Transitional Justice In Post Communist Romania The Politics Of Memory:

Transitional Justice in Post-Communist Romania Assistant Professor of Political Science Lavinia Stan, 2014-05-14 This is the first volume to overview the complex Romanian transitional justice effort Transitional Justice in Post-Communist Romania Lavinia Stan, 2012 This is the first volume to overview the complex Romanian transitional justice effort Justice, Memory and Redress in Romania Lavinia Stan, Lucian Turcescu, 2017-01-06 Are there any lessons Romania can teach transitional justice scholars and practitioners This book argues that important insights emerge when analyzing a country with a moderate record of coming to terms with its communist past Taking a broad definition of transitional justice as their starting point contributors provide fresh assessments of the history commission court trials public identifications of former communist perpetrators commemorations and unofficial artistic projects that seek to address and redress the legacies of communist human rights violations Theoretical and practical questions regarding the continuity of state agencies the sequencing of initiatives their advantages and limitations the reasons why some reckoning programs are enacted and others are not and these measures efficacy in promoting truth and justice are answered throughout the volume Contributors include seasoned scholars from Romania Canada the United States and the United Kingdom and current and former leaders of key Romanian transitional justice institutions Churches, Memory and Justice in Post-Communism Lucian Turcescu, Lavinia Stan, 2021-08-24 This book is the first to systematically examine the connection between religion and transitional justice in post communism There are four main goals motivating this book 1 to explain how civil society groups such as religious denominations contribute to transitional justice efforts to address and redress past dictatorial repression 2 to ascertain the impact of state led reckoning programs on religious communities and their members 3 to renew the focus on the factors that determine the adoption or rejection of efforts to reckon with past human rights abuses in post communism and 4 to examine the limitations of enacting specific transitional justice methods programs and practices in post communist Central and Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Union countries whose democratization has differed in terms of its nature and pace Various churches and their relationship with the communist states are covered in the following countries Germany Poland the Czech Republic Slovakia Romania Albania Bulgaria Estonia Latvia Lithuania Russia and Belarus East Central Europe since 1989 Sabrina P. Ramet, Lavinia Stan, 2024-12-12 This groundbreaking treatment of post communist developments in East Central Europe examines politics economics media religious institutions transitional justice gender inequality and literature highlighting the overt functions latent functions and side effects associated with each sphere Communism in East Central Europe had cracks from the beginning as uprisings in East Germany in 1953 and Hungary in 1956 demonstrated But with the establishment of the Independent Trade Union Solidarity in Poland in the Summer of 1980 communism went into steady decline and between 1988 and 1991 crumbled What followed has been an unsteady transition to various forms of often corrupt pluralism with democracy doing best in the Czech Republic with the exception of the years 2017 2021 and

