Gradual failure : the air war over North Vietnam 1965-1966 Jacob Van Staaveren, 2002 Of the many facets of the American war in Southeast Asia debated by U S authorities in Washington by the military services and the public none has proved more controversial than the air war against North Vietnam The air war's inauguration with the nickname Rolling Thunder followed an eleven year American effort to induce communist North Vietnam to sign a peace treaty without openly attacking its territory Thus Rolling Thunder was a new military program in what had been a relatively low key attempt by the United States to win the war within South Vietnam against insurgent communist Viet Cong forces aided and abetted by the north The present volume covers the first phase of the Rolling Thunder campaign from March 1965 to late 1966 It begins with a description of the planning and execution of two initial limited air strikes nicknamed Flaming Dart I and II The Flaming Dart strikes were carried out against North Vietnam in February 1965 as the precursors to a regular albeit limited Rolling Thunder air program launched the following month Before proceeding with an account of Rolling Thunder its roots are traced in the events that compelled the United States to adopt an anti communist containment policy in Southeast Asia after the defeat of French forces by the communist Vietnamese in May 1954 To Hanoi and Back Wayne

Thompson, 2014-07-15 After nearly eighteen months of the largely unsuccessful bombing campaign called Operation Rolling Thunder the US Air Force began to look for ways to overcome technological geographical and political challenges in North Vietnam and use limited air power more effectively In 1972 the two Linebacker campaigns joined with other air operations to make a dramatic although temporary difference While they unleashed powerful B 52 area bombers the campaigns also demonstrated the efficacy of newly developed laser guided precision bombs Drawing upon twenty years of research in classified records Wayne Thompson integrates operational political and personal detail to present a full history of the Air Force role in the war against North Vietnam He provides an unprecedented view of the motivations and actions of the people involved from aircrews to generals to politicians in every phase of the air campaigns He outlines for instance the political reasons for President Johnson s reluctance to use B 52 bombers against major North Vietnamese targets He also examines how the media influenced US policy and how US prisoners became the war s most celebrated heroes The war in Southeast Asia ultimately pushed the Air Force toward adopting more flexible tactics and incorporating increasingly sophisticated weapons that would shape later conflicts

The Advisory Years to 1965 Robert Frank Futrell, Martin Blumenson, 1981 This publication is the first of a series titled The United States Air Force in Southeast Asia It tells the story of the Air Force s involvement in the region from the end of the second World War until the major infusion of American troops into Vietnam in 1965 During these years and most noticeably after 1961 the Air Force s principal role in Southeast Asia was to advise the Vietnamese Air Force in its struggle against insurgents seeking the collapse of the Saigon Government This story includes some issues of universal applicability to the Air Force the role of air power in an insurgency the most effective way to advise a foreign ally and how to coordinate with other American agencies both military and civilian which are doing the same thing It also deals iwth issues unique to the Vietnamese conflict how to coordinate a centralized technological modern air force with a feudal decentralized indigenous one without overwhelming it and how best to adapt fighter reconnaissance airlift and liaison planes to a jungle environment Additional volumes in this series will tell the story of the Air Force in South Vietnam in Laos and over North Vietnam until the cessation of the Air Force s direct role in 1973 Author Development and Employment of Fixed-wing Gunships, 1962-1972 Jack S.
