Writings Of A Deliberate Agrarian:

Writings of a Deliberate Agrarian Herrick Kimball, Carmon Friedrich, 2006-05-01 21st Century Homestead: Sustainable Agriculture I Marlon Henkel, 2015-02-22 21st Century Homestead Sustainable Agriculture I contains the first part of everything you need to stay up to date on sustainable agriculture Baptized with the Soil Kevin M. Lowe, 2016 In the early twentieth century many Americans were troubled by the way agriculture was becoming increasingly industrial and corporate Mainline Protestant churches and cooperative organizations began to come together to promote agrarianism the belief that the health of the nation depended on small rural communities and family farms In Baptized with the Soil Kevin M Lowe offers for the first time a comprehensive history of the Protestant commitment to rural America Christian agrarians believed that farming was the most moral way of life and a means for people to serve God by taking care of the earth that God created When the Great Depression hit Christian agrarians worked harder to keep small farmers on the land They formed alliances with state universities cooperative extension services and each other's denominations They experimented with ways of revitalizing rural church life including new worship services like Rural Life Sunday and new strategies for raising financial support like the Lord's Acre Because they believed that the earth was holy Christian agrarians also became leaders in promoting soil conservation Decades before the environmental movement they inspired an ethic of environmental stewardship in their congregations They may not have been able to prevent the spread of industrial agribusiness but their ideas have helped define significant and long lasting currents in American culture Writings and Speeches of G.V. Joshi Ganesh Vyankatesh Joshi, 1912 Green Ethics and Philosophy Julie Newman, 2011-06-28 Covers the moral relationship between humans and their natural environment specifically targeting the contemporary green movement

Writing the Mughal World Muzaffar Alam, Sanjay Subrahmanyam, 2012 Between the mid sixteenth and early nineteenth century the Mughal Empire was an Indo Islamic dynasty that ruled as far as Bengal in the east and Kabul in the west as high as Kashmir in the north and the Kaveri basin in the south The Mughals constructed a sophisticated complex system of government that facilitated an era of profound artistic and architectural achievement They promoted the place of Persian culture in Indian society and set the groundwork for South Asia's future development In this volume two leading historians of early modern South Asia present nine major joint essays on the Mughal Empire framed by an essential introductory reflection Making creative use of materials written in Persian Indian vernacular languages and a variety of European languages their chapters accomplish the most significant innovations in Mughal historiography in decades intertwining political cultural and commercial themes while exploring diplomacy state formation history writing religious debate and political thought Muzaffar Alam and Sanjay Subrahmanyam center on confrontations between different source materials that they then reconcile enabling readers to participate in both the debate and resolution of competing claims Their introduction discusses the comparative and historiographical approach of their work and its place within the literature on

Mughal rule Interdisciplinary and cutting edge this volume richly expands research on the Mughal state early modern South Asia and the comparative history of the Mughal Ottoman Safavid and other early modern empires London Essays in Economics Theodor Emanuel Gregory, Hugh Dalton Baron Dalton, 1927 Agrotopias Abby L. Goode, 2022-08-24 In this book Abby L Goode reveals the foundations of American environmentalism and the enduring partnership between racism eugenics and agrarian ideals in the United States Throughout the nineteenth century writers as diverse as Martin Delany Charlotte Perkins Gilman and Walt Whitman worried about unsustainable conditions such as population growth and plantation slavery In response they imagined agrotopias sustainable societies unaffected by the nation's agricultural and population crises elsewhere Though seemingly progressive these agrotopian visions depicted selective breeding and racial improvement as the path to environmental stability In this fascinating study Goode uncovers an early sustainability rhetoric interested in shaping just as much as sustaining the American population Showing how ideas about race and reproduction were central to early sustainability thinking Goode unearths an alternative environmental archive that ranges from gothic novels to Black nationalist manifestos from Waco Texas to the West Indies from city tenements to White House kitchen gardens Exposing the eugenic foundations of some of our most well regarded environmental traditions this book compels us to reexamine the benevolence of American environmental thought Writing Neoliberal Values Rachel C. Riedner, 2015-10-05 This book examines human interest stories unpacking from them violence inherent to neoliberalism and considers if it is possible to find in these stories hints of people and labour that suggest other narratives Tracks and Traces Philip Hirsch, Nicholas Tapp, 2010 This volume traces the threads that tie together an understanding of Thailand as a dynamic and rapidly changing society through an examination of the work of one major scholar of the country Andrew Turton Turton's anthropological studies of Thailand cover a wide spectrum from politics and economy to ritual and culture and have been crucial in shaping evolving understandings of Thai society In this collection ten leading specialists on Thailand from a variety of disciplines critically consider aspects of Turton's work in relation to the changing nature of different aspects of Thai society The book tracks the links between past and present scholarship examines the contextuality of scholarship in its times and sheds light on the current situation in Thailand Teaching Environmental Writing Isabel Galley, 2020-05-14 Environmental writing is an increasingly popular literary genre and a multifaceted genre at that Recently dominated by works of new nature writing environmental writing includes works of poetry and fiction about the world around us In the last two decades universities have begun to offer environmental writing modules and courses with the intention of teaching students skills in the field of writing inspired by the natural world This book asks how students are being guided into writing about environments Informed by independently conducted interviews with educators and a review of existing pedagogical guides it explores recurring instructions given to students for writing about the environment and compares these pedagogical approaches to the current theory and practice of ecocriticism by scholars such as Ursula Heise and Timothy

