The New Success ,1920 Resources in Education ,1994 Tempered in the Revolutionary Furnace Yihong Pan,2003-01-09 In Tempered in the Revolutionary Furnace Yihong Pan tells her personal story and that of her generation of urban middle school graduates sent to the countryside during China's Rustication Movement. Based on interviews, reminiscences, diaries, letters, and newspaper accounts, the work examines the varied and often perplexing experiences of the seventeen million Chinese students sent to work in the countryside between 1953 and 1980. Rich in human drama, Pan's book illustrates how life in the countryside transformed the children of Mao from innocent ignorant yet often passionate believers in the Communist Party into independent adults. Those same adults would lead the nationwide protests in the winter of 1978-79 that forced the government to abandon its policy of rustication. Richly textured, this work successfully blends biography with a wealth of historical insight to bring to life the trials of a generation and to offer Chinese studies scholars a fascinating window into Mao Zedong's China.

The Disappearing Christ Phil Maciak, 2019-08-27. At the turn of the twentieth century, American popular culture was booming with opportunities to see Jesus Christ. From the modernized eyewitness gospel of Ben-Hur to the widely circulated passion play films of Edison, Lumière, and Pathé, from D.W. Griffith's conjuration of a spectral white savior in Birth of a Nation to W.E.B. Du Bois's Black Christ story, cycle Jesus was constantly and inventively visualized across media and especially in the new medium of film Why in an era traditionally defined by the triumph of secular ideologies and institutions were so many artists rushing to film Christ's miracles and use his story and image to contextualize their experiences of modernity In The Disappearing Christ Phillip Maciak examines filmic depictions of Jesus to argue that cinema developed as a model technology of secularism training viewers for belief in a secular age Negotiating between the magic trick and the documentary image the conflicting impulses of faith and skepticism the emerging aesthetic of film in this period visualized the fraught process of secularization Cinematic depictions of an appearing and disappearing Christ became a powerful vehicle for Americans to navigate a rapidly modernizing society Studying these films alongside a multimedia interdisciplinary archive of novels photographs illustrations and works of theology travel writing and historiography The Disappearing Christ offers a new narrative of American cultural history at the intersection of cinema studies and religious studies

Admit One Thomas Richards, 2019-04-02 How to craft a dynamic personal essay that will get your college application noticed College admissions that is admission to the school of your choice has become incredibly competitive Students and their families prepare from grade school onward to shape school careers that will give them a leg up in applying to selective colleges But sterling academic performance AP classes high test scores and sports and other extracurricular activities are no longer enough to guarantee a slot at Stanford Johns Hopkins or the Ivies In Admit One Thomas Richards focuses on a key aspect of the college admissions decision one that makes all the difference in applications good writing This involves mastering the dreaded personal essay but more than that it means writing a college application with a consistent overarching narrative one that tells a student's intimate story Writing has the ability to render the grain of a student's own voice fully integrated and fully under their own control More than any other element of the application strong writing is capable of revealing applicants as individuals from the inside out allowing admissions committees to make fine distinctions between otherwise identical candidates In plain language Richards draws together this sense of writing as central to college admissions while showing candidates the secrets of creating an effective beautifully crafted personal essay From selecting words to shaping sentences building paragraphs and even clarifying a voice Richards's approach is the key to getting a student's application noticed and read The resulting essay that readers craft will come as close as possible to being a trustworthy representation of a whole person Treating the college application as a rigorous intellectual exercise Admit One contains everything students need to know in order to present themselves with clear edged precision to an application committee
