Transforming The Church In Africa A New Contextually Relevant Discipleship Model:

Transforming the Church in Africa Vernon E. Light, 2012 This book is a must read for serious Christians hoping to obey the Great Commission to make disciples in Africa Vernon strikes an admirable balance between academic depth and practical application helping us to appreciate the interface between the gospel of Jesus Christ and the traditional African worldview I heartily recommend this book to all thinking Christian leaders in Africa pastors teachers and missionaries Kevin G Smith DLitt PhD Vernon Light wrote this book with an apostolic passion in the way the apostles presented and proclaimed the Gospel to world religions and cultures It is an exciting study of African traditional religion and its relation to Christianity It shows that for Christianity to thrive and be relevant biblically and transformationally in Africa firstly Christian scholars and theologians are needed who understand and address Africa s traditional heritage and Western modern postmodern and pluralistic ideologies and secondly the Gospel must be contextually relevantly meaningfully and practically taught through an effective discipleship program The book based on extensive research and massive use of resources is a valuable tool for students pastors scholars and theologians interested in the state of Christianity and religious change in Africa Professor Yusufu Turaki PhD Much more than being a useful resource this is a book with a mission Like Jeremiah of old Jer 20 9 Vernon is a man with a passion and message from God to the society to which God has called him Like Jeremiah Vernon is totally convinced of the absolute truth of his message in the midst of a myriad of conflicting opinions and that his message will change society from disaster to hope Would that it is heard Professor David T Williams DTh The Rev Vernon E Light BSc BDHons MTh is a member of the academic staff at the South African Theological Seminary Spectacular Atonement

Robert Falconer, 2023-05-31 There are many books about the cross of Christ but few are written from an African perspective or with an African context in mind In this book Dr Robert Falconer offers the reader a holistic understanding of Jesus s atoning work that powerfully addresses African realities and concerns Grounded in Scripture and Christian theology this book gives careful attention to the implications of the atonement for African traditional spirituality Presenting a biblical perspective of the cross one rooted in penal substitution and Christus Victor theology Falconer demonstrates Christ s power in all aspects of our lives including over ancestors evil spirits witchcraft and sin This book provides a deeper understanding of contextual issues facing the African church while also demonstrating the role of the atonement in addressing our cultural concerns and restoring the hope of liberty reconciliation redemption and resurrection When Evil Strikes Sunday Bobai Agang, 2016-06-22 Human hostility is not the narrative of a selected few Since the fall of the grandparents of the human family Adam and Eve all humans have continued to participate in the reality of evil Accordingly the question is no longer whether evil will strike but rather when evil strikes how should humans particularly Christians respond to it This book offers a relevant and effective theology and ethics for addressing the issue of Christian response to violence in Nigeria and beyond It situates the whole gamut of the reign of human hostility in its various manifestations self interest and greed for power deception and social injustices governmental official corruption terrorism and so on It encourages humans to take seriously both the fact of God creating humans good and the fall serving as the gateway of evil into the human race It recognizes the complexity of human problems Yet it offers possibility for just peacemaking In spite of the horrific violence across the globe humans are still able to do tremendous good Thus the book recognizes the paradox of humanity humans are capable of doing tremendous good and equally capable of doing tremendous evil Victory Over Fear: Charms, Witchcraft and Worldview in South-Central Malawi Robert Beaton, 2023-05-25 In this volume the author presents much of his field research into the use of African traditional religious charms in the Zambezi Evangelical churches of South Central Malawi He details the kinds of charms used by whom exactly how the underlying motives and the particular purposes He shows how charm dependency creates a problem for discipleship within the churches An anthology of real life stories of charm usage is presented which makes for interesting reading The basic tenets of a Chewa worldview are also articulated to demonstrate how charm dependency and other witchcraft related activities are stimulated and perpetuated by deep seated worldview assumptions The voices of local pastors student pastors and African authors are heard throughout providing a contextual feel This book is an excellent practical resource for teaching and learning for those involved in discipleship theology ATR missions and cultural perspectives Comparative Education for Global Citizenship, Peace and Shared Living through uBuntu

, 2022-06-08 There is a dire need today to create spaces in which people can make meaning of their existence in the world abiding by cultural frameworks and practices that acknowledge and validate a meaningful existence for all People are not just isolated individuals but are connected in diverse ways with other persons within our natural and social environment which is part of the whole universe The African philosophy of uBuntu or humaneness is re emerging for its timely relevance and potential as indispensable in our quest for global citizenship peace and mutual understanding in securing sustainable human development in the broader ecosystem Comparative educationists have the challenge to devise theoretical frameworks epistemological and pedagogical constructs as well as pragmatic useful and effective ways of promoting the virtues of compassion and recognition of our common humanity in eliminating the ills of domination and control that are guided by greed hatred jealousy and intolerance Comparative Education for Global Citizenship Peace and Shared Living through Ubuntu paves the way for a better understanding of the critical importance of the collective search and endeavor towards achieving the virtues of nonviolence peace shared values of living together global citizenship improved quality of life for all and a better appreciation of the positive implications of interdependence African Pentecostal Theology Mookgo Solomon Kgatle, 2023-12-11 African Pentecostal Theology Modality Disciplinarity and Decoloniality explores research methodology theological disciplines and contextualization as important aspects in the process of studying Pentecostal theology in an African context Mookgo Solomon Kgatle outlines different data collection and data analysis methods including the skills of interpreting and presenting research findings in a responsible manner This book illustrates that Pentecostal theology given its pneumatological approach goes beyond conventional theological disciplines in transdisciplinary research. The development of knowledge in African Pentecostal Theology should recognize African Indigenous Knowledge Systems (AIKS). African oral and traditional cultures and African indigenous languages to be relevant to Africans. Pentecostal theologians from different theological disciplines in Africa and globally will find this book a worthwhile read.

