student populations Gun Women Mary Zeiss Stange, Carol K. Oyster, 2000-09-01 Women we are told should not own guns Women we are told are more likely to be injured by their own guns than to fend off an attack themselves This fact is rooted in a fundamental assumption of female weakness and vulnerability Why should a woman not be every bit as capable as a man of using a firearm in self defense And yet the reality is that millions of American women somewhere between 11 000 000 and 17 000 000 use guns confidently and competently every day Women are hunting using firearms in their work as policewomen and in the military shooting for sport and arming themselves for personal security in ever increasing numbers What motivates women to possess firearms What is their relationship to their guns And who exactly are these women Crucially can a woman be a gun owner and a feminist too Women s growing tendency to arm themselves has in recent years been political fodder for both the right and the left Female gun owners are frequently painted as trying to be like men the conservative perspective or capitulating to patriarchal ideas about power the liberal critique Eschewing the polar extremes in the heated debate over gun ownership and gun control and linking firearms and feminism in novel fashion Mary Zeiss Stange and Carol K Oyster here cut through the rhetoric to paint a precise and unflinching account of America s gun women American Jewish Women's History Pamela S. Nadell, 2003-04-05 It gives me a secret pleasure to observe the fair character our family has in the place by Jews Christians Abigail Levy Franks wrote to her son from New York City in 1733 Abigail was part of a tiny community of Jews living in the new world In the centuries that followed as that community swelled to several millions women came to occupy diverse and changing roles American Jewish Women s History an anthology covering colonial times to the present illuminates that historical diversity It shows women shaping Judaism and their American Jewish communities as they engaged in volunteer activities and political crusades battled stereotypes and constructed relationships with their Christian neighbors It ranges from Rebecca Gratz s development of the Jewish Sunday School in Philadelphia in 1838 to protest the rising prices of kosher meat at the turn of the century to the shaping of southern Jewish women s cultural identity through food There is currently no other reader conveying the breadth of the historical experiences of American Jewish women available The reader is divided into four sections complete with detailed introductions The contributors include Joyce Antler Joan Jacobs Brumberg Alice Kessler Harris Paula E Hyman Riv Ellen Prell and Jonathan D Sarna Women and Museums Victor J.