Morton Proposing a set of original pedagogical exercises influenced by ecocriticism the book draws on a number of self reflexive environmentally conscious poets including Juliana Spahr Jorie Graham and Les Murray as creative and stimulating models for teachers and students Writing the Radical Center John Beck,2001-10-05 Explores the cultural work of two important early twentieth century writers the poet William Carlos Williams and the educator philosopher John Dewey both key figures in American democracy Transnational Writing on Italy Lynn Mastellotto,2025-03-18 Relocation narratives form a distinct subgenre of contemporary travel memoirs concerned with the experiences of travellers who become settlers in foreign locales and narrate their experience of cultural accommodation in serial autobiographical accounts This book seeks to understand the discourse of identity alterity in relocation writing which focuses on the topos of everyday life from a transnational perspective one which embraces a cosmopolitan orientation of openness to cultural difference Focusing on three transnational writers in Italy and their respective relocation trilogies Frances Mayes s Tuscan memoirs Annie Hawes s Ligurian memoirs and Tim Parks s Verona memoirs the study examines the sustained engagement with place and place based practices given narrative voice through multipart works which trace the authors migrating identities These nonfiction accounts contribute to a broader polyphonic literature in which transnational writers give voice to personal stories shaped by intercultural experiences which provide a powerful localised lens to examine how identities are dialogically transformed through contact with difference in a globalised world By giving readers an opportunity to reflect on identity and diversity in local global contexts transnational literature contributes to a better understanding of cultural change in late modernity and provides an important space for critical creative and transcultural exchange Women's Writing In Latin America Sara Castro-klaren,2019-03-15 In the last two decades Latin American literature has received great critical acclaim in the English speaking world although attention has been focused primarily on the classic works of male literary figures such as Borges Paz and Cort zar More recently studies have begun to evaluate the works of established women writers such as Sor Juana In

Essential Writings Gilbert Keith Chesterton,2003 G K Chesterton 1874 1936 was one of the great Catholic writers of the twentieth century He brought a distinctive Catholic perspective to scores of books and articles even to the genre of detective novels in the famous Father Brown mysteries As this collection shows Chesterton s writing contains a spiritual dimension In his ability to combine matters of great seriousness with great humor the contours of his distinctive and paradoxical spirituality emerge Style, Gender, and Fantasy in Nineteenth-Century American Women's Writing Dorri Beam,2010-06-03 In this 2010 book Dorri Beam presents an important contribution to nineteenth century fiction by examining how and why a florid and sensuous style came to be adopted by so many authors Discussing a diverse range of authors including Margaret Fuller and Pauline Hopkins Beam traces this style through a variety of literary endeavors and reconstructs the political rationale behind the writers commitments to this form of prose Beam provides both close readings of a number of familiar and unfamiliar works and an overarching account of the importance of this form of writing suggesting new ways of looking at style as a medium through which gender can be signified and reshaped Style Gender and Fantasy in Nineteenth Century American Women's Writing redefines our understanding of women's relation to aesthetics and their contribution to both American literary romanticism and feminist reform This illuminating account provides valuable new insights for scholars of American literature and women's writing Writing the South Richard Gray, Richard J. Gray, 1997 In this major reconsideration of a regional consciousness Richard Gray explores how generations of southerners have been engaged in writing the South in reinventing their place even as they describe it Humane and learned informative and analytical WRITING THE SOUTH is a most impressive addition to cultural inquiry THE LISTENER 12 photos

Policymaking Under Adversity Yehezkel Dror, 2017-09-29 This groundbreaking study systematically treats recent policymaking trends starting with a reconsideration of salient theoretical issues of policymaking and its study and culminating with a survey of current policy related predicaments in various countries Dror proposes that the task for social science research is to uncover underlying causes of policymaking inadequacies Standard research methods Dror states have been unable to uncover the realities of important decisions made inside governments In order to gain an understanding of pressing predicaments he believes that policymakers need to examine the foundations of contemporary practices of present assumptions and that they need a multiplicity of approaches to policymaking After prescribing a set of requirements that policymaking must satisfy in order to adequately respond to challenges Dror posits several improvements needed in education and in policy decision making The book concludes with an extensive bibliography including numerous important German works not found in other English language studies This book supplements the earlier basic theory and models propounded in Dror's Public Policymaking Reexamined by dealing with current trends As a guide to public policy literature and related works it will be invaluable to students and practitioners Routledge Library Editions: Social and Political Thought in the Nineteenth Century Various Authors, 2022-07-30 This set reissues eight books that explore the social and political thought of the nineteenth century The titles in this set originally published between 1943 and 2001 examine several of the important figures of the time including Jeremy Bentham and Thomas Carlyle whilst also examining political movements and the emergence and growth of libertarian thought This set will be of particular interest to students of social and political history Essays on International Law and Practice Shabtai Rosenne, 2007-05-30 This volume collects papers written by Shabtai Rosenne in the course of his distinguished career on various topics primarily in the areas in which he is best known for his expertise international litigation and courts the law of treaties the law of the sea and state responsibility His writing on fact finding before the International Court of Justice treaty succession codification and the framework agreement as the basis for the jurisdiction of the ICJ in particular remain as interesting timely and essential today as when they were first written The collection is accompanied by a table of cases a table of treaties and an index for easy reference
