Translation Rewriting And The Manipulation Of Literary Fame Translation Studies:

Translation, Rewriting, and the Manipulation of Literary Fame Andre Lefevere, 2016-10-26 Lefevere explores how the process of rewriting works of literature manipulates them to ideological and artistic ends so that the rewritten text can be given a new sometimes subversive historical or literary status Translation, Rewriting, and the Manipulation of Literary Fame André Lefevere, 2017 One of the first books to shine a light on the broad scope of translation studies this Routledge Translation Classic is widely regarded as a pillar of the discipline Authored by one of the most influential translation theorists of the twentieth century Translation Rewriting and the Manipulation of Literary Fame shows how rewriting translation anthologization historiography criticism editing influences the reception and canonization of works of literature Firmly placing the production and reception of literature within the wider framework of a culture and its history André Lefevere explores how rewriting manipulates works of literature to ideological and artistic ends and demonstrates how rewriting a text can give it a new sometimes subversive historical or literary status Ranging across various literatures including Classical Latin French and German and here reissued with a new foreword by Scott G Williams this is a seminal text for all students and specialists in translation studies literary theory and comparative and world literature Rewriting, Manipulation and Translator Subjectivity Hu Liu, 2024-03-12 This book presents an in depth analysis of Howard Goldblatt's translation of Mo Yan's Life and Death Are Wearing Me Out L D It explores how Goldblatt translates the original novel under the influence of three major manipulative powers poetics ideology and patronage as well as his own subjectivity translator subjectivity to achieve his objectives as a literary translator The author analyses both the translation and its paratext to gain a more complete understanding of Goldblatt's accomplishments and examines how Goldblatt rewrites the original text under the influence of various patronage factors such as the original author publisher editor market expectancy literary collaborator and the target reader This book provides a comprehensive picture of the production reception and dissemination of Goldblatt's translation exposing the motivations behind his translation in full measure and it will be of interest to students and scholars of Translation Studies Comparative Literature and Literary Studies and Chinese Culture and Literature The Routledge Handbook of Corpus Translation Studies Defeng Li, John Corbett, 2024-10-28 This Handbook offers a comprehensive grounding in key issues of corpus informed translation studies while showcasing the diverse range of topics applications and developments of corpus linguistics In recent decades there has been a proliferation of scholarly activity that applies corpus linguistics in diverse ways to translation studies TS The relative ease of availability of corpora and text analysis programs has made corpora an increasingly accessible and useful tool for practising translators and for scholars and students of translation studies This Handbook first provides an overview of the discipline and presents detailed chapters on specific areas such as the design and analysis of multilingual corpora corpus analysis of the language of translated texts the use of corpora to analyse literary translation corpora and critical translation studies and the application of corpora in specific fields such as bilingual lexicography machine translation and cognitive translation studies Addressing a range of core thematic areas in translation studies the volume also covers the role corpora play in translator education and in aspects of the study of minority and endangered languages The authors set the stage for the exploration of the intersection between corpus linguistics and translation studies anticipating continued growth and refinement in the field This volume provides an essential orientation for translators and TS scholars teachers and students who are interested in learning the applications of corpus linguistics to the practice and study of translation

Translating Travel Loredana Polezzi, 2017-03-02 Translating Travel examines the relationship between travel writing and translation asking what happens when books travel beyond the narrow confines of one genre one literary system and one culture The volume takes as its starting point the marginal position of contemporary Italian travel writing in the Italian literary system and proposes a comparative reading of originals and translations designed to highlight the varying reception of texts in different cultures Two main themes in the book are the affinity between the representations produced by travel and the practices of translation and the complex links between travel writing and genres such as ethnography journalism autobiography and fiction Individual chapters are devoted to Italian travellers accounts of Tibet and their English translations the hybridization of journalism and travel writing in the works of Oriana Fallaci Italo Calvino's sublimation of travel writing in the stylized fiction of Le città invisibili and the complex network of literary references which marked the reception of Claudio Magris's Danubio in different cultures

Translation, Travel, Migration Loredana Polezzi, 2016-04-08 The connection between travel and translation is often evoked in contemporary critical theory both practices seen as metaphors of mobility and flux linked to globalized post modern society Travel is a multiple activity encompassing temporary and voluntary displacement repeated movement exile economic migration diaspora Places of origin are often plural and unstable in spite of the enduring appeal of traditional labels such as mother country or patrie The multiple interfaces between translation travel and migration are the focus of all contributions in this special issue Starting from different points of view and using a variety of methodologies the authors raise fundamental questions about the way in which we perceive the link between language national or ethnic identity and individual voice Topics range from the interaction between travel travel narratives and translation in early English representations of China to the special role played by interpreters in mediating the first contact between a literate and a non literate culture from the multiple functions and audiences addressed by contemporary Romani literature and its translation to the political as well as cultural implications of translating popular music across the Bosphorus A number of the articles focus on detailed textual analysis covering the intersection between exile self translation and translanguaging in the work of Manuel Puig the uses and limitations of translation in the works of migrant authors or the impact on figurations of Europe of experimental work embracing polylingualism Collectively these contributions also underline the importance of a closer examination of our assumptions about who the translators and the interpreters are and what roles they play in our society

The Routledge Handbook of

Translation and Ethics Kaisa Koskinen, Nike K. Pokorn, 2020-12-16 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Ethics offers a comprehensive overview of issues surrounding ethics in translating and interpreting. The chapters chart the philosophical and theoretical underpinnings of ethical thinking in Translation Studies and analyze the ethical dilemmas of various translatorial actors including translation trainers and researchers. Authored by leading scholars and new voices in the field, the 31 chapters present a wide coverage of emerging issues such as increasing technologization of translation, posthumanism, volunteering and activism, accessibility and linguistic human rights. Many chapters provide the first extensive overview of the topic or present new takes on established areas. The book is divided into four parts with the first covering the most influential ethical theories. Part II takes the perspective of agents in different contexts and the ethical dilemmas they face, while Part III takes a critical look at central institutions structuring and controlling ethical behaviour. Finally, Part IV focuses on special issues and new challenges and signals new directions for further study. This handbook is an indispensable resource for all students and researchers of translation and ethics within translation and interpreting studies, multilingualism and comparative literature.

