Time Space And The Market Retrosapes Rising:

Time, Space, and the Market Stephen Brown, John F. Sherry Jr, 2014-12-18 A study of retrosapes commercial environments that evoke past times and places a ubiquitous manifestation of modern marketing It covers an array of retailing milieus in a number of different countries at a variety of spatial scales and from various evaluative perspectives both pro and con

Consumption and Spirituality Diego Rinallo, Linda M. Scott, Pauline Maclaran, 2013 This book sheds light on the consumption of spiritual products services experiences and places through state of the art studies by leading and emerging scholars in interpretive consumer research marketing sociology anthropology cultural and religious studies The collection brings together fresh views and scholarship on a cultural tension that is at the centre of the lives of countless individuals living in postmodern societies the relationship between the material and the spiritual the sacred and the profane The book examines how a variety of agents religious institutions spiritual leaders marketers and consumers interact and co create spiritual meanings in a post disenchanted society that has been defined as a supermarket of the soul Consumption and Spirituality examines not only religious organizations but also brands and marketers and the way they infuse their products services and experiences with spiritual meanings that flow freely in the circuit of culture and can be appropriated by consumers even without purchase acts From a consumer perspective the book investigates how spiritual beliefs practices and experiences are now embedded into a global consumer culture Rather than condemning consumption the chapters in this book highlight consumers agency and the creative processes through which authentic spiritual meanings are co created from a variety of sources local and global and sacred and profane alike

Explorations in Consumer Culture Theory ,

The Retailing Reader John Dawson, Anne Findlay, Leigh Sparks, 2020-07-24 Most of us think we know something about retailing we shop we buy we consume But retailing perhaps more than any other economic sector has been transformed fundamentally over the last thirty years both economically and culturally Featuring work from seminal theorists in the area and charting the development of retailing as an important discipline in its own right this superb volume examines the key themes in contemporary retailing Organized into five sections each of which includes an illuminating editorial overview The Retailing Reader examines consumers and shoppers retail branding and marketing merchandising and buying strategy power and policy international retailing Extensive case studies include an analysis of the British grocery market the strategies embodied by Nike Town stores and the development of retail economies in China and Latin America The Retailing Reader presents a comprehensive overview of this important area of study and is an ideal companion for any student of retailing marketing or business and management

Writing Marketing Stephen Brown, 2005-09-15 Marketing is a very diverse discipline dealing with everything from the costs of globalization to the benefits of money back guarantees However there is one thing that all marketing academics share They are writers They publish or perish Their careers are advanced and their reputations are enhanced by the written word Despite its importance writing is rarely discussed much less written about by marketing scholars It is one of the least understood yet most significant academic competencies It is a competency in need of careful study Writing Marketing is the first such study It offers a detailed reading of five renowned marketing writers ranging from Ted Levitt to Morris Holbrook and draws lessons that can be adopted with profit by everyone else Although it is not a how to book there are no lengthy lists of dos and don'ts Writing Marketing reveals that the rules of good writing are good for nothing Written by Stephen Brown whose own writing skills are much commented upon Writing Marketing is insightful illuminating and iconoclastic It is a must read for every marketing academic irrespective of their methodological inclinations or philosophical preferences

Simming Scott Magelssen, 2014-05-12 At an ecopark in Mexico tourists pretend to be illegal migrants braving inhospitable terrain and the U S Border Patrol as they attempt to cross the border At a living history museum in Indiana daytime visitors return after dark to play fugitive slaves on the Underground Railroad In the Mojave Desert the U S Army simulates entire provinces of Iraq and Afghanistan complete with bustling villages insurgents and Arabic speaking townspeople to train soldiers for deployment to the Middle East At a nursing home trainees put on fogged glasses and earplugs thick bands around their finger joints and sandbag harnesses to simulate the effects of aging and to gain empathy for their patients These immersive environments in which spectator participants engage in simulations of various kinds or simming are the subject of Scott Magelssen's book His book lays out the ways in which simming can provide efficacy and promote social change through affective embodied testimony Using methodology from theater history and performance studies particularly as these fields intersect with cultural studies communication history popular culture and American studies Magelssen explores the ways these representational practices produce reify or contest cultural and societal perceptions of identity

Telling Stories / Geschichten erzählen Carsten Gansel, Dirk Vanderbeke, 2012-02-22 The essays collected in this volume highlight the narrative as a phenomenon inherent in human nature They examine the likely purpose of artistic and literary expression and its contribution to survival in an early human environment They also consider the developing interest in shaping experience through the narrative and investigate the consequent significance of traits acquired throughout the ages for the production and reception of texts In doing so the book provides a highly diverse overview of the latest research and debates in this innovative field of research AfterBurn Lee Gilmore, Mark Van Proyen, 2005 Stories of the counterculture event that brings together thousands each year for a weeklong spasm of self expression in the Nevada desert The Power of Consumer Creativity Marie Taillard, Chloe Preece, 2025-09-22 This edited book explores the many dimensions of consumption as a creative act using the seven C s of creativity framework Leading scholars from marketing and consumer research illustrate how acts of consumption are infused with novel thinking cultural expression and personal meaning across cutting edge topics including vintage retail gaming biohacking parenting and degrowth By highlighting the generative potential of consumer creativity this collection offers a compelling argument for recognising creativity as a fundamental and pervasive human capability rather than a rare talent It is essential reading for researchers students and practitioners seeking to understand the evolving intersections of creativity consumption and market transformation
