Travellers Gypsies Roma The Demonisation Of Difference:

Travellers, Gypsies, Roma Jean Ryan Hakizimana, 2009-10-02 This volume hopes to act as a catalyst for some new and exciting areas of enquiry in the more liminal interstices of Irish Studies Traveller Studies Romani Studies and Diaspora and Migration Studies These disciplines are all relatively new areas of enquiry in modern Ireland a country whose society has witnessed very rapid and wide ranging cultural and demographic change within the short space of a decade The issue of multiculturalism is not one which is particularly new to Irish society as a number of contributors to this volume point out What is new however is an increased acknowledgement of diversity and multiculturalism in Ireland and Europe as a whole Such an acknowledgement makes increased dialogue between mainstream society older minorities such as the Irish Travellers and the many newer immigrant communities such as the Roma all the more necessary For such constructive dialogue to take place it is vital that migratory peoples and their particular expressions of postcolonial identity be voiced and valued These identities are both complex and diverse and frequently straddle a number of countries and national identities It is hoped that this volume will go some way towards the cultivation of such dialogue Gypsies and Travellers Joanna Richardson, Andrew Richard Ryder, 2012 This title brings together some of the top experts in their fields to help the reader to understand Gypsy and traveller identity

Gypsies David Cressy, 2018-06-28 Gypsies Egyptians Romanies and more recently Travellers Who are these marginal and mysterious people who first arrived in England in early Tudor times Are claims of their distant origins on the Indian subcontinent true or just another of the many myths and stories that have accreted around them over time Can they even be regarded as a single people or ethnicity at all Gypsies have frequently been vilified and not much less frequently romanticized by the settled population over the centuries Social historian David Cressy now attempts to disentangle the myth from the reality of Gypsy life over more than half a millennium of English history In this the first comprehensive historical study of the doings and dealings of Gypsies in England he draws on original archival research and a wide range of reading to trace the many moments when Gypsy lives became entangled with those of villagers and townsfolk religious and secular authorities and social and moral reformers Crucially it is a story not just of the Gypsy community and its peculiarities but also of England's treatment of that community from draconian Elizabethan statutes through various degrees of toleration and fascination right up to the tabloid newspaper campaigns against Gypsy and Traveller encampments of more recent years Romani Politics in Contemporary Europe N. Sigona, N. Trehan, 2009-11-30 This book examines experiences of Romani political participation in eastern and western Europe providing an understanding of the emerging political space that over 8 million Romani citizens occupy within the EU and addressing issues related to the socio political circumstances of Romani communities within European countries Making Sense of Place Ian Convery, Gerard Corsane, Peter Davis, 2014 Essays dealing with the question of how sense of place is constructed in a variety of locations and media The term sense of place is an important multidisciplinary concept used to understand the complex processes through which individuals and groups define themselves and their relationship to their natural and cultural environments and which over the last twenty years or so has been increasingly defined theorized and used across diverse disciplines in different ways Sense of place mediates our relationship with the world and with each other it provides a profoundly important foundation for individual and community identity It can be an intimate deeply personal experience yet also something which we share with others It is at once recognizable but never constant rather it is embodied in the flux between familiarity and difference Research in this area requires culturally and geographically nuanced analyses approaches that are sensitive to difference and specificity event and locale The essays collected here drawn from a variety of disciplines including but not limited to sociology history geography outdoor education museum and heritage studies health and English literature offer an international perspective on the relationship between people and place via five interlinked sections Histories Landscapes and Identities Rural Sense of Place Urban Sense of Place Cultural Landscapes Conservation Biodiversity and Tourism Ian Convery is Reader in Conservation and Forestry National School of Forestry University of Cumbria Gerard Corsane is Senior Lecturer in Heritage Museum and Gallery Studies International Centre for Cultural and Heritage Studies Newcastle University Peter Davis is Professor of Museology International Centre for Cultural and Heritage Studies Newcastle University Contributors Doreen Massey Ian Convery Gerard Corsane Peter Davis David Storey Mark Haywood Penny Bradshaw Vincent O'Brien Michael Woods Jesse Heley Carol Richards Suzie Watkin Lois Mansfield Kenesh Djušipov Tamara Kudaibergenova Jennifer Rogers Eunice Simmons Andrew Weatherall Amanda Bingley Michael Clark Rhiannon Mason Chris Whitehead Helen Graham Christopher Hartworth Joanne Hartworth Ian Thompson Paul Cammack Philippe Dub Josie Baxter Maggie Roe Lyn Leader Elliott John Studley Stephanie K Hawke D Jared Bowers Mark Toogood Owen T Nevin Peter Swain Rachel M Dunk Mary Ann Smyth Lisa J Gibson Stefaan Dondeyne Randi Kaarhus Gaia Allison Ellie Lindsay Andrew Ramsay

