

September's Bingo Card – Writer's Notebook Challenges

Instructions: After responding to any of the ideas on this page with a decorated 1/4-page or full-page addition to your writer's notebook, color in the completed box with a yellow highlighter. When you create any "five-in-a-row" Bingos, a "Four Corners," or a complete "Blackout" of the whole card, come and show your teacher to receive a special sticker for your work!

Create a half- or full-page tribute to your favorite food. Use words and pictures!	"Convince Me!" Prompt Think of a school rule you don't like. Write a persuasive argument.	Unusual Nightmares Prompt! Describe and illustrate a bad dream that any invertebrate may have.	Attach a new image (photo, magazine, etc.) to a notebook page. Write about it!	What two numbers feud the most? Answer this question creatively in your notebook.
Create a three-panel comic strip that shows a student who doesn't know how to study.	What does a cloud think about? Answer this question creatively in your notebook.	Make a list of good advice for a (real or imaginary) younger brother or sister.	Launch a list or a creative description that captures your idea of a "perfect day."	You're on a deserted island. You're allowed three books and three songs. Which ones?
Personify an Abstract Noun! Choose a day of the week and turn it into a "person."	Celebrate one of your favorite words by turning it into an acrostic poem.	September's Teacher-Guided Lesson ABC's of Things You Might Write This Year	Describe a room in your home from a unique point of view—like an insect's.	Look at your ABC's of Things You Might Write This Year list. Begin one in your notebook!
Create a three-column (nouns, adjs., verbs) word bank on this topic: School Words	Turn a current event into a "recipe" by listing "ingredients" and explaining how to "mix" those ingredients.	Create an advertisement to sell one of your favorite articles of clothing.	"I was totally tempted!" Write a short narrative where this is your first sentence. Illustrate it!	Think of a family expression or inside joke and explain it using details and illustrations.
Make a list of six writing topics you think your fellow classmates would like to write to.	Write about a true or fictional embarrassing moment. Provide an illustration!	Start a page where you can record your favorite clean jokes. Write 2 or 3 down. Record more on this page as the year progresses.	Write e-mail correspondence if a pet could e-mail its owner, what would the e-mail say? Write it!	Worst or best? Put one of these two adjectives in front of the word friend and write about what comes to mind.

Remember, you don't have to use the ideas on this Bingo card; these are simply suggestions if you find yourself needing an idea on a writer's notebook day in class. By the end of the year, I actually expect you to be discovering your own writing ideas for your notebook most of the time!

Approaches to Literature Through Authors Mary E. Wildberger,1993-04-14 After fourteen years of success in a K 6 school and a K 8 magnet school the author shares the methods and techniques for using the works of popular or important authors and award winning illustrators to teach students reading skills for recognizing styles themes and subjects In addition using this approach affords educators the unique opportunity of sharing the enjoyment of literature and appreciation for stylistic technique To Catch a Ghost Ann Brophy,2005-08-22 A weekend retreat on an isolated island a strange old man Wilson who lives there a haunted lighthouse and an accident that happened sixty years before blend together in To Catch A Ghost This is a story of possession not evil but good and the eleven year old girl who solves the mystery with the help of her seven year old twin brothers and her self absorbed older sister Lucy the protagonist is obsessed with writing and she enters colorful remarks and nagging questions into her ever present pocket notebook She also volunteers to take care of her lively brothers for the weekend so her mother and father can have a vacation George is obsessed with ghosts and vampires and Adam becomes possessed by an island ghost who is held hostage in the lighthouse Both Lucys family and Wilsons past family become entwined as a result of that long ago accident The setting is vivid and eerie and the characters are real and amusing

The story is upbeat as the mystery unravels in a logical and positive way There is a hint of young romance along with compassion and a developed respect for old age All in all this book is a good read for the middle graders both boys and girls with a strong chilling and satisfying climax

Instructional scaffolding is an essential part of teaching literacy But what is scaffolding exactly What does it look like in a classroom and how can we improve the ways we use it Despite its prominence in the repertoire of teaching strategies scaffolding remains a vague concept for many teachers In essence scaffolding is the idea of supporting students as they build independence In The Construction Zone Terry Thompson identifies four critical processes to deepen your understanding and improve your practice of instructional scaffolding Finding and maintaining a specific focus Practicing flexibility in planning and delivering instruction Giving constructive feedback in response to student efforts Monitoring to ensure that in every moment students are working at optimal levels of responsibility Thompson encourages teachers to enhance their use of the traditional gradual release process through five actionable steps show share support sustain and survey and in doing so provides procedures and techniques to help them establish and maintain strong scaffolds throughout the instructional day The Construction Zone is written from the teacher s perspective and urges educators to fully embrace their role in the scaffolding process while staying mindful of the effect it has on students Taking a student from dependence upon the teacher to independent learning is what teaching is all about and instructional scaffolding is key to accomplishing this goal

Regardless of where you are in your understanding of instructional scaffolding The Construction Zone will raise your level of awareness around your instructional practices and the ways you scaffold students to independence Billboard ,1949-11-19

Association First Book Award Should a writer work in a former colonial language or in a vernacular The language question was one of the great intractable problems that haunted postcolonial literatures in the twentieth century but it has since acquired a reputation as a dead end for narrow nationalism This book returns to the language question from a fresh perspective Instead of asking whether language matters The Tongue Tied Imagination explores how the language question itself came to matter Focusing on the case of Senegal Warner investigates the intersection of French and Wolof Drawing on extensive archival research and an under studied corpus of novels poetry and films in both languages as well as educational projects and popular periodicals the book traces the emergence of a politics of language from colonization through independence to the era of neoliberal development Warner reads the francophone works of well known authors such as L

opold Senghor Ousmane Semb ne Mariama B and Boubacar Boris Diop alongside the more overlooked Wolof language works with which they are in dialogue Refusing to see the turn to vernacular languages only as a form of nativism The Tongue Tied Imagination argues that the language question opens up a fundamental struggle over the nature and limits of literature itself Warner reveals how language debates tend to pull in two directions first they weave vernacular traditions into the normative patterns of world literature but second they create space to imagine how literary culture might be configured otherwise Drawing on these insights Warner brilliantly rethinks the terms of world literature and charts a renewed practice of literary comparison
