Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 2000 Proceedings International Epidemiology Work Group on Drug Abuse. Meeting, 1997 Epidemiologic Trends in Drug Abuse National Institute on Drug Abuse. Community Epidemiology Work Group, 1997 Epidemiologic Trends in Drug Abuse National Institute on Drug Abuse. International Epidemiology Work Group on Drug Abuse, 1998 Blackstone's Sentencing Index Maxwell Barrett, 1998 The Indexes are a reference source for legal practitioners and academics seeking to locate a specific 20th century precedent or trying to discover whether there is a relevant precedent in a particular area of law Cases are listed alphabetically by plaintiff and defendant as well as alphabetically by subject The court which decided each case is also identified and cases are followed by brief pointers which indicate in greater detail the precise nature of the decisions made This work covers sentencing Drug Use in Prisons David Shewan, John B. Davies, 2013-12-19 First Published in 2000 In this title the author argues that drug users end up in gaol for many reasons but in the most general terms they divide the drug using part of a prison population along three lines Those incarcerated because of their use or possession of drugs with intent to supply those gaol for offences other than drug use but who happen to be involved in drug use and those who acquired their drug habit whilst in gaol They argue that whilst prisons offer the opportunity to influence drug habits in a positive way it can also produce exactly the opposite effect Smoking, Drinking and Drug Taking in the European Region Anna May Harkin, Peter Anderson, Cees Goos, 1997 Provides an overview of trends in consumption the harm arising from such consumption and corresponding policy responses in the 50 countries of the WHO European region An important issue has been the need for standardization in data collection systems within and between countries so as to facilitate trend analysis and intercountry comparisons Controversial Issues In Prisons Scott, David, Codd, Helen, 2010-05-01 Controversial Issues in Prisons is a textbook designed to explore eight of the most controversial aspects of imprisonment in England and Wales today It is primarily a book about the people who are sent to prison and what happens to them when inside Each chapter examines a different dimension of the prison population and draws upon the sociological imagination to make connections between the personal troubles and vulnerabilities of those incarcerated with wider structural divisions which plague the society we live in The book investigates controversies surrounding the incarceration of people with mental health problems women children foreign nationals offenders with suicidal ideation sex offenders drug takers and the collateral consequences of incarceration on prisoners families Each chapter on these eight substantive topics shares a common structure and answers the following key questions How have people conceptualised this penal controversy What does the official data tell us and what are its limitations What is its historical context What are the contemporary policies of the Prison Service Are they legitimate and if not what are the alternatives Ultimately the authors argue that in combination these controversial issues raise fundamental concerns about the legitimacy of the confinement project and the kind of society in which it is deemed essential The book concludes with a discussion of why it remains important to make penal controversies visible challenge penological illiteracy and provide alternative means of responding to human wrongdoing rooted in the principles of human rights and social justice