European Roma Professor Eve Rosenhaft, María Sierra, 2022-03-01 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library This book designed as a resource for scholars educators activists and non specialist readers presents the results of new research on the role of Romani groups in European culture and society since the nineteenth century Its specific focus is on the ways in which Romani actors in their interactions with non Romanies have contributed to shaping Europe's public spaces Twelve chapters recount the experiences and accomplishments of individuals and families from across Europe England France Spain Germany Poland Hungary Romania and Finland and Canada All based on new research and maintaining a focus on the real lives and activities of Romani people rather than on the perspective of the majority societies these studies exemplify the creative presence of Romani people in the fields of politics economics and culture We see them as writers artists and performers political activists and resistance fighters traders and entrepreneurs circus and cinema managers and purveyors of popular science Sensitive to the ambivalent position from which Roma act the cases are linked and contextualized by a general introduction and by section introductions written by leading scholars of Romani studies with expertise in history ethnography musicology literary and discourse studies and visual culture The volume is richly illustrated including many images that have never been published before and includes an extensive bibliography guide to further reading Contributors to the volume Bego a Barrera Beatriz Carrillo de los Reyes Malte Gasche Pawe Lechowski Anna G Piotrowska Laurence Prempain Juan Pro Eve Rosenhaft Carolina Garc a Sanz Mar a Sierra and Tamara West Heritage as Community Research Helen Graham,Jo

Vergunst,2019-03-13 Heritage as Community Research explores the nature of contemporary heritage research involving university and community partners Putting forward a new view of heritage as a process of research and involvement with the past undertaken with or by the communities for whom it is relevant the book uses a diverse range of case studies with many chapters co written between academics and community partners Through this extensive work the Editors show that the process of research itself can be an empowering force by which communities stake a claim in the places they live

