Claire Shulman Named Deputy Boro President

Queens Borough President Donald H. Mason has appointed Claire Shulman as Deputy Queens Borough President. Mrs. Shulman has served as Queens' Director of Community Boards since 1973. She succeeded Lawrence T. Grosser Jr., who resigned in April to return to the private sector.

In making the announcement, Mason said, "Claire is thoroughly knowledgeable about and deeply involved in all of the issues, problems and programs in the Borough of Queens, and in all aspects of City Government."

She has worked extensively on neighborhood, Community Board, Borough-wide and Board of Estimate matters and is well-versed in all aspects of City Government.

Her comprehensive and wide background, including her work on the City Board, and her exceptional experience in her new position.

As Director of Community Boards, Mrs. Shulman is directly involved in all aspects of the work of the Borough's 14 Boards and was instrumental in helping set up the newly elected Commissioners, advancing decentralization and the greater role of Community Boards in administering other affairs represented by the Borough President at various meetings, including sessions of the Board of Estimate.

Mrs. Shulman is a member of the Mayor's Commission on the Status of Women by appointment of Mayor Koch and was a delegate to the International Women's Year Conference in Houston, Texas, in 1977, as a representative of New York State.

Mrs. Shulman was born Claire Kantor in Brooklyn, attended Brooklyn College and received a B.S. degree from Adelphi University in Garden City, L.I., in 1961. The same year she worked as a Registered Nurse.

After one year at Queens General Hospital in Jamaica, she became Head Nurse in the Hospital. Later, she worked at the hospital while at Queens General, and then for two years at the Mt. Sinai Hospital, where she was using her knowledge of the hospital. They were married in 1960.

After working in public, while she was raising her family, Mrs. Shulman became active in many community organizations and programs. She was appointed a charter member of Community Board 11 in Bayside in 1960 and served as Board Chairman from 1963 to 1972, when she was named to her Borough Board post by Mason.

Active in numerous Borough-wide and community organizations, she is a charter member of the Board of Directors of the Queens Music Festival and Television. She is a member of the Advisory Council of the Housing Part of the City Civil Court.

Carmine and Laird were on their way home from work along Woodhaven Blvd. when they noticed a woman hanging on the hood of a car moving along the grass of the exit from the Long Island Expressway. They stopped and tried to get the car to stop, but the woman was driving the car by reacting to the police. When Police arrived on the scene, they were assisted by the 12-year-old child and driver and his 13-year-old companion, Carmine and Laird ran to the rescue of the police, and assisted the police in subduing both young men.
