Writing Fiction Janet Burroway, 1982 Narrative Form S. Keen, 2003-11-13 This handbook concisely introduces narrative form to advanced students of fiction Beginning with a survey of major theorists and approaches and using clearly defined terms Narrative Form explains critical vocabulary and offers a variety of strategies for analyzing the formal qualities of fiction Keen suggests that interpretations of form can be effectively integrated with contemporary approaches to literature including feminist postcolonial and cultural studies methodologies Narrative Form shows how to use the language of formal analysis accurately and innovatively The Lab Matthew Clark Davison, Alice LaPlante, 2025-07-22 Great writing doesn't begin with form it begins with obsession Two novelists offer an inspiring guide to transforming that obsession using whatever genre fits best Writers don't need formulas they need encouragement to take risks The Lab offers a bold hands on approach urging writers to embrace uncertainty experiment with form and investigate what haunts them The Lab features ten chapters and ninety exercises challenging writers to play with fiction memoir and poetry or push toward hybrid or entirely new forms This is a book for those ready to dig deep and write fearlessly Experiments in Life-Writing Lucia Boldrini, Julia Novak, 2017-10-24 This volume examines innovative intersections of life writing and experimental fiction in the 20th and 21st centuries bringing together scholars and practicing biographers from several disciplines Modern Languages English and Comparative Literature Creative Writing It covers a broad range of biographical autobiographical and hybrid practices in a variety of national literatures among them many recent works texts that test the ground between fact and fiction that are marked by impressionist self reflexive and intermedial methods by their recourse to myth folklore poetry or drama as they tell a historical character's story Between them the essays shed light on the broad range of auto biographical experimentation in modern Europe and will appeal to readers with an interest in the history and politics of form in life writing in the ways in which departures from traditional generic paradigms are intricately linked with specific views of subjectivity with questions of personal communal and national identity The Introduction of this book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license via link springer.com Garner on Language and Writing Bryan A. Garner, 2009 The essays in this volume represent the author's views not those of the American Bar Association Title page verso Dispatches from the Classroom Chris Drew, Joseph Rein, David Yost, 2011-12-08 With emphasis on practical classroom application this up to date and refreshingly honest collection of essays is a wonderful resource for teaching creative writing The original and utterly contemporary essays that accurately portray the reality of the teaching experience Experiencing Epiphanies in Literature and Cinema Bradley Lewis, 2024-07-09 Experiencing Epiphanies in Literature and Cinema uses health humanities and psychological humanities to explore literary and cinematic epiphanies James Joyce first adopted the term epiphany from its religious use to articulate moments of luminous intensity or sudden spiritual manifestation This study develops and extends Joyce's use of epiphany through a range of literary and cinematic examples from William Shakespeare to Ruth Ozeki and from Yasujiro Ozu to Jim Jarmusch This wealth of epiphanies in the arts is important from a health humanities perspective in that they provide access to aesthetic and sustainable experiences of well being joy and human flowering They also provide antidotes to aesthetics of anti epiphany a showing forth of terror horror and panic Experiencing Epiphanies is accordingly both critical and affirmative diagnostic and therapeutic It uses critique to understand the increasing need for well being in contemporary times and it uses affirmation to develop underutilized resources in the arts for transforming configuring and refiguring our everyday lives Story Logic and the Craft of Fiction Catherine Brady, 2010-09-15 This book illuminates how technique serves story logic the particular way fiction makes meaning Writers raid the cupboard of theory looking for what works and generic rules don't account for the rich variety of strategies they employ For writers who are past the beginner stage Brady offers a closer look at craft fundamentals including plot characterization patterns of imagery and style The lively lucid discussion draws on vivid examples from classic and contemporary fiction ranging from George Eliot and William Faulkner to Haruki Murakami and Toni Morrison Because it supplies the analytical tools needed to read as a writer this text will enrich the reader's approach to any work of fiction energizing discussion in a workshop or craft course How to Be an Author Georgia Richter, Deborah Hunn, 2021-02-02 If you dream of being published this book will teach you the nuts and bolts of what it means to be an author In a friendly informative and practical way Georgia Richter and Deborah Hunn share all you need to know about inspiration and research preparing to submit to a publisher creating an author brand legal ethical and moral considerations pitching effective social media and much more Practical advice and top tips from Liz Byrski Alan Carter Nandi Chinna Tim Coronel Amanda Curtin Daniel de Lorne Deb Fitzpatrick James Foley Alecia Hancock Stephen Kinnane Ambelin Kwaymullina Natasha Lester Brigid Lowry Caitlin Maling Meg McKinlay Claire Miller Brendan Ritchie Rachel Robertson Holden Sheppard Sasha Wasley David Whish Wilson and Anne Louise Willoughby Teaching Creative Writing in Asia Darryl Whetter, 2021-08-26 This book examines the dynamic landscape of creative educations in Asia exploring the intersection of post coloniality translation and creative educations in one of the world s most relevant testing grounds for STEM versus STEAM educational debates Several essays attend to one of today s most pressing issues in Creative Writing education and education generally the convergence of the former educational revolution of Creative Writing in the anglophone world with a defining aspect of the 21st century the shift from monolingual to multilingual writers and learners The essays look at examples from across Asia with specific experience from India Singapore China Hong Kong the Philippines and Taiwan Each of the 14 writer professor contributors has taught Creative Writing substantially in Asia often creating and directing the first university Creative Writing programs there This book will be of interest to anyone following global trends within creative writing and those with an interest in education and multilingualism in Asia Political Tone

