delivery to a noetic one which incorporates more intellectual processes The argument is that the tension heightened by discord over its definition eventually led to the splitting of delivery from the rhetorical canon A separate discussion of the women s challenge to delivery is also included The next section contains a survey of facets of delivery that exist in current theory combined with the author s own theory of delivery It provides insight into the state of delivery in contemporary writing instruction The author argues that since the split of delivery from the rhetorical canon has caused a modern bias against delivery in writing theory many strategies that could aid in the teaching of writing have either been overlooked or undertheorized Therefore she borrows from current theoretical areas within and outside of writing in order to construct her own theory of delivery The last section provides practical applications of delivery in writing instruction Again borrowing from many sources inside and outside of composition she describes the techniques teachers may use to incorporate delivery in a writing classroom Through the use of delivery more strategies may be developed to aid in the teaching of writing Special features include the incorporation of some practices that had been in use in the composition classroom for many years but did not have any consciously theoretical grounding the discussion of women rhetoricians theories on delivery the combination of many contemporary theoretical areas including theatrical feminist rhetorical and pedagogical to form the author s redefined theory of delivery and the presentation of practical applications of this new theory of delivery for teachers to utilize in their own classrooms