Phenomenological Approaches to Religion and Spirituality Essien, Essien D., 2021-01-29. There is an interesting knowledge trajectory that God remains incomprehensible not imperceptible. This lends credence to the fact that religious study since the Enlightenment has dedicated itself almost entirely to the problem of reconciling the non existence of God in the physical world with his necessary existence in the metaphysical world. When seriously examined it would be discovered that these two aspects are logically contradictory and this is a problem with no solution. But interpreting God not as a physical being but as a phenomenological thing changes the nature of the problem enough that a solution emerges almost automatically. In this phenomenological model the crux of the matter is that God does not exist but God is real. Therefore it is imperative to return to experience and verifiability hence purging it of unexamined and often hidden assumptions. Phenomenological Approaches to Religion and Spirituality brings together the different disciplines and research approaches to provide a comprehensive analysis of the phenomenology of God and spirituality as well as offering an effective epistemological apparatus capable of dealing with this concept. The book employs multidisciplinary approaches from religious studies, theology, philosophy, anthropology and other segments to dissect the subject matter for efficient evaluation and all inclusive findings. While covering various aspects of religion such as the testaments of the Bible, the church, the religious experience and various aspects of spirituality, this book is intended for theologians, philosophers, religious leaders, policymakers, academicians, researchers, students, public institutions and agencies with a special interest in religious matters, values, knowledge and truth.

A Missiology of the Road J Kevin Livingston, 2014-09-25. David Bosch 1929-1992 was one of the foremost mission theologians of the twentieth century, a prolific scholar, committed church leader and active participant in the global conciliar and evangelical mission movements. His distinctive role in the South African church's struggle against apartheid is less well known, however. After reviewing Bosch's background and exploring key themes in his understanding of mission and evangelism, Livingston explores Bosch's legacy from the perspective of the missionary nature of the church. The church is God's kingdom community acting as a witness to and instrument of the coming reign of God. The church is God's alternative community simultaneously set apart from the world but also existing for the sake of the world, exemplifying the radical implications of Christ's new community. It is also God's reconciled and reconciling community serving as a sign and embodiment of God's love in Christ. For those acquainted with Bosch only as the author of his magisterial Transforming Mission, A Missiology of the Road shows how Bosch integrated his theology and practice in a faithful, contextually relevant way within South Africa and the global church.

Towards a Contextual Transformational Practical Theology for Leadership Education in South Africa Gordon E. Dames, 2016 Towards a contextual transformational practical theology for leadership education in South Africa is a courageous effort by a prominent South African practical theologian to develop a framework for the theory and practice of leadership education in an African context Taking the harsh realities of South Africa as point of departure the author demonstrates how an indigenous South African practical theology can be developed through a critical interaction between Western and African ideas Prof Jaco S Dreyer Professor of Practical Theology University of South Africa

Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South Mark A. Lamport, 2018-06-01 Christianity has transformed many times in its 2 000 year history from its roots in the Middle East to its presence around the world today From the mid twentieth century onward the presence of Christianity has increased dramatically in Asia Africa and Latin America and the majority of the world's Christians are now nonwhite and non Western The Encyclopedia of Christianity in the Global South traces both the historical evolution and contemporary themes in Christianity in more than 150 countries and regions The volumes include maps images and a detailed timeline of key events The phrases Global Christianity and World Christianity are inadequate to convey the complexity of the countries and regions involved this encyclopedia with its more than 500 entries aims to offer rich perspectives on the varieties of Christianity where it is growing how the spread of Christianity shapes the faith in various regions and how the faith is changing worldwide Homo Florens? Nadia Marais, 2023-10-09 What does it mean to flourish Human flourishing lies at the heart of the good news of the gospel and yet contemporary theologies know not only one way of speaking about what it means to flourish If we embed our theological grammars of flourishing in the doctrine of salvation as the doctrine in which theological flourishing talk is arguably rooted and from which rich fruit may be borne there is not one but various ways in which to speak about what it means to flourish Yet what governs our speaking Why do we speak of flourishing as we do The various conceptions of human flourishing that are outlined in this book piety joy and comfort being fully alive healing and dignity grace happiness and blessing represent a collection of attempts not only to imagine human flourishing but also to imagine ways of speaking about human flourishing Perhaps what theology could offer to the vibrant and robust conversations on human flourishing lies exactly in the reminder to take care about how we speak about that which is truly and deeply human our longing to flourish

