Utopian Landscapes Asia Through The Looking Glass:

Utopian Landscapes Blair Bourassa, 2011-04-08 Utopian Landscapes Asia through the Looking Glass is Blair Bourassa's intriguing first volume of the Roadwork series dealing with his travels in Burma India Vietnam Cambodia Laos Indonesia Singapore Nepal and Tibet Highlights of the writing include an interview with the last king of Burma a meeting with the world leader of the Hare Krishna movement an encounter with a man who sold his own children to finance his travels a fight with motorcycle thieves and a visit to Tibet on the surreal fortieth anniversary gala celebration of its liberation by China The author lived in Asia for five years and can speak and read several of the local languages The accounts of his travels are supplemented with well researched discussion about the culture history and eccentricities of each country he visits including appendices on Buddhist and Hindu iconography the Burmese struggle against totalitarianism and the idea of Tibetan independence Similar in style to the Asian travel classics The Great Railway Bazaar and Video Night in Kathmandu this book would appeal to anyone planning a tour of Asia who is interested in learning about the political and historical facts while still being entertained by an engaging travelogue narrative

Imaging Migration in Post-War Britain Beccy Kennedy-Schtyk, 2022-04-21 This book examines the artistic practices of a range of British based artists of East Asian Chinese Japanese Korean and Taiwanese heritage to consider the social political and cultural effects of migration or diaspora on their creative production Beccy Kennedy Schtyk demonstrates three themes the multiplicity and expansive contemporaneity of these artists visual oeuvres the physical impact or interpretation of migratory circumstances on their artistic practices and the necessity to continue to evolve ways of thinking about migration race and border crossings in the current political climate of the 21st century The book will be of interest to scholars studying art history Asian studies British studies migration and diaspora studies and cultural studies

Of Peninsulas and Archipelagos Phrae Chittiphalangsri, Vicente L. Rafael, 2023-07-18 Comprising 11 countries and hundreds of languages from one of the most culturally diverse regions in the world the chapters in this collection explore a wide range of translation issues The subject of this volume is set in the contrasted landscapes of mainland peninsulas and maritime archipelagos in Southeast Asia which whilst remaining a largely minor area in Asian studies harbors a wealth of textual heritage that opens to inquiries and new readings From the post Angkor Cambodia the post colonial Vientiane to the ultra modern Singapore metropolis translation figures problematically in the modernization of indigenous literatures criss crossing chronologically and spatially through different literary landscapes The peninsular geobody gives rise to the politics of singularity as seen in the case of the predominant monolingual culture in Thailand whereas the archipelagic geography such as the thousand islands of Indonesia allows for peculiar types of communication Translation can also be metaphorized poetically to configure the transference in different scenarios such as the cases of self translation in Philippine protest poetry and untranslatability in Vietnamese diasporic writings The collection also includes intra regional comparative views on historical and religious terms This book will appeal to scholars and postgraduate students of translation studies sociolinguistics and Southeast Asian studies Utopia and the Village in South Asian Literatures A. Mohan,2012-07-24 Shifting the postcolonial focus away from the city and towards the village this book examines the rural as a trope in twentieth century South Asian literatures to propose a new literary history based on notions of utopia dystopia and heterotopia and how these ideas have circulated in the literary and the cultural imaginaries of the subcontinent

Rethinking Global Urbanism Xiangming Chen,Ahmed Kanna,2012 Arguing that the focus in global urban studies on cities such as New York London Tokyo in the global North Mexico City and Shanghai in the developing world and other major nodes of the world economy has skewed the concept of the global city toward economics this volume gathers a diverse group of contributors to focus on smaller and less economically dominant cities It highlights other important and relatively ignored themes such as cultural globalization alternative geographies of the global and the influence of deeper urban histories particularly those relating to colonialism in order to advance an alternative view of the global city Gender, Place, and Identity of South Asian Women Pourya Asl, Moussa,2022-04-08 In the past century South Asia underwent fundamental cultural social and political changes as many countries progressed from colonial dominations through nationalist movements to independence These transformations have been intricately bound up with the spatiality of social life in the region drawing further attention to the significance of social spaces within transformative politics and identity formations Gender Place and Identity of South Asian Women studies contemporary literature of South Asian women with a focus on gender place and identity It contributes to the debate on gender identity and equality spatial and social justice women empowerment marginalization and anti discrimination measures Covering topics such as partition memory narrative spatial mobility and diasporic women s lives this book is an essential resource for students and educators of higher education researchers activists government officials business leaders academicians feminist organizations sociologists and researchers A Place for Utopia Smriti Srinivas,2015-11-02 Exploring several utopian imaginaries and practices A Place for Utopia ties different times together from the early twentieth century to the present the biographical and the anthropological the cultural and the conjunctural South Asia Europe and North America It charts the valency of utopia for understanding designs for alternative occluded vernacular or emergent urbanisms in the last hundred years Central to the designs for utopia in this book are the themes of gardens children spiritual topographies death and hope From the vitalist urban plans of the Scottish polymath Patrick Geddes in India to the Theosophical Society in Madras and the ways in which it provided a context for a novel South Indian garden design from the visual textual and ritual designs of Californian Vedanta from the 1930s to the present to the spatial transformations associated with post 1990s highways and rapid transit systems in Bangalore that are shaping an emerging Indian New Age of religious and somatic self styling Srinivas tells the story of contrapuntal histories the contiguity of lives and resonances between utopian worlds that are generative of designs for cultural alternatives and futures
