Assignments and Handouts for LGBTQ+ Clients Joy S. Whitman, Cyndy J. Boyd, 2020-08-31 Featuring over 70 affirming interventions in the form of homework assignments, handouts, and activities, this comprehensive volume helps novice and experienced counselors support LGBTQ community members and their allies. Each chapter includes an objective indications and contraindications, a case study, suggestions for follow-up, professional resources, and references. The book's social justice perspective encourages counselors to hone their skills in creating change in their communities while helping their clients learn effective coping strategies in the face of stress, bullying, microaggressions, and other life challenges. The volume also contains a large section on training allies and promoting greater cohesion within LGBTQ communities. Counseling and mental health services for LGBTQ clients require between-session activities that are clinically focused, evidence-based, and specifically designed for one or more LGBTQ subpopulations. This handbook gathers together the best of such LGBTQ clinically focused material. As such, it will appeal both to students learning affirmative LGBTQ psychotherapy, counseling, and to experienced practitioners. Offering practical tools used by clinicians worldwide, the volume is particularly useful for courses in clinical and community counseling, social work, and psychology. Those new to working with LGBTQ clients will appreciate the book's accessible foundation to guide interventions. Responding to Physical and Sexual Abuse in Women with Alcohol and Other Drug and Mental Disorders Bonita Veysey, Colleen Clark, 2012-12-06 Learn from the experiences of these program sites to develop better services for women with co-occurring disorders and histories of violence. This book explores the efforts of the Women Co-Occurring Disorders and Violence Study to address the significant lack of appropriate services for women trauma survivors with co-occurring mental health and substance use disorders. Experts describe the services integration programs of nine participating sites that address the multiple needs of these women. In this guide, you will find useful strategies for integrating services that are responsive to the strengths and needs of the individual as well as the community. This vital resource examines how over a period of five years, sites designed, implemented, and evaluated their interventions. You will learn how sites developed their strategies for integrating services at both the clinical/individual level and at the services or systems level. The book also shows how trauma-informed, gender-specific, culturally competent care fosters treatment that is sensitive to related issues such as children and parenting, interpreting culture cues, and socioeconomic difficulties. In Responding to Physical and Sexual Abuse in Women with Alcohol and Other Drug and Mental Disorders, you will learn about the details of nine different programs, including Franklin County Women's Research Project, a collaborative project for rural women designed and operated by local consumer survivor-recovering women CSRs; The Triad Women's Project, a semi-rural comprehensive system
