Writing the Poetry of Place in Britain, 1700-1807 Elizabeth R. Napier, 2022-11-30 This book discusses the intrusion often inadvertent of personal voice into the poetry of landscape in Britain 1700 1807 It argues that strong conventions such as those that inhere in topographical verse of the period invite original poets to overstep those bounds while also shielding them from the repercussions of self expression Working under cover of convention in this manner and because for many of these poets place is tied in significant ways to personal history poets of place may launch unexpected explorations into memory personhood and the workings of consciousness This book thus supplements past largely political readings of landscape poetry turning to questions of self articulation and self expression in order to argue that the autobiographical impulse is a distinctive and innovative feature of much great eighteenth century poetry of place Among the poets under examination are Pope Thomson Duck Gray Goldsmith Crabbe Cowper Smith and Wordsworth

Writing Place Rebecca Hutcheon, 2018-02-12 Exploring a hitherto neglected field Writing Place Mimesis Subjectivity and Imagination in the Works of George Gissing is the first monograph to consider the works of George Gissing 1857 1903 in light of the spatial turn By exploring how objectivity and subjectivity interact in his work the book asks what are the risks of looking for the real in Gissing s places How does the inherent heterogeneity of Gissing s observation influence the textual recapitulation of place In addition to examining canonical texts such as The Nether World 1889 New Grub Street 1891 and The Private Papers of Henry Ryecroft 1901 the book analyses the lesser known novels short stories journalism and personal writings of Gissing in the context of modern spatial studies The book challenges previously biographical and London centric accounts of Gissing s representation of space and place by re examining seemingly innate contemporaneous geographical demarcations such as the north and the south the city suburb and country Europe and the world and re reading Gissing s places in the contexts of industrialism ruralism

the city in literature and travel writing Through sustained attention to the ambiguities and contradictions rooted in the form and content of his writing the book concludes that ultimately Gissing s novels undermine spatial dichotomies by emphasising and celebrating the incongruity of seeming certainties
