Utopia Or Oblivion The Prospects For Humanity:

Utopia or Oblivion R. Buckminster Fuller, 1963 Utopia or Oblivion is a provocative blueprint for the future This comprehensive volume is composed of essays derived from the lectures he gave all over the world during the 1960 s Fuller s thesis is that humanity for the first time in its history has the opportunity to create a world where the needs of 100% of humanity are met This is what man tends to call utopia It s a fairly small word but inadequate to describe the extraordinary new freedom of man in a new relationship to universe the alternative of which is oblivion R Buckminster Fuller Description by Lars Muller Publishers courtesy of The Estate of Buckminster Fuller Utopia Or Oblivion Richard Buckminster Fuller, 1972 The modern designer inventor proposes his ideas for creating a humanized technology Utopia or oblivion: the prospects for humanity, with an intro Richard Buckminster Fuller, New Views on R. Buckminster Fuller Hsiao-yun Chu, Roberto G. Trujillo, 2009 In this book leading scholars in architecture design history and communications discuss the work of R Buckminster Fuller in the context of the larger social and cultural patterns of the twentieth century Utopias Howard P. Segal, 2012-05-21 This brief history connects the past and present of utopian thought from the first utopias in ancient Greece right up to present day visions of cyberspace communities and paradise Explores the purpose of utopias what they reveal about the societies who conceive them and how utopias have changed over the centuries Unique in including both non Western and Western visions of utopia Explores the many forms utopias have taken prophecies and oratory writings political movements world s fairs physical communities and also discusses high tech and cyberspace visions for the first time The first book to analyze the implicitly utopian dimensions of reform crusades like Technocracy of the 1930s and Modernization Theory of the 1950s and the laptop classroom initiatives of recent years Questioning Technology with Jacques Ellul David W. Gill, Lisa Richmond, 2025-10-07 Twenty first century technology is an ever expanding powerful force in virtually every aspect of human life and every corner of the globe So much of modern technology has resulted in positive improvements in communication work health and other domains Technology s promises and possibilities for the future are often glowing But it is one thing for technology to function as a tool serving human purpose and flourishing and quite another for it to be granted the position of unquestioned master All technologies deserve to be questioned What are their costs trade offs and potential or real negative impact And how do we create limits and controls for technological invasion when these would be wise and necessary Questioning Technology with Jacques Ellul addresses these questions in both the big picture and in their relevance to specific arenas such as art politics work and religion with voices from not just the academy but also the workplace and society The Top 50 Sustainability Books Wayne Visser, 2017-09-08 This unique title draws together in one volume some of the best thinking to date on the pressing social and environmental challenges we face as a society These are the Top 50 Sustainability Books as voted for by the University of Cambridge Programme for Sustainability Leadership s alumni network of over 3 000 senior leaders from around the world In addition to profiles of all 50 titles many of the authors share their most recent reflections on the state of the world and the ongoing attempts by business government and civil society to create a more sustainable future Many of these authors have become household names in the environmental social and economic justice movements from Rachel Carson Ralph Nader and E F Schumacher to Vandana Shiva Muhammad Yunus and Al Gore Others such as Aldo Leopold Thomas Berry and Manfred Max Neef are relatively undiscovered gems whose work should be much more widely known By featuring these and other seminal thinkers The Top 50 Sustainability Books distils a remarkable collective intelligence one that provides devastating evidence of the problems we face as a global society yet also inspiring examples of innovative solutions it explores our deepest fears and our highest hopes for the future It is a must read for anyone who wants to tap into the wisdom of our age Food City CJ Lim, 2014-04-16 In Food City a companion piece to Smartcities and Eco Warriors innovative architect and urban designer CJ Lim explores the issue of urban transformation and how the creation storage and distribution of food has been and can again become a construct for the practice of everyday life Food City investigates the reinstatement of food at the core of national and local governance how it can be a driver to restructure employment education transport tax health culture communities and the justice system re evaluating how the city functions as a spatial and political entity Global in scope Food City first addresses the frameworks of over 25 international cities through the medium of food and how the city is governed It then provides a case study through drawings models and text exploring how a secondary infrastructure could function as a living environmental and food system operating as a sustainable stratum over the city of London This case study raises serious questions about the priorities of our governing bodies using architectural relationships to reframe the spaces of food consumption and production analyzed through historical precedent function and form This study of the integration of food architecture and the development of future cities will both inspire and stimulate professionals and students in the fields of urban design and architecture HISTORY & MATHEMATICS Leonid Grinin, Andrey Korotayev, The present Yearbook which is the eighth in the series is subtitled Investigating Past and Future It is devoted to three problems the analysis of the aspects of past and present in the light of formal methods singularity i e forthcoming abrupt shift in development the approach or even presence of which we already feel the aspects of the cosmic future of human race This issue consists of four sections I History Technologies Politics and Mathematics includes five articles on different directions of factual or theoretical content history technology politics and studies covering past present and future II Singularity includes two contributions and is devoted to a rather interesting phenomenon of singularity They suggest that indeed the hyperbolic planetary evolutionary trend observed since the origins of life on the Earth cannot continue beyond the forthcoming singularity whereas the post singular evolutionary trend should be qualitatively different from what has been observed before III Beyond the Earth also consists of two very different articles but they are united by their interest in the future of human race in terms of their interaction with the space IV Reviews and Notes We hope that this issue will be interesting and useful

both for historians and mathematicians as well as for all those dealing with various social and natural sciences

Encyclopedia of the Environment in American Literature Geoff Hamilton, Brian Jones, 2014-01-10 This encyclopedia introduces readers to American poetry fiction and nonfiction with a focus on the environment broadly defined as humanity's natural surroundings from the discovery of America through the present The work includes biographical and literary entries on material from early explorers and colonists such as Columbus Bartolome de Las Casas and Thomas Harriot Native American creation myths canonical 18th and 19th century works of Jefferson Emerson Thoreau Whitman Hawthorne Twain Dickinson and others to more recent figures such as Jack London Ernest Hemingway Norman Mailer Stanley Cavell Rachel Carson Jon Krakauer and Al Gore It is meant to provide a synoptic appreciation of how the very concept of the environment has changed over the past five centuries offering both a general introduction to the topic and a valuable resource for high school and university courses focused on environmental issues
