Writing Life Celebrated Canadian And International Authors On Writing And Life:

The Cambridge Companion to Alice Munro David Staines, 2016-03-08 This Companion is a thorough introduction to the writings of the Nobel Prize winner Alice Munro. Uniting the talents of distinguished creative writers and noted academics, David Staines has put together a comprehensive exploratory account of Munro's biography, her position as a feminist, her evocation of life in small town Ontario, her non-fictional writings as well as her short stories and her artistic achievement. Considering a wide range of topics including Munro's style, life, writing, her personal development and her use of Greek myths, Celtic ballads, Norse sagas and popular songs, this volume will appeal to keen readers of Munro's fiction as well as students and scholars of literature and Canadian and gender studies. Alice Munro: Writing Her Lives Robert Thacker, 2011-05-03 This is the book about one of the world's great authors, Alice Munro, which shows how her life and her stories intertwine. For almost thirty years, Robert Thacker has been researching this book, steeping himself in Alice Munro's life and work, working with her co-operation to make it complete. The result is a feast of information for Alice Munro's admirers everywhere. By following the parallel tracks of Alice Munro's life and Alice Munro's texts, he gives a thorough and revealing account of both her life and work. There is always a starting point in reality; she once said of her stories, and this book reveals just how often her stories spring from her life. The book is chronological, starting with her pioneer ancestors but with special attention paid to her parents and to her early days growing up poor in Wingham. Then all of her life stages: the marriage to Jim Munro, the move to Vancouver, then to Victoria to start the bookstore, the three daughters, the divorce, the return to Huron County and the new life with Gerry Fremlin, leading to the triumphs as story by story, book by book, she gains fame around the world until rumours of a Nobel Prize circulate. True to Life Beth Kaplan, 2014-08-17 In fifty informative and inspiring steps, Beth Kaplan shows you how to write your story by putting on your writer's hat, then your editor's hat, then digging down to bring out the vital details of the story and finally living the writing life. Steps include: Read Like a Writer, Unleash the I Word, Claim Your Truth, Write from Scars, Not Wounds, Enter the Marketplace. Marxism and the Origins of International Relations José Ricardo Villanueva Lira, 2021-10-20 This book investigates to what extent and in what ways Marxist writings and precepts on imperialism informed the so-called idealist stage of International Relations (IR). Though the formative years of International Relations coincide with a vibrant period in Marxist political thought, Marxism is strikingly absent from the historiography of the discipline. Building on the work of revisionist scholars, the book reconstructs the writings of five benchmark IR thinkers. Villanueva analyzes the cases of John Hobson, Henry Brailsford, Leonard Woolf, Harold Laski, and Norman Angell to explore the influence that Marxism played in their thinking and in the idealist years of the discipline more generally. He ultimately demonstrates that although Marxist thought has been neglected by mainstream IR disciplinary historians, it played a significant role in the discipline's early development. As such, this book both challenges the exclusion of Marxist thought from the mainstream disciplinary histories of IR and contributes to a deeper understanding of the role it played in early 20th century IR theory Canadian Primal Mark Dickinson,2021-02-18 Over the past few decades a group of writers we might call the Thinking and Singing poets have stood at the forefront of poetry in Canada These five poets Dennis Lee Don McKay Robert Bringhurst Jan Zwicky and Tim Lilburn are major voices in an era of ecological devastation and spiritual unease Their diverse questioning work suggests new ways to confront some of the most pressing issues of our time In vibrant prose Mark Dickinson explores the relationship between the lives of these poets and their writing examining their intersecting careers and friendships and the ways they learned from and challenged one another Canadian Primal uses an unconventional approach blending biography with literary analysis and drawing from meetings and correspondence with each poet over many years to trace the people and events that inspired the creation of important texts Dickinson tracks how each of the writers arrived at poetry as a way of being and at the heart of their poetics he finds both a musical intelligence and the crucial importance of the land Canadian Primal is literary biography reconceived as an adventure of the mind body and spirit Ebullient intelligent and eminently readable it reminds us that we can live on the earth in a different way true to the defining experiences of our lives surrounded by meaning and presence beyond our imagining Alice Munro's Miraculous Art Janice Fiamengo,Gerald Lynch,2017-02-14 Alice Munro's Miraculous Art is a collection of sixteen original essays on Nobel laureate Alice Munro's writings The volume covers the entirety of Munro's career from the first stories she published in the early 1950s as an undergraduate at the University of Western Ontario to her final books It offers an enlightening range of approaches and interpretive strategies and provides many new perspectives reconsidered positions and analyses that will enhance the reading teaching and appreciation of Munro's remarkable indeed miraculous work Following the editors introduction which surveys Munro's recurrent themes explains the design of the book and summarizes each contribution Munro biographer Robert Thacker contributes a substantial bio critical introduction to her career The book is then divided into three sections focusing on Munro's characteristic forms themes and most notable literary effects