Roderick P. Hart, Jay P. Childers, Colene J. Lind, 2013-04-25 It s not what you say but how you say it Solving problems with words is the essence of politics and finding the right words for the moment can make or break a politician s career Yet very little has been said in political science about the elusive element of tone In Political Tone Roderick P Hart Jay P Childers and Colene J Lind analyze a range of texts from speeches and debates to advertising and print and broadcast campaign coverage using a sophisticated computer program DICTION that parses their content for semantic features like realism commonality and certainty as well as references to religion party or patriotic terms Beginning with a look at how societal forces like diversity and modernity manifest themselves as political tones in the contexts of particular leaders and events the authors proceed to consider how individual leaders have used tone to convey their messages How did Bill Clinton s clever dexterity help him recover from the Monica Lewinsky scandal How did Barack Obama draw on his experience as a talented community activist to overcome his inexperience as a national leader And how does Sarah Palin s wandering tone indicate that she trusts her listeners and is open to their ideas By focusing not on the substance of political arguments but on how they were phrased Political Tone provides powerful and unexpected insights into American politics Kintsugi Marie O'Rourke, 2024-01-30 A collection of essays that explores the complexities of family relationships and the lasting impact of a difficult childhood This is a poignant reminder that some things cannot be fixed but can still hold immense beauty and meaning The

Teen-Centered Writing Club Constance Hardesty, 2008-08-30 Provides an overview of teen writing clubs and discusses the steps necessary for creating promoting and evaluating one The Geographies of African American Short Fiction

Kenton Rambsy, 2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations small towns a famous metropolis city sidewalks a rural wooded area apartment buildings a pond a general store a prison and more In the process these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers author Kenton Rambsy documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin Toni Cade Bambara Charles Chesnutt Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction

Writing Fiction Janet Burroway, 2002-10 A bestseller through six editions Writing Fiction by novelists Janet Burroway and Elizabeth Stuckey French explores the elements of fiction providing practical writing techniques and concrete examples Written in a tone that is personal and non prescriptive the text encourages writers to develop proficiency through each step of the writing process offering an abundance of exercises designed to spur writing and creativity The text also integrates diverse contemporary short stories in every chapter in the belief that the reading of inspiring fiction goes hand in hand with the writing of fresh and exciting stories Thorough and practical discussions of all the major fictional elements offer students a comprehensive guide to the craft of writing stories Topics include freewriting plot style characterization dialogue time place imagery and point of view For novice writers looking to develop proficiency
