Yuval Davis University of East London Digesting Race, Class, and Gender I. Ken, 2010-12-20 How are the ways that race organizes our lives related to the ways gender and class organize our lives How might these organizing mechanisms conflict or work together In Digesting Race Class and Gender Ivy Ken likens race class and gender to foods foods that are produced in fields mixed together in bowls and digested in our social and institutional bodies In the field one food may contaminate another through cross pollination In the mixing bowl each food s original molecular structure changes in the presence of others And within a meal the presence of one food may impede or facilitate the digestion of another At each of these sites the foods of race class and gender are involved in dynamic relationships with each other that have implications for the shape or the taste of our social order The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of Africa R. Sooryamoorthy, Nene Ernest Khalema, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of the Sociology of Africa presents a comparative analysis of sociological thinking in Africa Focusing on examples from Africa this diverse collection presents to a broad readership an accessible comprehensive up to date and topical analysis of sociological thinking in Africa Sociological discourse about African societies has been challenging and difficult due to a lack of both comprehensive analyses and holistic sociological evidence that covers Africa from past to present This Handbook locates African sociological thinking in historical context and takes a critical look at its current manifestations across the continent Intersectionality of Race, Ethnicity, Class, and Gender in Teaching and Teacher Education Norvella P. Samier, Peter Milley, 2018-04-19 This volume develops a theoretical and critical foundation for understanding maladministration the phenomena of harmful administrative and organisational behaviours in educational systems Chapter authors provide theoretical and practice based perspectives across international contexts regarding common destructive practices that occur in educational organisations such as negligence and mistreatment of people professional dishonesty fraud and embezzlement abuse of power and corrupt organisational cultures International Perspectives on Maladministration in Education shines a light on this complex topic by examining various practices at individual group organisational and system levels the contexts and influences that give rise to them and potential remedies to ensure more accountable just and safe institutions Funny Dostoevsky Lynn Ellen Patyk, Irina Erman, 2024-06-13 Tapping into the emergence of scholarly comedy studies since the 2000s this collection brings new perspectives to bear on the Dostoevskian light side Funny Dostoevsky demonstrates how and why Dostoevsky is one of the most humorous 19th century authors even as he plumbs the depths of the human psyche and the darkest facets of European modernity The authors go beyond the more traditional categories of humor such as satire parody and the carnivalesque to apply unique lenses to their readings of Dostoevsky These include cinematic slapstick and the body in Crime and Punishment the affective turn and hilarious and deadly impatience in Demons and ontological jokes in Notes from Underground and The Idiot The authors coincidentally all women including some of the most established scholars in the field alongside up and comers address gender and the marginalization of comedy culminating in a chapter on Dostoevsky s funny and furious women and explore the intersections of gender and humor in literary and culture studies Funny Dostoevsky applies some of the latest findings on humor and laughter to his writing while comparative chapters bring Dostoevsky's humor into conjunction with other popular works such as Chaplin's Modern Times and Lin Manuel Miranda's Hamilton. Written with a verve and wit that Dostoevsky would appreciate, this boldly original volume illuminates how humor and comedy in his works operate as vehicles of deconstruction, pleasure, play, and transcendence.
