Treasures From Olana Landscapes By Frederic Edwin Church:

Treasures from Olana Frederic Edwin Church, Kevin J. Avery, 2005 The wide variety of selections from Frederic Edwin Church's collection of his own paintings shows the master in all phases of his career in sketches and finished paintings depicting the breadth of his subjects and the high technical skills that established him as an eminent and influential artist in his own time As works he held on to or reacquired and kept in his house during his lifetime they embody the heart of his artistic vision and convey a deeply personal slant As pictures he hung and lived with at Olana they tell the larger story of that extraordinary place and are as illuminating when seen in context as on their own from the Introduction Frederic Edwin Church 1826-1900 traveled the world captured its beauty in countless paintings and brought it home to live at Olana his castle on the Hudson The name was inspired by a reference Church found to a fortress or a treasury storehouse in ancient Persia This extraordinary selection of Church's paintings from his collection at Olana puts the most cherished of his treasures on full display in a volume that includes eighty color plates Church's paintings among the most acclaimed examples of art of the Hudson River School are found in museums and private collections around the globe However Church kept some of his art close by during his lifetime The rich collection that remains at Olana includes about seven hundred pieces including notebooks drawings and oils both sketches and completed canvases They cover the full range of Church's career chronologically and thematically The highlights from his personal collection are found in the touring exhibition that accompanies this book The introduction by John Wilmerding and a substantial essay by Kevin J Avery place the work into the context of Church's life and travels and examine Church's influences and the public reception of his art Throughout Treasures from Olana they discuss how profoundly Church's hilltop home and the surrounding landscape inspired and informed his work His paintings in turn illuminate Olana more than a century after his death The Olana Partnership Hudson N Y and New York State's Office of Parks Recreation and Historic Preservation Albany N Y organized Treasures from Olana Landscapes by Frederic Edwin Church Treasures from Olana Frederic Edwin Church, 2005 Fashioning the Canadian Landscape John Irvine Little, 2018-04-13 Interpretations of Canada's emerging identity have been largely based on a relatively small corpus of literary writing and landscape paintings overlooking the influence of the British and American travel writers who published hundreds of books and articles that did much to fix the image of Canada in the popular imagination In Fashioning the Canadian Landscape J I Little examines how Canada much like the United States came to be identified with its natural landscape Little argues that in contrast to the American identification with the wilderness sublime however Canada's image was strongly influenced by the picturesque convention favoured by British travel writers This amply illustrated volume includes chapters ranging from Labrador to British Columbia some of which focus on such notable British authors as Rupert Brooke and Rudyard Kipling and others on talented American writers such as Charles Dudley Warner Based not only on the views of the landscape but on the racist descriptions of the Indigenous peoples and the romanticization of the Canadian folk Little argues that the national image that emerged was colonialist as well as colonial in nature

Frederic Church's Olana as the Manifestation of a Changing Personal and Professional Identity Natalie Lynn Mann, 2010

The Story of a Forest Robert Kuhn McGregor, 2018-01-25 The re established forests of the Upper Delaware exist as a living reminder of centuries of both exploitation and good intentions Emerging after the last glaciation they were first modified by Native Americans to promote hunting and limited agriculture The forests began to disappear as Europeans clear cut farmland and fed sawmills and tanneries The advent of the railroad accelerated demand and within 30 years industry had consumed virtually every mature tree in the valley leaving barren hillsides subject to erosion and flooding Even as unchecked cutting continued conservation efforts began to save what little remained A century and a half later a forest for the 21st century has emerged an ecological patchwork protected by a web of governmental agencies yet still subject to danger from humans

Thomas Cole's Journey Elizabeth Mankin Kornhauser, Tim Barringer, 2018-01-29 Thomas Cole 1801 1848 is celebrated as the greatest American landscape artist of his generation Though previous scholarship has emphasized the American aspects of his formation and identity never before has the British born artist been presented as an international figure in direct dialogue with the major landscape painters of the age Thomas Cole's Journey emphasizes the artist's travels in England and Italy from 1829 to 1832 and his crucial interactions with such painters as Turner and Constable For the first time it explores the artist's most renowned paintings The Oxbow 1836 and The Course of Empire cycle 1834 36 as the culmination of his European experiences and of his abiding passion for the American wilderness The four essays in this lavishly illustrated catalogue examine how Cole's first hand knowledge of the British industrial revolution and his study of the Roman Empire positioned him to create works that offer a distinctive even dissident response to the economic and political rise of the United States the ecological and economic changes then underway and the dangers that faced the young nation A detailed chronology of Cole's life focusing on his European tour retraces the artist's travels as documented in his journals letters and sketchbooks providing new insight into his encounters and observations With discussions of over seventy works by Cole as well as by the artists he admired and influenced this book allows us to view his work in relation to his European antecedents and competitors demonstrating his major contribution to the history of Western art

The Journey of Frederic Edwin Church Through Colombia and Ecuador, April-October 1853 Pablo Navas Sanz de Santamaría,2008 Frederic Edwin Church 1826 1900 one of the most representative characters of the Hudson River school used to travel most part of the year to unknown territories with the intention of familiarizing with nature and take notes for his paintings Inspired by Humboldt the german humanist and scientist and his expeditions he started a journey that took him to diverse places in the world Among those places in 1853 he travelled the most exotic and remote places in Colombia and Ecuador This book is an innovative contribution about his journey and shows for the first time most of the sketches and drawings made along his trip that now are part of the Cooper Hewitt Museum in New York 50 American Artists You Should Know Debra Mancoff,2010-04 Profiles the careers of fifty American artists presented chronologically from colonial limners from the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries to Kara Walker born in 1969 and includes time lines and reproductions of their work New York ,2006-03 ARTnews ,2006 Framing America Frances Kathryn Pohl,2008 Abstract

Within the Landscape Phillip Earenfight,Nancy Siegel,2005 During the nineteenth century American artists writers and philosophers collaborated in the formation of a culture devoted to the country s natural splendors and the meanings these might harbor for its citizens Arguably the earliest and most influential of such pictorial and literary mergings took place in the Hudson River School the subject of the essays gathered in this volume from the Trout Gallery of Dickinson College The artists and writers discussed in this anthology range from Thomas Cole the founder of the Hudson River School to Stanford Gifford and Washington Irving After an introduction to American landscape the essays treat notions of divine presence in nature the spread of imagery through prints and the transformation of the Catskills into a resort and a refuge Offering innovative scholarship in accessible language Within the Landscape lends itself to use as a textbook in courses on nineteenth century American art and culture American Artist ,2005 American Book Publishing Record ,2006 Art Index Retrospective ,2006 Art Now Gallery Guide ,2006 Down East ,2006-08 Art in America Frank Jewett Mather,Frederic Fairchild Sherman,2005-08
