Understanding Global Sexualities New Frontiers Sexuality Culture And Health:

Understanding Global Sexualities Peter Aggleton, Paul Boyce, Henrietta L Moore, Richard Parker, 2012-07-26 Over the course of the past thirty years there has been an explosion of work on sexuality both conceptually and methodologically From a relatively limited specialist field the study of sexuality has expanded across a wide range of social sciences Yet as the field has grown it has become apparent that a number of leading edge critical issues remain This theory building book explores some of the areas in which there is major and continuing debate for example about the relationship between sexuality and gender about the nature and status of heterosexuality about hetero and homo normativity about the influence and intersection of class race age and other factors in sexual trajectories identities and lifestyles and about how best to understand the new forms of sexuality that are emerging in both rich world and developing world contexts With contributions from leading and new scholars and activists from across the globe this book highlights tensions or flash points in contemporary debate and offers some innovative ways forward in terms of thinking about sexuality both theoretically and with respect to policy and programme development An extended essay by Henrietta Moore introduces the volume and an afterword by Jeffrey Weeks offers pointers for the future The contributors bring together a range of experiences and a variety of disciplinary perspectives in engaging with three key themes of sexual subjectivity and global transformations sexualities in practice and advancing new thinking on sexuality in policy and programmatic contexts It is of interest to students researchers and activists in sexuality sexual health and gender studies especially those working from public health sociological and anthropological perspectives

Sexual Health Meredith Temple-Smith, 2014-12-01 Sexual health is now seen as multi dimensional a product of complex interplay between biological psychological and socio cultural factors This book brings together 34 expert Australian practitioners and researchers to provide a comprehensive authoritative up to date and stimulating perspective on sexual health In numerous and significant ways the book differs from its predecessor volume published in 2005 Chapters are now grouped in to five parts Sexual health in Australia Foundations for sexual health Sexual health in clinical practice Sexual health in specific populations and Prevention and promotion All original chapters have been thoroughly reviewed and updated Six new chapters are included on Sexual health in society Contraception and options for unintended pregnancy The legal environment of sexual healthcare practice Lesbian gay bisexual and transgender people Health promotion and Prevention strategies Chapters on sexual health in adolescence and in older adults have been expanded A section on refugees is now included with sections on homeless youth sex workers and prisoners in a chapter on the sexual health of other vulnerable populations This book is one third longer than its predecessor volume For tertiary level students of nursing medicine public health health promotion and sexology this new book will continue to be an ideal textbook For healthcare practitioners working in reproductive health sexual health maternal and child health and many other specialist fields it will be an invaluable first reference

Sex and Sexualities in Contemporary Indonesia Linda Rae

Bennett, Sharyn Graham Davies, 2014-12-05 Winner of the 2015 Ruth Benedict Prize for Outstanding Edited Volume Sex sexuality and sexual relationships are hotly debated in Indonesia triggering complex and often passionate responses This innovative volume explores these issues in a variety of ways It highlights historical and newer forms of sexual diversity as well as the social responses they provoke It critiques differing representations of sexuality pointing to the multiplicity of discourses within which sexuality and the sexual are understood in modern day Indonesia Placing sexuality centre stage and locating it within the specific historical context of the Reformasi era this landmark volume explores understandings and practices across a wide variety of sites focusing in on a diverse group of Indonesian actors and the contested meanings that sexuality carries Beginning with a substantive introduction and concluding with a scholarly reflection on key issues the volume is framed around the four themes of sexual politics health diversity and representations It seeks both to present new empirical findings as well as to add to existing theoretical analysis This work fills an important gap in our understanding of the evolution and contemporary dynamics of Indonesian sexualities It will be of interest to scholars and academics from disciplines including gender and sexuality studies global health sexual and reproductive health anthropology sociology and Asian studies

Critical Sexual Literacy Gilbert Herdt, Michelle Marzullo, Nicole Polen Petit, 2021-08-03 This book is a new and exciting resource for teachers students and activists who aim to critically examine contemporary sexuality through the lens of sexual literacy and situated social analysis This original anthology provides shorter cutting edge essays on theory method and activism including the nature of globalization and local sexuality discovered in glocal topics processes and contexts These cutting edge essays inform readers of key moments in sexual history including areas relating to research practice and social policy and provide a platform from which to engage in rich discussion and forecast the development of sexual literacy in our world within multiple contexts

