Assessing Autoethnography Andrew F. Herrmann, Tony E. Adams, 2024-08-13 Assessing Autoethnography provides readers with multiple ways to analyze autoethnographies and other forms of personal narrative writing Given the proliferation of such forms across academic contexts the book offers a guide of what autoethnography is why it matters and how to do it Taking each of the three parts of auto ethno and graphy in detail Herrmann and Adams provide criteria and points of discussion to ensure robust assessment of an autoethnographic work as a whole Every chapter is accompanied with exemplars and considers issues such as ethics storytelling and good writing The book discerns the kinds of personal experiences that often work best for autoethnographic projects and provide ways to evaluate fieldwork interviews and representations Written by two experts in the field Assessing Autoethnography offers guidance to scholars and dissertation advisors across diverse disciplines in producing autoethnographic work and utilizing autoethnographic methods The book will be of interest to researchers in the fields of Communication Studies Education Sociology Women's and Gender Studies Critical Race Studies Mass Communication English and other related disciplines

The Ethnographic I Carolyn Ellis, 2004 Carolyn Ellis the leading proponent of autoethnography weaves both methodological advice and her own personal stories into an intriguing narrative about a fictional graduate course she instructs Through Ellis's interactions with her students you are given useful strategies for conducting a study including the need for introspection the struggles of the budding ethnographic writer the practical problems in explaining results of this method to outsiders and the moral and ethical issues that get raised in this intimate form of research

Qualitative Research and Complex Teams Judith Davidson, 2018-09-28 Most qualitative researchers work on teams at some point Qualitative Research and Complex Teams charts new methodological territory by providing hands on help for qualitative researchers working on team projects Useful to those working with a purely qualitative research design or mixed methods the text provides a unique focus on writing and communications offering strategies for all stages of the process from research design to final product This volume provides an overview of the research related to team based work as well as a discussion of relevant changes in approaches to writing in the field Readers will learn how to initiate team based work through a digital tool kit approach organize systems to insure efficiency and undertake the process of bringing together and training diverse teams Jargon free this book provides strong guidance for thinking about the joint arenas of methodological and substantive writing and it develops ways to further the aims of both as the project proceeds A Methodology of the Heart Ronald J. Pelias, 2004-06-03 Education without ethics without sentiments without heart is simply soulless factual academics and nothing more In his array of authentic essays Ronald J Pelias poetically evokes the spiritual aspects of life in a seemingly dispassionate field the academy A Methodology of the Heart presents a procession of situational compositions confronting matters such as family relationships student teacher communications and general life at the university In his comical yet candid book Pelias depicts the emotional battle for understanding and honesty within the conventional boundaries of higher education It introduces such subjects as autoethnography autobiography personal narratives memoir creative non fiction and performative writing It is absolutely a crucial addition to all book collectors with autoethnographic or communication interests as well as to the general reader attracted to daily life and higher education Ethnographically Speaking Arthur P. Bochner, Carolyn Ellis, 2002 This volume presents explorations in the literary turn in ethnographic work Drawing from a range of disciplines such as sociology philosophy psychology and English the author demonstrates the ways in which ethnography can be effectively expressed

The Routledge Handbook of Wine and Culture Steve Charters, Marion Demossier, Jacqueline Dutton, Graham Harding, Jennifer Smith Maguire, Denton Marks, Tim Unwin, 2022-04-26 This title was a prize winner at the OIV International Organisation of Vine and Wine Awards 2023 The link between culture and wine reaches back into the earliest history of humanity The Routledge Handbook of Wine and Culture brings together a newly comprehensive interdisciplinary overview of contemporary research and thinking on how wine fits into the cultural frameworks of production intermediation and consumption Bringing together many leading researchers engaged in studying these phenomena it explores the different ways in which wine is constructed as a social artefact and how its representation and use acquire symbolic meaning Wine can be analysed in different ways by varying disciplines involved in exploring wine and culture anthropology economics and business geography history and sociology and as text The Handbook uses these as lenses to consider how producers intermediaries and consumers use and create cultural significance Specifically the work addresses the following how wine relates to place belief systems and accompanying rituals how it may be used as a marker of the identity and mechanisms of civilising processes often in conjunction with food and the arts how its framing intersects with science and nature the ideologies and power relations which arise around all these activities and the relation of this to wine markets and public institutions This is essential reading for researchers and students in education for the wine industry and in the humanities and social sciences engaged in understanding patterns of human ingenuity and interaction such as sociology anthropology economics health geography business tourism cultural studies food studies and history Performing Femininity Lesa Lockford, 2004-09-20 A personal revealing and sometimes humorous exploration of female experience Performing Femininity challenges traditional and feminist perspectives on gender roles Using ethnographic method Lesa Lockford transforms herself into an image obsessed weight watcher an exotic dancer and a theatrical performer In several evocative narratives

