tibetan homeland Based on a theoretical approach on exile organizations and extensive empirical studies in Asia this book discusses CTA's political strategies to gain national loyalty and international support in order to secure its own organizational survival and the ultimate goal the return to Tibet The book is organized around the two fundamental questions firstly how the CTA fosters its claims to be the sole representative of all Tibetans over the last decades in exile and secondly which policies have been carried out in order to regain the homeland The book is divided into four substantial chapters the historical background providing a review of pre 1959 political Tibet a theoretical section which covers the critical position of exile organizations an examination of the exile Tibetan community and government from the early years an analysis of crucial CTA policies Innovative and unique this book combines a political science approach with

Tibetan studies to analyse exile Tibetan politics in particular and exile governments in general The Ethics of Exile Ashwini Vasanthakumar, 2021-11-04 Exiles have long been transformative actors in their homelands they foment revolution sustain dissent and work to create renewed political institutions and identities back home Ongoing waves of migration ensure that they will continue to play these vital roles Rather than focus on what exiles mean for the countries they enter a perspective that often treats them as passive victims The Ethics of Exile recognises their political and moral agency and explores their rich and vital relationship to the communities they have left It offers a rare view of the other side of the migration story Engaging with a series of case studies this book identifies the responsibilities and rights exiles have and the important roles they play in homeland politics It argues that exile politics performs two functions it can correct defective political institutions back home and it can counter asymmetries of voice and power abroad In short exiles can act both as a linchpin and a buffer between political communities in crisis and the international actors who seek to variously aid and exploit them When we think about the duties we owe to those forced to leave their homes we should consider how to enable rather than thwart these roles The Big Bookshelf Sunil Sethi, 2011 Famous writers are often reticent about how and why they write how their ideas and themes develop or how their characters and plots emerge They can be equally reserved about their personal histories But in the hands of seasoned journalist and skilful interviewer Sunil Sethi presenter of Just Books NDTV's long running weekend literary show they open up in unexpected and fascinating ways In this selection of thirty of his best interviews from Just Books they speak freely and frankly about their craft their life stories and the nature of their creative impulse Featured here are literary giants including Nobel laureates and Booker Prize winners internationally acclaimed historians biographers and philosophers authors of best selling thrillers novels and travel books and brilliant young trendsetters Their conversations with Sethi are in turn reflective and incisive witty and poignant but always candid and intimate as they provide rare insights into their inner lives and engagement with the world they inhabit Each voice in this diverse collection is original distinctive and revealing as they cover the wide terrain of life and literature This volume vividly brings alive each author's personality and work ingeniously bridging the gap between reader and writer
