Art Labor, Sex Politics Siona Wilson,2015-02-01 Contrary to critics who have called it the undecade the 1970s were a time of risky innovative art and nowhere more so than in Britain where the forces of feminism and labor politics merged in a radical new aesthetic In Art Labor Sex Politics Siona Wilson investigates the charged relationship of sex and labor politics as it played out in the making of feminist art in 1970s Britain Her sustained exploration of works of experimental film installation performance and photography maps the intersection of feminist and leftist projects in the artistic practices of this heady period Collective practice grassroots activism and iconoclastic challenges to society s sexual norms are all fundamental elements of this theoretically informed history The book provides fresh assessments of key feminist figures and introduces readers to less widely known artists such as Jo Spence and controversial groups like COUM Transmissions Wilson s interpretations of two of the best known and infamous exhibitions of feminist art Mary Kelly s Post Partum Document and COUM Transmissions Prostitution supply a historical context that reveals these works anew Together these analyses demonstrate that feminist attention to sexual difference sex and psychic formation reconfigures received categories of labor and politics How and how much do sexual politics transform our approach to aesthetic debates What effect do the tropes of sexual difference and labor have on the very conception of the political within cultural practice These are the questions that animate Art Labor Sex Politics as it illuminates an intense and influential decade of intellectual and artistic experimentation

Understanding Barthes, Understanding Modernism Jeffrey R. Di Leo,Zahi Zalloua,2022-07-14 Understanding Barthes Understanding Modernism is a general assessment of the modern literary and philosophical contributions of Roland Barthes The first part of the volume focuses on work published prior to Barthes s death in 1980 covering the major periods of his development from Writing Degree Zero 1953 to Camera Lucida Reflections on Photography 1980 The second part focuses both on the posthumously published material and the legacies of his work after his death in 1980 This later work has attracted attention for example in conjunction with notions of the neutral gay writing and critiques of everyday life The third part is devoted to some of the critical vocabulary of Barthes in both the work he published during his lifetime and that which was published posthumously The Modern Essay in French Charles Forsdick,Andy Stafford,2005 As a textual form the essai predominates in modern and contemporary literature in French Emerging from an earlier tradition and distinguished from its English language counterpart the French language essay ranges from St phane Mallarm to Colette Victor Segalen to

Aim C saire Jean Grenier to Pierre Michon The essai remains however one of the most hazily identified of textual forms its definition often depending on the progressive elimination of all other generic possibilities Excluded from the archigenres theatre poetry r cit it can even be seen as a hold all category whose role is to absorb the anarchic extremes of writing It is perhaps this very lack of pretension to orthodoxy that has drawn so many writers to the essai The conventional understanding of the term as a tentative unsystematic exploration stresses the genre s provisional nature its refusal of any claims to comprehensiveness The essai exploits the devices of anecdote illustration and humour it is addressed to a wide and often general audience it is also intricately linked to the performance of ideological and writerly strategies often reordering the classical art of rhetoric and persuasion As the contributions to this volume show there is a need to outline an ethics and politics as well as poetics of essayism

Roland Barthes' Cinema Philip Watts,2016-03-04 The most famous name in French literary circles from the late 1950s till his death in 1981 Roland Barthes maintained a contradictory rapport with the cinema As a cultural critic he warned of its surreptitious ability to lead the enthralled spectator toward an acceptance of a pre given world As a leftist he understood that spectacle could be turned against itself and provoke deep questioning of that pre given world And as an extraordinarily sensitive human being he relished the beauty of images and the community they could bring together