Lockford uses this experimental methodology to rupture the conventional dichotomy of patriarchal versus feminist points of view goading and challenging her audience as she breaches the borders of these typically opposed ideologies She explores how both paradigms constrain women but also how they are simultaneously enacted and subverted in the performances women play in their daily lives Performing Femininity will be a provocative read for the student of feminist thought and for those researchers looking at innovative ways to produce and present their research Bitter the Chastening Rod Ericka S. Dunbar Hill,Angela N. Parker,Mitzi J. Smith,2022-02-28 Bitter the Chastening Rod follows in the footsteps of the first collection of African American biblical interpretation Stony the Road We Trod 1991 Nineteen Africana biblical scholars contribute cutting edge essays reading Jesus criminalization the enslaved and whitened interpretations of the enslaved They present pedagogical strategies for teaching hermeneutics and bible translation that center Black Lives Matter and black culture Biblical narratives news media and personal stories intertwine in critical discussions of black rage protest anti blackness and mothering in the context of black precarity Festschrift in Honor of Norman K. Resources in Education ,1998 Critical Autoethnography Robin M. Boylorn,Mark P. Orbe,2020-11-26 Critical Autoethnography Intersecting Cultural Identities in Everyday Life Second Edition examines the development of the field of critical autoethnography through the lens of social identity Contributors situate interpersonal and intercultural experiences of gender race ethnicity ability citizenship sexuality and spirituality within larger systems of power oppression and privilege Approachable and accessible narratives highlight intersectional experiences of marginalization and interrogate social injustices The book is divided into three sections Complexities of Identity Performance Relationships in Diverse Contexts and Pathways to Culturally Authentic Selves Each thematic section includes provocative stories that critically engage personal and cultural narratives through a lens of difference The chapters in the book highlight both unique and ubiquitous extraordinary and common experiences in the interior lives of people who are Othered because of at least two overlapping identities The contributors offer first person accounts to suggest critical responses and alternatives to injustice The book also includes sectional summaries and discussion questions to facilitate dialogue and self reflection It is an excellent resource for undergraduate students graduate students educators and scholars who are interested in autoethnography interpersonal and intercultural communication qualitative studies personal narrative cultural studies and performance studies Ethnography Paul Atkinson,2007-06-26 Now in its third edition this leading introduction to ethnography has been thoroughly updated and substantially rewritten It offers a systematic introduction to ethnographic principles and practice New material covers the use of visual and virtual research methods hypermedia software and the issue of ethical regulation There is also a new prologue and epilogue The authors argue that ethnography is best understood as a reflexive process What this means is that we must recognize that social research is part of the world that it studies From an outline of the principle of reflexivity the authors go on to discuss and exemplify main features of ethnographic work including the selection and sampling of cases the problems of access observation and interviewing recording and filing data the process of data analysis and writing research reports Throughout the discussion draws on a wide range of illustrative material from classic and more recent studies within a global context The new edition of this popular textbook will be an indispensable resource for students and researchers utilizing social research methods in the social sciences and cultural studies

Epistemology, Ethics, and Meaning in Unusually Personal Scholarship Amber Esping, 2018-02-23 This book uses Viktor Frankl's Existential Psychology logotherapy to explore the ways some professors use unusually personal scholarship to discover meaning in personal adversity A psychiatrist imprisoned for three years in Nazi concentration camps Frankl believed the search for meaning is a powerful motivator and that its discovery can be profoundly therapeutic Part I begins with four stories of professors finding meaning Using the case studies as a foundation Part II investigates issues of epistemology and ethics in unusually personal research from an existential perspective The book offers advice for graduate students and faculty who want to live and work more meaningfully in the academy
