A. Pierce,Gretchen Busl,2020-12-02 This volume of essays provides a critical foray into the methods used to construct narratives which foreground antiheroines a trope which has become increasingly popular within literary media film and television Antiheroine characters engage constructions of motherhood womanhood femininity and selfhood as mediated by the structures that socially prescribe boundaries of gender sex and sexuality Within this collection scholars of literary cultural media and gender studies address the complications of representing agency autonomy and self determination within narrative texts complicated by age class race sexuality and a spectrum of privilege that reflects the complexities of scripting women on and off screen within and beyond the page This collection offers perspectives on the alternate narratives engendered through the motivations actions and agendas of the antiheroine while engaging with the discourses of how such narratives are employed both as potentially feminist interventions and critiques of access hierarchy and power