Innovative Cultural Tourism in European Peripheries Karol Jan Borowiecki,Antonella Fresa,José María Martín Civantos,2024-11-27 Cultural tourism can play an important role in social and territorial cohesion Focusing on European peripheral regions this book illuminates the importance of local communities in heritage management for sustainable development This book provides insights into the use of innovative business models and tools such as ecosystem services contracts and digital narrative platforms to enhance the sustainability and economic development of peripheral and marginal destinations Additionally this book addresses the value of data collection and analysis in cultural tourism and provides insights into participatory models and approaches that contribute to sustainable tourism development With contributions from a pan European range of expert scholars and practitioners this book serves as an essential resource for researchers professionals and anyone with an interest in tourism and the cultural and creative industries The Open Access version of thi book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Romani Writing Paola Toninato,2013-12-17 The Roma commonly known as Gypsies have largely been depicted in writings and in popular culture as an illiterate group However as Romani Writing shows the Roma have a deep understanding of literacy and its implications and use writing for a range of different purposes While some Romani writers adopt an oral use of the written medium which aims at opposing and deconstructing anti Gypsy stereotypes other Romani authors use writing for purposes of identity building Writing is for Romani activists and intellectuals a key factor in establishing a shared identity and introducing a common language that transcends linguistic and geographical boundaries between different Romani groups Romani authors acting in between different cultures and communication systems regard writing as an act of cultural mediation through which they are able to rewrite Gypsy images and negotiate their identity while retaining their ethnic specificity Indeed Romani Writing demonstrates how Romani authors have started to create self images in which the Roma are no longer portrayed as objects but become subjects of written representation Critical Perspectives on Hate Crime Amanda Haynes, Jennifer Schweppe, Seamus Taylor, 2017-05-15 This book provides a unique insight into the lived realities of hate crime in Ireland and its treatment within the criminal justice system The significance of the Irish case is contextualised within the European and global policy contexts and an overview of hate crime in Ireland both north and south and its differential treatment in each jurisdiction s criminal justice system is offered Presenting empirically grounded analyses of the experiences of commonly targeted identity groups in an Irish context this study also draws upon their exposure to hate crime and challenges encountered in seeking redress Combining theory research and practice this book represents legal social cultural and political concerns pertinent to understanding preventing deterring and combatting hate crime across Ireland It incorporates a variety of perspectives on the hate crime paradigm and addresses many of the cutting edge debates arising in the field of hate studies Contributions from Irish and international academic researchers are complemented by applied pieces authored by practitioners and policy makers actively engaged with affected communities This is a progressive and informed text which will be of great value to activists policy makers and scholars of hate crime and criminal justice Accessibility, Inclusion, and Diversity in Critical Event Studies Rebecca Finkel, Briony Sharp, Majella Sweeney, 2018-09-14 Most early social research into planned events had the effect of broadcasting narratives of dominant cultures and privileged groups More recently however convergences of gender sexualities ethnicities age class religion and intersectional analyses and events studies have started to drive new critical understanding of the impacts of events on non mainstream non majority communities around the globe This timely book addresses current gaps in the literature surrounding issues of accessibility inclusion and diversity in various event landscapes Structured into four parts covering the main types of events the chapters present original topics using innovative methodological approaches Each chapter employs a case study to illustrate the key intertwining issues in these various experiential realms Further the chapters are all cross or interdisciplinary drawing on gender sexualities cultural race ethnicity studies as well as multiple literatures that feed into critical events studies and exploring a variety of global examples This significant book opens the path to further research on the role and importance of accessibility inclusion and diversity in events environments worldwide It will be of interest to academics and researchers of critical event studies as well as a number of related social science disciplines Beyond Binaries in Education Research Warren Midgley, Mark A. Tyler, Patrick Alan Danaher, Alison Mander, 2012-03-28 Beyond Binaries in Education Research explores the ethical methodological and social justice issues relating to conceptualizations of binary opposites in education research particularly where one side of the dualism is perceived to be positive and the other negative In education research these may include ability disability academic vocational adult child formal informal learning male female research practice researcher participant sedentary mobile and West East Chapters in this book explore the resilience of binary constructions and present conceptual models for moving beyond them and or reconceptualizing them to facilitate more productive approaches to education provision With contributors from authors working in a multitude of educational fields and countries this book provides a significant contribution to the ongoing challenge to seek new ways to move beyond binaries in education research

Irish Traveller Language Maria Rieder,2018-10-03 This book explores the Irish Traveller community through an ethnographic and folk linguistic lens It sheds new light on Irish Traveller language commonly referred to as Gammon or Cant an integral part of the community s cultural heritage that has long been viewed as a form of secret code The author addresses Travellers metalinguistic and ideological reflections on their language use providing deep insights into the culture and values of community members and into their perceived social reality in wider society In doing so she demonstrates that its interrelationship with other cultural elements means that the language is in a constant flux and by analysing speakers experiences of language in action provides a dynamic view of language use The book takes the reader on a journey through oral history language naming practices ideologies of languageness and structure descriptions of language use and contexts negotiations of the authentic Cant and Cant as identity Based on a two year ethnographic fieldwork project in a Traveller Training Centre in the West of Ireland this book will appeal to students and scholars of sociolinguistics language in society language ideology folk linguistics minority communities and languages and cultural and linguistic anthropology