Toronto Trailblazers Ruth Panofsky,2019-09-12 The first ever study of women in Canadian publishing Toronto Trailblazers delves into the cultural influence of seven key women who despite pervasive gender bias helped advance a modern literary culture for Canada Publisher Irene Clarke scholarly editors Eleanor Harman and Frances Halpenny trade editors Sybil Hutchinson Claire Pratt and Anna Porter and literary agent Bella Pomer made the most of their vocational prospects first by securing their respective positions and then by refining their professional methods Individually each woman asserted her agency by adapting orthodox ways of working within Canadian publishing Collectively and perhaps more importantly their overarching approach emerged more broadly as a feminist practice Guided by the resolve to make industry wide improvements these women disrupted the dominant masculine paradigm and reinvigorated the culture of publishing and authorship in Canada Through their vision and method these trailblazing women became agents of change who helped transform publishing practice Canadian Book Review Annual ,2007 Descendants of Waverley Martha F.

Bowden,2016-08-11 Descendants of Waverley examines contemporary novelists combination of historical authority and narrative art to create authentic and accessible depictions of the past This technique the romance of history challenges conventional theories that the novel as a genre erased the romance Individual chapters establish the critical framework analyze the strategies that authors use to romance history and demonstrate the subgenres that exist in current historical fiction While the author does not consider Walter Scott to be the inventor of historical fiction she demonstrates the ways in which contemporary fiction s techniques reflect the form of the genre that Scott both developed and theorized in the Waverley novels 1814 1832 In writing his historical romances Scott drew on the forms of the fictions that preceded his work especially Gothic fiction and was influenced by the fluid definitions of romance that permeated the theorizing of the novel and its development in the eighteenth century where fiction was described as evolving from and replacing romances and referred to as romances themselves She begins by tracing this history and moves on to discuss contemporary fiction both as technique in the uses of intertextuality and in as form in the increasing hybridity of contemporary fiction This hybridity is reflected in such forms as the historical detective novel the embedded narrative and the biographical novel the pedagogical elements inherent in the historical novel before Scott s oeuvre continue into the present The book ends with the recent phenomenon of historical fantasy in this subgenre the traits of more conventional historical fiction such as intertextuality and the tension between the familiar and strange combine with a playful form of fantasy that releases revenants among the Luddites and wizards into the Battle of Waterloo John Frow s theory of the slipperiness of genre is a critical component for explicating the most recent metamorphoses of historical fiction The critical framework also develops from recent and eighteenth century histories of the novel twentieth and twenty first century theories of Scott s influence and contemporary writers own reflections on what they do when they write historical novels Quill & Quire ,2007
 ,2022-02-24 A Reader on Reading Alberto Manguel,2010-03-02 In this major collection of his essays Alberto Manguel whom George Steiner has called the Casanova of reading argues that the activity of reading in its broadest sense defines our species We come into the world intent on finding narrative in everything writes Manguel landscape the skies the faces of others the images and words that our species create Reading our own lives and those of others reading the societies we live in and those that lie beyond our borders reading the worlds that lie between the covers of a book are the essence of A Reader on Reading The thirty nine essays in this volume explore the crafts of reading and writing the identity granted to us by literature the far reaching shadow of Jorge Luis Borges to whom Manguel read as a young man and the links between politics and books and between books and our bodies The powers of censorship and intellectual curiosity the art of translation and those numinous memory palaces we call libraries also figure in this remarkable collection For Manguel and his readers words in spite of everything lend coherence to the world and offer us a few safe places as real as paper and as bracing as ink to grant us room and board in our passage Sharon Pollock Sharon Pollock,2005 Third volume of plays from one of Canada's most celebrated playwrights The Malahat Review, 2007 Writing Life Constance Rooke, 2006 Since they were first published in the mid 1990s PEN Canada's two previous fundraising anthologies the widely acclaimed Writing Away and Writing Home have raised 200 000 in support of PEN's vital work on behalf of free speech and writers in prison around the world Now Writing Life promises to be the most successful volume yet In Writing Life fifty celebrated authors reveal surprising truths about what it means to be a writer and about the sparks that can result when writing and life intersect and sometimes collide Provocative candid often very funny personal and passionately engaged this inspired collection will take readers deep into the heart of the writing life Margaret Atwood revisits how she came to write five of her novels Russell Banks reveals why he doesn't do research John Berger and Michael Ondaatje discuss gate crashing characters and the magical instant when a work begins Joseph Boyden takes time out from promoting his first novel to go moose hunting Margaret Drabble considers the wickedness of stealing material from real life Howard Engel describes the stroke that took away his ability to read and where that left him as a writer Yann Martel reflects on the impossible necessary challenge of writing about the Holocaust Lisa Moore shows how crucial the mess and vitality of family life are to her writing Alice Munro shares why she might give up writing Rosemary Sullivan negotiates the risks and responsibilities that come with telling the story of a life Susan Swan wrestles with historical fact fiction and Casanova Proceeds from this volume will go to PEN Canada in support of its vital work on behalf of writers in prison around the world and in defence of freedom of expression both in Canada and abroad Writing Life Contributors List Andr Alexis Margaret Atwood Russell Banks David Bergen John Berger George Bowering Marilyn Bowering Joseph Boyden Di Brandt Barry Callaghan Lynn Coady Susan Coyne Michael Crummey Margaret Drabble Bernice Eisenstein Howard Engel Damon Galgut Jonathan Garfinkel Greg Gatenby Camilla Gibb Charlotte Gray Elizabeth Hay Michael Helm Sheila Heti Annabel Lyon David Macfarlane Alistair MacLeod Margaret MacMillan Alberto Manguel Yann Martel Anne Michaels Rohinton Mistry Lisa Moore Shani Mootoo Alice Munro Susan Musgrave Michael Ondaatje Anna Porter Eden Robinson Marilynne Robinson Peter Robinson John Ralston Saul Shyam Selvadurai Russell Smith Rosemary Sullivan Susan Swan Madeleine Thien Jane Urquhart Michael Winter Patricia Young