Medio-translatology Feng Cui, Defeng Li, 2022-04-24 This book introduces the theory of Medio translatology. Proposed by Professor Tianzhen Xie, Medio translatology combines comparative literature with translation studies. It has been influential in Chinese Translation Studies since its emergence in the 1990s and has since generated a myriad of heated discussions and productive applications of the theory in the analysis of translation both as an activity and a product. With ten chapters authored by leading scholars in this area, this book explicates the development and the main theoretical tenets of Medio translatology in the first part and demonstrates the application of the theory with a number of case analyses of translations by different translators in the second part. As the first and only edited book on Medio translatology written in English, this volume will also provide a useful window on contemporary translation studies in China.

Processes of Transposition, 2015-06-29 The essays collected in this book focus on the multi-faceted relationship between German/Austrian literature and the cinema screen. Scholars from Ireland, Great Britain, Germany, Switzerland, Luxembourg, Portugal, USA and Canada present critical readings of a wide range of transpositions of German language texts to film, while also considering the impact of cinema on German literature, exploring intertextualities as well as intermedialities. The forum of discussion thus created encompasses cinematic narratives based on Goethe's Faust, Kleist's Marquise of O, Kubrick's film version of Schnitzler's Dream Story and Caroline Link's Oscar-winning adaptation of Stefanie Zweig's novel Nowhere in Africa. The wide-ranging analyses of the complex interaction between literature and film presented here focus on literary works by Anna Seghers, Hans Magnus Enzensberger, Nicola Rhon, Günter Grass, Heinrich Böll, Elfriede Jelinek, Rolf Dieter Brinkmann, Erich Hackl, Thomas Brussig, Sven Regener, Frank Goosen and Robert Schneider, as well as on adaptations by filmmakers such as Friedrich Wilhelm Murnau, Max Mack, Josef von Sternberg, Max W. Kimmich, Fred Zinnemann, Paul Wegener, Alexander Kluge, Volker Schlöndorff, Hans-Jürgen Pohland, Hendrik Handloegten, Michael Haneke, Christoph Stark.

Constructing a Sociology of Translation Michaela Wolf, Alexandra Fukari, 2007-10-25 The view of translation as a socially regulated activity has opened up a broad field of research in the last few years This volume deals with central questions of the new domain and aims to contribute to the conceptualisation of a general sociology of translation Interdisciplinary in approach it discusses the role of major representatives of sociology like Pierre Bourdieu Bruno Latour Bernard Lahire Anthony Giddens or Niklas Luhmann in establishing a theoretical framework for a sociology of translation Drawing on methodologies from sociology and integrating them into translation studies the book questions some of the established categories in this discipline and calls for a redefinition of long assumed principles The contributions show the social involvement of translation in various fields and focus especially on the translator's position in an emerging sociology of translation Bourdieu's influence in conceptualising this new sub discipline methodological questions and a sociologically oriented meta discussion of translation studies

World Literature in Theory David Damrosch, 2014-01-28 World Literature in Theory provides a definitive exploration of the pressing questions facing those studying world literature today Coverage is split into four parts which examine the origins and seminal formulations of world literature world literature in the age of globalization contemporary debates on world literature and localized versions of world literature Contains more than 30 important theoretical essays by the most influential scholars including Johann Wolfgang von Goethe Hugo Meltzl Edward Said Franco Moretti Jorge Luis Borges and Gayatri Spivak Includes substantive introductions to each essay as well as an annotated bibliography for further reading Allows students to understand articulate and debate the most important issues in this rapidly changing field of study

Crosscultural Transgressions Theo Hermans, 2014-07-10 Crosscultural Transgressions offers explorations and critical assessments of research methods and models in translation studies and points up new questions and directions Ranging from epistemological questions of description and historiography to the politics of language including the language of translation research the book tackles issues of research design and methodology and goes on to examine the kind of disciplinary knowledge produced in translation studies who produces it and whose interests the dominant paradigms serve The focus is on historical and ideological problems but the crisis of representation that has affected all the human sciences in recent decades has left its mark As the essays in this collection explore the transgressive nature of crosscultural representation whether in translations or in the study of translation they remain attentive to institutional contexts and develop a self reflexive stance They also chart new territory taking their cue from ethnography semiotics sociology and cultural studies and tackling Meso American iconic scripts Bourdieu's constructivism translation between philosophical paradigms and the complexities of translation concepts in multicultural societies

Literature, Geography, Translation Stefan Helgesson, 2011-05-25 The present volume connects three academic fields that share central concerns but remain surprisingly isolated from each other world literature studies postcolonial studies and translation studies It approaches translation not as a vague metaphor but as a distinct and socially embedded practice that connects literatures In similar vein it interrogates the smoothness of many versions of global theory by insisting on the specificity of place and the resistance to translatability among languages oeuvres and genres The topics covered in the chapters include the formation of world literature as a programme of study the French concept of littérature mondiale the rise of English in nineteenth century Sweden the translation of Arabic literature in Europe and the transnationalism of the avant garde Through such case studies and by drawing on the theoretical frameworks of douard Glissant Pierre Bourdieu and David Damrosch among others the international group of contributors add substantially to the theoretical and methodological consolidation of world literature as a field of research
