The Victimization of Public School Teachers in America Emmanuel Edouard, PhD, 2024-08-09 The assault on public school teachers integrity livelihood and professionalism started in 1983 with the publication of A Nation at Risk Based on the results of our education system performance they were indirectly accused of failing our children Still it peaked in 2004 when Rod Paige then George W Bush s secretary of education called the country s leading teachers union a terrorist organization Teachers felt dehumanized then In 2009 Barack Obama blamed them for letting our grades slip our schools crumble our teacher quality fall short and other nations outpace us Teachers felt let down again In 2017 President Donald Trump lamented how beautiful students had been deprived of all knowledge by our nation s cash guzzling public school system Teachers felt humiliated and rejected Currently in states like Florida public school teachers are besieged by politically motivated laws and unrealistic demands from parents politicians and noneducation experts They have lost their freedom to teach as they see fit to meet the needs of their students Teachers feel more disrespected devalued unappreciated and under attack than ever The bad news is that a recent NEA survey revealed that 55 percent of currently employed teachers are seriously considering leaving their jobs If that rate of resignations continues to grow the question is Will there be a public school system in America in the future
