Policy and practice for teaching about religions and non-religious world views in intercultural education Robert Jackson, 2014-08-01 How can the study of religions and non religious world views contribute to intercultural education in schools in Europe An important recommendation from the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe Recommendation CM Rec 2008 12 on the dimension of religions and non religious convictions within intercultural education aimed to explain the nature and objectives of this form of education Signposts goes much further by providing advice to policy makers schools including teachers senior managers and governors and teacher trainers on tackling issues arising from the recommendation Taking careful account of feedback from education officials teachers and teacher trainers in Council of Europe member states Signposts gives advice for example on clarifying the terms used in this form of education developing competences for teaching and learning and working with different didactical approaches creating safe space for moderated student to student dialogue in the classroom helping students to analyse media representations of religions discussing non religious world views

alongside religious perspectives handling human rights issues relating to religion and belief and linking schools including schools of different types to one another and to wider communities and organisations Signposts is not a curriculum or a policy statement It aims to give policy makers schools and teacher trainers in the Council of Europe member states as well as others who wish to use it the tools to work through the issues arising from interpretation of the recommendation to meet the needs of individual countries Signposts results from the work of an international panel of experts convened jointly by the Council of Europe and the European Wergeland Centre and is written on the group s behalf by Professor Robert Jackson

Stepping Back and Looking Ahead: Twelve Years of Studying Religious Contact at the Käte Hamburger Kolleg Bochum,2023-09-04 This book includes a collection of articles by leading researchers on the topic of religious contact in the study of religion Resulting from the final conference of the Käte Hamburger Kolleg Dynamics in the History of Religions one of the largest research initiatives in the interdisciplinary study of religion worldwide in recent years 2008 2020 this book encapsulates the twofold aim of this conference first to step back and reflect upon the merits and challenges of studying religious dynamics as a result of intra inter and extra religious contact and second to look beyond and pave ways for future approaches to study religion as a social phenomenon Religion Online August E. Grant,Amanda F. C. Sturgill,Chiung Hwang Chen,Daniel A. Stout,2019-03-07 Religion Online provides new insights about religiosity in a contemporary context offering a comprehensive look at the intersection of digital media faith communities and practices of all sorts Recent research on Apple users video games virtual worlds artificial intelligence digital music and sports as religion supports the idea that media and religion once considered separate entities are in many cases the same thing New media and religious practice can no longer be detached this two volume set discusses how religionists are embracing the Internet amidst cultural shifts of secularization autonomous religious worship millennials affinity for new media and the rise of fundamentalism in the global south While other works describe case studies this book explains how new media are interwoven into the very fabric of religious belief behavior and community Chapters break down the past present and projected future of the use of digital media in relation to faith traditions of many varieties extending from mainline Christianity to new religious movements The book also examines the impacts of digital media on beliefs and practices around the world In exploring these subjects it calls on the study of culture namely anthropology to conceptualize a technological period as significant as the industrial revolution

Indian Transnationalism Online Ajaya Kumar Sahoo,Johannes G. de Kruijf,2016-05-23 Present day migration takes place in a world characterized by the compression of time and space with cheaper air travel and the existence of new communication technologies the internet in particular making it easier to stay in contact with the places people and cultures that one has left This book investigates the online organization of and exchanges within the global Indian diaspora Bringing together research from around the world and presenting studies drawn from the US Europe and India it engages with theoretical and methodological debates concerning the shaping and transformation of migrant culture in emerging sites of sociality and explores issues such as religion citizenship nationalism region and caste as they relate to Indian identity in global transnational contexts With detailed empirical case studies showing both how members of the Indian diaspora connect with one other and life at home and how institutions in India maintain such links Indian Transnationalism Online sheds light on the ways in which information and communication technology functions as both a catalyst and indicator of contemporary socio cultural change As such it will be of interest to sociologists anthropologists political scientists and studies of cultural studies working in the areas of migration transnationalism and ethnic studies Creating Church Online Tim