God in South Africa Albert Nolan, 2024-02-01 This is a reprint of the 1988 publication which is now out of print The book was written while Albert Nolan was in hiding during the State of Emergency in South Africa This volume includes reviews of the book used with permission from the South African Grace and Truth journal from 1990 The author believes that in South Africa the practice of the struggle is the practice of faith and to show this he reviews the central themes of the Christian faith as found in the Old Testament and the preaching of Jesus the nature of sin and salvation and of God's action in the world He also faces the dilemma of Christians who can no longer support the apartheid state but are uncertain where the liberation struggle will lead Like his best selling Jesus before Christianity God in South Africa is a contextual theology a theology rooted in the painful conversion of a church to the cause of liberation It can be regarded the author says as a conversation between South African Christians but out of that conversation comes a challenge to Christians everywhere to discover the meaning of the gospel to find God in their situation This profound book written in the 1980s to guide those seeking to deploy the gospel message against the repressive and abhorrent South African apartheid regime continues to speak powerfully to all peoples in all times and in all places It continues to show how the gospels respond to the signs of the times anywhere that people are in crisis providing the tools to build a contextualised and local theology that can preach the good news of God's liberating power against all forms of injustice Albert Nolan South Africa's Gustavo Gutierrez revealed hope that God cares for and finds the poor and oppressed wherever they are For my own community the potential to construct a contextualised and local Ukrainian theology offers hope that the good news always challenges those who oppress and forever speaks liberation for those burdened by an unjust war and the despair found in its wake

Essays on the Real Church Dirk J. Smit, 2024-08-15

The spirit of the Reformation is often expressed in the well known slogan that Reformed churches are always being reformed according to God's Word ecclesia reformata semper reformanda secundum verbum Dei Over the last century the spirit of this slogan motivated someone like Dietrich Bonhoeffer to argue that the visible form and life of the church should reflect the truth and message of the church Already in his doctoral dissertation called Sanctorum Communio the communion of the saints the young Bonhoeffer combined theological claims and traditions with social theory and analysis in this spirit in an innovative way to study the nature and integrity and witness of the church At the time this was a radical claim with major consequences and challenges for Protestant churches Their life which meant their order structure actions statements convictions public presence and role was to be measured by their gospel which meant their message proclamation convictions claims They could no longer proclaim one truth yet live a different life It was this spirit which led to the well known Theological Declaration of Barmen in 1934 and to the formation of the Confessing Church in Nazi Germany Many called this a moment of truth a status confessionis It was this same spirit which later inspired the struggle in South Africa for the integrity and faithfulness of the church and for the credibility of its message proclamation and witness The contributions in this volume 52 papers essays sermons studies were all produced in this spirit Most of them have not been published before They were all occasional pieces written over several decades in different contexts and for different purposes and audiences yet they all breathe this self critical spirit of the Reformation considering whether the real church the concrete every day actual living church that people know and experience and perhaps belong to truly strives to embody the gospel itself the message which it claims and proclaims They all inquire under different circumstances and in diverse ways about different social forms of the real church from worship to congregation from denomination to ecumenical church from individual believers to movements and organisations whether and how they embody the truth of the church or not Together these contributions tell a story the story of this spirit in South African circles over several decades but also in the ecumenical church in our globalizing world They offer one small glimpse into different concrete moments in the story of this spirit in the life of this tradition and community of faith Hopefully some of these accounts may resonate with others who also shared the same spirit and still share it today in new and ongoing ways Walk Humbly with the Lord Viggo Mortensen, Andreas Osterund Nielsen, 2010-12-17 In June of 1910 delegates gathered in Edinburgh for the first World Missionary Conference One hundred years later the 2010 Church and Mission in a Multireligious Third Millennium conference sought to reconcile a century of seismic shifts in the worldwide landscape of the church with its ongoing mandate to make disciples of all nations Arising out of that recent conference Walk Humbly with the Lord presents a broad multinational spectrum of contemporary approaches to both theology and missiology Recognizing that the old Western notion of Christendom which formed the cultural backdrop of Edinburgh 1910 is now long obsolete the book's twenty seven forward thinking contributors respond to globalization and the enormous growth of religious pluralism worldwide offering reflections on the future of missiology and the relationship of church and mission Together they speculate about the possible shape of Christianity in a multireligious age as God works out new and unforeseen schemes in the reconciliation of the world I wish I could have been at the conference from which this book comes Viggo Mortensen and Andreas Nielsen have assembled a marvelous collection of reflections on mission that will be especially helpful to Christians committed to living faithfully and missionally in today's pluralistic world If a new postsecular reality is emerging as some are saying these essays will help the church be a sign of hope and stability in such a new age Stephen Bevans SVD Catholic Theological Union Chicago The Church of England Yearbook, 2007 The Church of England Year Book 2008.
