Soviets plan to block extension of UNEF in Sinai

UNITED NATIONS, (ITA) — The mandate of the United Nations Emergency Force (UNEF) in the Sinai, ending as a buffer between Israel and Egyptian forces, will not be renewed as a result of Soviet opposition, diplomatic sources at the United Nations told the Jewish Telegraphic Agency. The mandate of the intervention force expires July 24.

According to the sources, the Soviets made it clear to the Americans and other members of the Security Council that they will oppose the new deployment of UNEF troops in called for by the peace treaty signed between Egypt and Israel with the aid of the United States. According to the agreement, the U.N. peace force would continue to serve as a buffer but cover a much larger area at Israel withdrew its troops from the Sinai and the next two years.

"If the UNEF mandate comes up for renewal by the Security Council, the Soviets are certain to say that, under present circumstances, two alternatives to replace UNEF are presently being discussed.

U.S., Israel exchanging notes over Syria/Lebanon air battle

JERUSALEM, (ITA) — Premier Golda Meir and his aides were reportedly studying a formal written reply to an American note on the air battle between Israel and Syrian forces which erupted July 22. The note was delivered to Meir personally by U.S. Ambassador Samuel Lewis. The contents were not disclosed but the communication in political circles here is that it expressed the U.S. Administration's disapproval over the aerial slaughter in which Israel employed, among other aircraft, highly sophisticated F-4s imported from the U.S.

Israeli officials are believed to be especially concerned by the State Department's comment that Israel's use of American-made aircraft "has been of serious concern to us and to members of Congress." Observers here believe Israel will seek to persuade the U.S. that the air battle was part of a defensive operation launched in response to Syrian jets which attempted to intervene against Israeli air strikes at terrorist headquarters in south Lebanon. Israeli officials also claim that the Syrian targets in Lebanon are an act of "self-defense" against terrorist activities from Lebanon on Israeli civilians.

The Prime Minister's Office issued a statement saying that the Prime Minister told the U.S. Ambassador that "Israel's actions had been accounted for an act of legitimate self-defense." The statement also said it was to be that the Syrian Air Force, that in the Syrian press said on television, they had received orders to shoot down Israeli aircraft. The statement also said that "Israel's actions were a decision like that." According to other sources, Meir

... to begin earlier, reach every aspect of the community Sandra Weiner appointed chairman of the 1980 United Jewish Campaign

Sandra Weiner has been appointed chair of the 1980 United Jewish Campaign, by Joel Spira, president of the Jewish Federation of Greater Houston. Mrs. Weiner will launch a campaign which will begin earlier in the year than ever before and will reach every aspect of the community.

A veteran leader of the Houston Jewish Community, who has held leadership positions which have spread the spectrum of Jewish communal life, Mrs. Weiner has already begun to conduct a campaign cabinet combining experienced Federation leadership with younger leadership. "The combining old and new leadership, we hope to reach every aspect of the community," said Mrs. Weiner. "We want to be sure that every aspect of Jewish life is represented in being involved in who has any suggestions regarding the Campaign would give us a call." According to Mrs. Weiner, we are living in historic times. Since Egypt is now establishing peace with Israel, "Hopefully we can begin to shift about to an area which will allow us to meet the social needs in Israel; needs which we've neglected over the years as we've struggled to play our part to help maintain the existence of Israel."

But she also warned against complacency. "Considering Israel's high inflation rate and the fact that Israel will be forced to spend billions of additional dollars to replace its reserves from the Sinai to the Pagan, Israel will pay $200 million this year just to cover her foreign debt. Such a figure is really astronomical for a country with a national budget of only $12 billion."

Mrs. Weiner also pointed to the other side in the need for this year's campaign. "As more Jewish Jews are allowed to emigrate, we will continue to receive them in Houston in greater numbers and to do our share to provide them with the necessary services to begin their new life as part of our community." She also pointed to increased efforts for Jewish education which the campaign funds and to the necessity of handling these Jewish and national agencies, including the Federation's Community Relations Committee which coordinates the public policy problems of the Houston community.

Sandra Weiner has recently served as president of Congregation Beth Shalom. She was recently honored at the Annual Meeting of the Jewish Community Center where she received the David B. Weiss Award. Award presented annually to a man or woman whose "service to the community reflects the highest in integrity, love for one's fellowman and commitment to the ideals of Jewish life."

Third round of autonomy talks end on upbeat, no progress

HEBRON, (ITA) — The third round of the Israel-Egypt autonomy talks ended here with the delegates reporting "good progress" and "positive" but unable as yet to show much by way of concrete progress.

The two sides will discuss in the next session to adopt in the talks. Egypt wants a declaration of "peace and objectives" which would be a framework for the talks. Israel, on the other hand, is pressing for detailed negotiations on the practical matters of establishing Palestinian autonomy. The delegates agreed to meet again in Alexandria, Egypt on July 14, by which time they will have "reached a preliminary agreement." A third round was scheduled for Aug. 2 in Hebrona.

An Israeli participant told the Jewish Telegraphic Agency after the meetings here that the Israeli delegation believed it would be possible to reach a preliminary agreement that would comprise broad statements of objectives, as Egypt
