Transforming Practices Mark W. Flory, 2005 Negation and Knowledge of God: Neoplatonism and Christianity

Daniel Jugrin, 2017-10-06 It is not soul not intellect not imagination opinion reason and not understanding not logos not intellection not spoken not thought not number not order not greatness not smallness not equality not inequality not likeness not unlikeness not having stood not moved not at rest not powerful not intepowerful not light not living not life not eternity not time not intellectual contact with it not knowledge not truth not kingship not wisdom not one not unity not divinity not goodness not spirit not sonhood not fatherhood not something among what is not not something among what is not known as it is by beings not a knower of beings as they are There is neither logos name or knowledge of it It is neither dark nor light not error and not truth There is universally neither postulation nor abstraction of it While there are produced postulations and abstractions of those after it we neither postulate nor abstract it Since beyond all postulation is the all complete and single Cause of all beyond all abstraction the preeminence of that absolutely free of all and beyond the whole Dionysius the Areopagite De mystica theologia V Transforming Practices Mark W. Flory, 2015-12-19 The postmodern revival of interest in apophatic negative theology neglects the integrated system of spiritual praxis that undergirds traditional negative theology and therefore has failed to realize its potential to address the postmodern themes of alterity subjectivity and ontotheology Traditional apophatic theology forms one aspect of the Eastern Orthodox system of spiritual practices known as hesychasm from hesycheia inner stillness This system comprises several elements an emphasis on systematic spiritual progress via the Ladder of spiritual ascent an understanding of the self in its relation to God and the assertion of the radical otherness of God This dissertation brings these elements of apophatic theology into the ongoing dialogue concerning apophatic theology to address the themes of subjectivity alterity and ontotheology Hesychastic practices produce a transformation of human nature that first eliminates the delusory attachments of natural being and then reconstitutes the person on the basis of openness selflessness and relationality The dissertation argues that the practices of cataphasis positive predication apophasis negative predication and the hyper a prefix that connotes the otherness of God must be located within this transformative system This relocation of negative theology makes possible the thinking of a self that is at once substantive and interrelational and of God as at once transcendent Unity and immanent and dynamic thus evading the charge of reinscribing ontotheology As a preliminary to this system the dissertation presents the hermeneutic anthropological and providential context of the Ladder of spiritual practices Hesychasm integrates these contextual elements in a system that provides a total environment for the formation of subjectivity The dissertation presents and then critiques the contrasting postmodern apophaticisms of Jacques Derrida and Jean Luc Marion Derrida s analysis of the impossible his rejection of the identification of deconstruction with negative theology and his charge that negative theology remains ontotheological pose serious challenges to negative theology Jean Luc Marion attempts to defend negative theology against Derrida s charges by means of his concept of the saturated phenomenon and his phenomenology of excess In both cases however the lack of a system of spiritual transformation limits the effectiveness of their insights Neoplatonism și creștinism: negație și transcendență Daniel Jugrin,2023-05-11 Nu este nici cuvânt al ei nici nume nici cunoștință Nu este nici ntuneric nici lumin nici eroare nici adevăr Nu este defel nici postulare thesis a ei nici ndepărtare aphairesis Cifcnd postulările ndepărtările a celor dedup ea nici nu o postulăm nici nu o ndepărtăm de vreme ce cauza deplină a tuturor este hyper toată postularea i hyper toată ndepărtarea ca cea care este preeminența a hyperochei liber de toate i dincolo de epekeina toate Dionisie Areopagitul Despre teologia mistică V The Oxford Handbook of Meditation Miguel Farias,David Brazier,Mansur Lalljee,2021-10-21 Meditation techniques including mindfulness have become popular wellbeing practices and the scientific study of their effects has recently turned 50 years old But how much do we know about them what were they developed for and by whom How similar or different are they how effective can they be in changing our minds and biology what are their social and ethical implications The Oxford Handbook of Meditation is the most comprehensive volume published on meditation written in accessible language by world leading experts on the science and history of these techniques It covers the development of meditation across the world and the varieties of its practices and experiences It includes approaches from various disciplines including psychology neuroscience history anthropology and sociology and it explores its potential for therapeutic and social change as well as unusual or negative effects Edited by practitioner researchers this book is the ultimate guide for all interested in meditation including teachers clinicians therapists researchers or anyone who would like to learn more about this topic French XX Bibliography William J.