Slovenia and worst in Hungary Albania Serbia and Bosnia Herzegovina Drawing on the functionalist theory of Robert K Merton the authors examine what policymakers communist and post communist were or are trying to accomplish the intended and unintended results of these policies and the side effects they have produced This volume will be of interest not only to specialists in East Central Europe but also to graduate and undergraduate students members of the diplomatic corps and general readers Central and East European Politics Zsuzsa Csergo,Daina S. Eglitis,Paula M. Pickering,2021-06-22 Now in a fully revised and updated edition this essential text provides a comprehensive introduction to Central and Eastern Europe including the Baltics and Ukraine Broad but nuanced it offers a reader friendly overview of the globally and regionally significant changes and challenges the region faces Divided into two parts the book first presents thematic chapters on key issues including nationalism and challenges to democratic institutions and practices the contentious politics of memory debates over demography and migration in a region with a shrinking population and Russian efforts to retain regional influence through hard and soft power The case study chapters that follow highlight key political developments after communism as well as providing a strong foundation for readers on regional history and the political and economic experiences of the communist years Each covers the foundational topics of political history political competition economic development social problems relationships with European institutions and threats to good governance For students and specialists alike this book will be an invaluable resource on this dynamic region of Europe Central and East European Politics Sharon L. Wolchik,Jane Leftwich Curry,2018-03-29 Now in a fully updated edition this essential text explores the other half of Europe the new and future members of the EU along with the problems and potential they bring to the region and to the world stage Clear and comprehensive it offers an authoritative analysis of Central and Eastern Europe the Baltics and Ukraine Transitional Justice in Aparadigmatic Contexts Tine Destrooper,Line Engbo Gissel,Kerstin Bree Carlson,2023-03-23 This book explores the practical and theoretical opportunities as well as the challenges raised by the expansion of transitional justice into new and aparadigmatic cases The book defines transitional justice as the pursuit of accountability recognition and or disruption and applies an actor centric analysis focusing on justice actors intentions of and responses to transitional justice It offers a typology of different transitional justice contexts ranging from societies experiencing ongoing conflict to consolidated democracies and includes chapters from all types of aparadigmatic contexts This covers transitional justice in states with contested political authority shared political authority and consolidated political authority The transitional justice initiatives explored by the wide range of contributors are those of Afghanistan Belgium France Greenland Denmark Libya Syria Turkey Kurdistan UK Iraq US and Yemen Through these aparadigmatic case studies the book develops a new framework that appropriate to its expanding reach allows us to understand the practice of transitional justice in a more context sensitive bottom up and actor oriented way which leaves room for the complexity and messiness of interventions on the ground The book will appeal to scholars and practitioners in the broad field of transitional justice as represented in law criminology politics conflict studies and human rights The Introduction Chapter 8 and the Concluding Remarks of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Religion and Politics in Post-Socialist Central and Southeastern Europe Sabrina P. Ramet, 2014-01-31 Since the crash of communism in Central and Southeastern Europe in 1989 almost everything in the region has changed from politics to economics to popular culture to religion There have been new challenges to confront and new dilemmas This volume examines the political engagement of religious associations in the post socialist countries of Central and Southeastern Europe with a focus on disputes about property restitution revelations about the collaboration of clergy with the communist era secret police intolerance and controversies about the inclusion of religious instruction in the schools Each of the countries in the region is analyzed with research grounded in on site interviews as well as extensive use of literature in local and Western languages

The Normative Environment of European Integration Józef Niżnik, 2008 Repression, Resistance and Collaboration in Stalinist Romania 1944-1964 Monica Ciobanu, 2020-10-14 This book examines how the process of remembering Stalinist repression in Romania has shifted from individual family and group representations of lived and witnessed experiences characteristic of the 1990s to more recent and state sponsored expressions of historical remembrance through their incorporation in official commemorations propaganda sites and restorative and compensatory measures Based on fieldwork dealing with Stalinist repression and memorialization together with archival research on the secret police Securitate it adopts an interdisciplinary approach to reveal the resurfacing of particular themes As such it draws on concepts from sociology political science and legal studies related to memory justice redress identity accountability and reconciliation A study of competing narratives concerning the meaning of the past as part of a struggle over the legitimacy of the post communist state Repression Resistance and Collaboration in Stalinist Romania 1944-1964 combines memory studies with a transitional justice approach that will appeal to scholars of sociology heritage and memory studies politics and law

Churches, Memory and Justice in Post-Communism Lucian Turcescu, Lavinia Stan, 2021 This book is the first to systematically examine the connection between religion and transitional justice in post communism There are four main goals motivating this book 1 to explain how civil society groups such as religious denominations contribute to transitional justice efforts to address and redress past dictatorial repression 2 to ascertain the impact of state led reckoning programs on religious communities and their members 3 to renew the focus on the factors that determine the adoption or rejection of efforts to reckon with past human rights abuses in post communism and 4 to examine the limitations of enacting specific transitional justice methods programs and practices in post communist Central and Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Union countries whose democratization has differed in terms of its nature and pace Various churches and their relationship with the communist states are covered in the following countries Germany Poland the Czech Republic Slovakia Romania
