Security Companies during the Iraq War Scott Fitzsimmons, 2015-07-16 This book explores the use of deadly force by private security companies during the Iraq War The work focuses on and compares the activities of the US companies Blackwater and Dyncorp Despite sharing several important characteristics such as working for the same client the US State Department during the same time period the employees of Blackwater fired their weapons far more often and killed and seriously injured far more people in Iraq than their counterparts in DynCorp In order to explain this disparity the book undertakes the most comprehensive analysis ever attempted on the use of violence by the employees of these firms Based on extensive empirical research it offers a credible explanation for this difference Blackwater maintained a relatively bellicose military culture that placed strong emphasis on norms encouraging its personnel to exercise personal initiative proactive use of force and an exclusive approach to security which together motivated its personnel to use violence quite freely against anyone they suspected of posing a threat Specifically Blackwater's military culture motivated its personnel to fire upon suspected threats more quickly at greater distances and with a greater quantity of bullets and to more readily abandon the people they shot at when compared to DynCorp's personnel who maintained a military culture that encouraged far less violent behaviour. Utilizing the Private Security Company Violent Incident Dataset PSCVID created by the author in 2012, the book draws upon data on hundreds of violent incidents involving private security personnel in Iraq to identify trends in the behaviour exhibited by the employees of different firms. Based on this rich and original empirical data, the book provides the definitive study of contemporary private security personnel in the Iraq War. This book will be of much interest to students of the Iraq War, Private Security Companies, Military Studies, War and Conflict Studies, and IR in general. The Abrupt Physics of Dying Paul E. Hardisty, 2015-03-01 When he is hijacked by Islamic terrorists, an oil company engineer is forced to investigate a mysterious illness afflicting a small Yemen village with shocking results. A stunning debut thriller and first in the addictive eye-opening Claymore Straker series. Shortlisted for the CWA John Creasey New Blood Dagger Book of the Year in the TELEGRAPH. Just occasionally a book comes along to restore your faith in a genre, and Paul Hardisty's The Abrupt Physics of Dying does this in spades. The Times: A stormer of a thriller vividly written, utterly topical, totally gripping. Peter James: Remarkably well written and sophisticated. Literary Review: A page-turning adventure that grabs you from the first page and won't let go. Edward Wilson: _____ One man. An oil company. A decision that could cost his life. Claymore Straker is trying to forget a violent past. Working as an oil company engineer in the wilds of Yemen, he is hijacked at gunpoint by Islamic terrorists. Clay has a choice: help uncover the cause of a mysterious sickness afflicting the village of Al Urush, close to the company's oil processing facility, or watch Abdulkader, his driver and close friend, die. As the country descends into civil war and village children start dying, Clay finds himself caught up in a ruthless struggle between opposing armies, controllers of the country's oil wealth, Yemen's shadowy secret service, and rival terrorist factions. As Clay scrambles to keep his friend alive, he meets Rania, a troubled journalist. Together they try to uncover the truth about Al Urush. But nothing in this ancient, unforgiving place is as it seems. Accused of a murder he did not commit, put on the CIA's most wanted list, Clay must come to terms with his past and confront the powerful forces that want him dead. A stunning debut eco-thriller, The Abrupt Physics of Dying will not only open your eyes but keep them glued to the page until the final, stunning denouement is reached. _____ Trenchant and engaging. Stav Sherez, Catholic Herald. A solid, meaty thriller. Hardisty is a fine writer, and Straker is a great lead character. Lee Child: Full of thrills, spills, and moral indignation, an outstanding debut. Jake Kerridge, Telegraph. Fast-paced and cleverly written, this novel has bestseller written all over it. West Australian: An exceptional debut, beautifully written, blisteringly authentic, heartstoppingly tense, and unusually moving. Definite award material. Paul Johnston: A thriller of the highest quality with the potential to one day stand in the company of such luminaries as Bond and Bourne. Live Many Lives: A big, powerful, sophisticated, and page-turning thriller, thought-provoking and prescient. Eve Seymour: A forceful first novel by a writer not afraid of weighty issues and visibly in love with the beauty of the Yemen and desert landscapes. His protagonists travel through Maxim Jakubowski. Searing at times, achieves the level of genuine poetry.
