Gottwald, 2008-10-28 A landmark textbook made accessible for the beginning college student Thoroughly updated charts and graphs reflection guides and study questions Richly illustrated with maps and photographs Companion Web site features professor and student friendly resources The Man who Knew God Mordecai Schreiber, 2010-01-01 The Man Who Knew God decodes the complexities of the book of Jeremiah and argues that this prophet is the key figure in shaping Western civilization and Judaism Among many other fascinating assertions Mordecai Schreiber posits that Jeremiah is not only the one who eradicated paganism amongst the Hebrew people he can also be considered the founder of the post biblical Jewish faith Social Justice and the Hebrew Bible, Volume Three Norman K. Rubenstein, 2010-10-04 From the American Revolution to the end of World War II the United States spent nineteen years at war against other nations But since 1950 the total is twenty two years and counting On four occasions U S presidents elected as peace candidates have gone on to lead the nation into ferocious armed conflicts Repeatedly wars deemed necessary when they began have been seen in retrospect as avoidable and ill advised Americans profess to be a peace loving people and one wary of foreign entanglements Yet we have been drawn into wars in distant lands from Vietnam to Afghanistan We cherish our middle class comforts and our children Yet we send our troops to Fallujah and Mogadishu How is it that ordinary Americans with the most to lose are so easily convinced to follow hawkish leaders of both parties into war In Reasons to Kill noted scholar Richard E. Rubenstein explores both the rhetoric that sells war to the public and the underlying cultural and social factors that make it so effective With unmatched historical perspective and insightful commentary Rubenstein offers citizens new ways to think for themselves about crucial issues of war and peace To Make the Earth Whole Marc Gopin, 2009-06-15 To Make the

Earth Whole studies the art of citizen diplomacy a process that can address clashes of religion and culture across regional lines even when traditional negotiations between governments can fail While faith and regional differences have been sources of division around the world in recent decades millions of citizens are also creating bonds of friendship and collaboration that are forming the basis of a global community Drawing on the experiences gleaned from years practicing citizen diplomacy in some of the world s most politically charged climates scholar practitioner of conflict resolution and rabbi Marc Gopin describes his work in Syria as a central case study of the book The author outlines the strategic basis for creating community across lines of enmity the social network theory to explain how this happens and the long term vision required for a progressive but inclusive global community that respects religious communities even as it limits their coercive power over others This powerful and practical book outlines an incremental and evolutionary strategy of positive change that stands a strong chance of success even in today s most conservative and repressive religious and political contexts To Make the Earth Whole also examines the ethical challenges of citizen diplomacy from the perspectives of both Western and Eastern philosophies and religions The world s wisdom traditions are essential in devising a way for citizens to develop the foundations for global community

Re-Imagining the Other M. Eid,K. Karim,2014-07-24 The twenty first century exploded into the global imagination with unforgettable scenes of death and destruction An apocalyptic clash of civilizations seemed to be waged between two old foes the West and Islam However the decade long and ruinous war on terror has prompted re assessments of the militaristic approach to Western Muslim relations A growing number of academics policymakers religious leaders journalists and activists view the struggles as resulting from a clash of ignorance Re imagining the Other examines the ways in which knowledge is manipulated by dominant Western and Muslim discourses Authors from several disciplines study how the two societies have constructed images of each other in historical and contemporary times The complexities and subtleties of their mutually productive relationship are overshadowed by portrayals of unrelenting clash thus serving as encouragement for the promotion of war and terrorism The book proposes specific approaches to re imagine the Other in order to mitigate Western Muslim conflict