School Library Journal, 2006 International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets The Canadian Encyclopedia James H. Marsh, 1999 This edition of The Canadian Encyclopedia is the largest most comprehensive book ever published in Canada for the general reader It is COMPLETE every aspect of Canada from its rock formations to its rock bands is represented here It is UNABRIDGED all of the information in the four red volumes of the famous 1988 edition is contained here in this single volume It has been EXPANDED since 1988 teams of researchers have been diligently fleshing out old entries and recording new ones as a result the text from 1988 has grown by 50% to over 4 000 000 words It has been

UPDATED the researchers and contributors worked hard to make the information as current as possible Other words apply to this extraordinary work of scholarship AUTHORITATIVE RELIABLE and READABLE Every entry is compiled by an expert Equally important every entry is written for a Canadian reader from the Canadian point of view The finished work many years in the making and the equivalent of forty average sized books is an extraordinary storehouse of information about our country This book deserves pride of place on the bookshelf in every Canadian Home It is no accident that the cover of this book is based on the Canadian flag For the proud truth is that this volume represents a great national achievement From its formal inception in 1979 this encyclopedia has always represented a vote of faith in Canada in Canada as a separate place whose natural worlds and whose peoples and their achievements deserve to be recorded and celebrated At the start of a new century and a new millennium in an increasingly borderless corporate world that seems ever more hostile to national distinctions and aspirations this Canadian Encyclopedia is offered in a spirit of defiance and of faith in our future The statistics behind this volume are staggering The opening sixty pages list the 250 Consultants the roughly 4 000 Contributors all experts in the field they describe and the scores of researchers editors typesetters proofreaders and others who contributed their skills to this massive project The 2 640 pages incorporate over 10 000 articles and over 4 000 000 words making it the largest some might say the greatest Canadian book ever published There are of course many special features These include a map of Canada a special page comparing the key statistics of the 23 major Canadian cities maps of our cities a variety of tables and photographs and finely detailed illustrations of our wildlife not to mention the colourful informative endpapers But above all the book is encyclopedic which the Canadian Oxford Dictionary describes as embracing all branches of learning This means that with rare exceptions there is satisfaction for the reader who seeks information on any Canadian subject From the first entry A mari usque ad mare from sea to sea which is Canada s motto and a good description of this volume s range to the Zouaves who mustered in Quebec to fight for the beleaguered Papacy there is the required summary of information clearly and accurately presented For the browser the constant variety of entries and the lure of regular cross references will provide hours of fascination The word encyclopedia derives from Greek expressions alluding to a grand circle of knowledge Our knowledge has expanded immeasurably since the time that one mind could encompass all that was known Yet now Canada s finest scientists academics and specialists have distilled their knowledge of our country between the covers of one volume The result is a book for every Canadian who values learning and values Canada