Homosexualities, Muslim Cultures and Modernity M. Rahman, 2014-01-30 This book addresses the increasing role of queer politics within forms of Islamophobia both by exploring the framing of lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT issues as a key marker of western superiority and by identifying the ways in which Muslim homophobia contributes to this dialectic

Sexualities, Transnationalism, and Globalisation

Yanqiu Rachel Zhou, Christina Sinding, Donald Goellnicht, 2021-05-05 This innovative book explores the dynamic and contested interactions including the mutually constitutive relationships among sexualities transnationalism and globalisation Bringing together contributors with a variety of disciplinary geographic and theoretical perspectives this text explores new theories and trends in sexuality research including lived experiences of sexuality in this rapidly globalising world changing relationships between sexualities transnationalism and globalisation interventions activism and policy responses to the global challenges of sexual health and relevant reflections on and implications for equity and social justice in the ongoing processes of contemporary globalisation It is comprised of three sections focusing on transnational sexualities transnational sexual politics and transnational sexual activism Sexualities Transnationalism and Globalisation will be of interest to students and scholars from a range of disciplines and fields including sociology sexuality studies anthropology geography international relations politics and public health Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Vietnam Jonathan D. London, 2022-07-29

The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Vietnam is a comprehensive resource exploring social political economic and cultural aspects of Vietnam one of contemporary Asia's most dynamic but least understood countries Following an introduction that highlights major changes that have unfolded in Vietnam over the past three decades the volume is organized into four thematic parts Politics and Society Economy and Society Social Life and Institutions Cultures in Motion Part I addresses key aspects of Vietnam's politics from the role of the Communist Party of Vietnam in shaping the country's institutional evolution to continuity and change in patterns of socio political organization political expression state repression diplomatic relations and human rights Part II assesses the transformation of Vietnam's economy addressing patterns of economic growth investment and trade the role of the state in the economy and other economic aspects of social life Parts III and IV examine developments across a variety of social and cultural fields through chapters on themes including welfare inequality social policy urbanization the environment and society gender ethnicity the family cuisine art mass media and the politics of remembrance Featuring 38 essays by leading Vietnam scholars from around the world this book provides a cutting edge analysis of Vietnam's transformation and changing engagement with the world It is an invaluable interdisciplinary reference work that will be of interest to students and academics of Southeast Asian studies as well as policymakers analysts and anyone wishing to learn more about contemporary Vietnam HIV, Sex and Sexuality in Later Life Mark

Henrickson, Casey Charles, Shiv Ganesh, Sulaimon Giwa, Kan Diana Kwok, Tetyana Semigina, 2024-05-21 Drawing on international perspectives and research this book explores the experiences of sex and sexuality in individuals and groups living with HIV in later life 50 The Everyday Lives of Gay Men in Hainan James Cummings, 2022-03-15 This book explores the everyday lives of gay men in Hainan an island province of the People's Republic of China Taking an ethnographic and phenomenological approach it asks how these men construct and experience ways of sexual being as gay homosexual tongzhi and or in the scene and what these mean for the ways of living they see as possible within a socio cultural political and material context characterised by pervasive heteronormativity It explores what it means for gay men in Hainan to come into the scene how internet and mobile technologies figure in their everyday processes of sexual categorisation and how these men negotiate orientations and disorientations towards the future in relation to dominant heterosexual life scripts of marriage and reproduction This book offers vital insights into the production and restriction of non heterosexual lives in diverse settings while addressing universal questions of how certain ways of living are enabled and curtailed in living together with others through powerful conditions of uncertainty and precarity This book will be of interest to scholars in LGBTQ studies particularly those with a focus on same sex intimacies and identities in China Readings in Sexualities from Africa Rachel Spronk, Thomas Hendriks, 2020-02-04 Images and stories about African sexuality abound in today's globalized media Frequently old stereotypes and popular opinion inform these stories and sex in the media is predominately approached as a problem in need of solutions and intervention The authors gathered here refuse an easy characterization of African sexuality and instead seek to understand the various erotic realities sexual practices and gendered changes taking place across the continent They present a nuanced and comprehensive overview of the field of sex and sexuality in Africa to serve as a guide though the quickly expanding literature This collection offers a set of texts that use sexuality as a prism for studying how communities coalesce against the canvas of larger political and economic contexts and how personal lives evolve therein Scholars working in Africa the U S and Europe reflect on issues of representation health and bio politics same sex relationships and identity transactional economies of sex religion and tradition and the importance of pleasure and agency This multidimensional reader provides a comprehensive view of sexuality from an African perspective
