From 'Mission-Shaped' to 'Jesus-Shaped' Church Susan Beverley Cross, 2025-03-10 Hospitality is often invoked without question in Church of England discourse but the importance of the practice to contemporary mission has not been subject to detailed analysis This book provides otherwise elusive in depth theological examination of the scope of Christian understandings of hospitality From feasting in the Hebrew Scriptures and foot washing in the New Testament to online Communion during the COVID 19 pandemic hospitality is more than welcome or the evangelistic hospitality of the Alpha Course or Messy Church So this book encompasses racism ageing poverty tragedy storytelling minds bodies and belonging as well as the implications of allying food to Christian formation It shows that Christian hospitality has relevance not only to mission but also to ecclesiology eschatology disability theology and social and ecological justice Stories on Skin Terry Baxter, Libby Coyner-Tsosie, 2025-01-23 Helping expand archival studies into impermanent media like body art this book suggests that archiving must be considered a form of storytelling Tattoos are not merely decorative they contain deep meaning for individuals and communities They document their wearers personal histories and position in families or society and they engage with a communal understanding of symbols This unique book makes the case that archivists who want to preserve as full a human story as possible must recognize the rich documentation provided by tattoos It also argues in a broader sense that traditional archives are not representative of the ways human beings transmit information through time and that they must be augmented by other types of storytelling to provide a more complete record of our species Authors Baxter and Coyner touch on timely topics such as historical narratives storytelling cultural traditions the body as a text social control and memorialization by considering tattoos as a personal and community archive Discussing tattoos as a storytelling tool the authors also challenge how history is kept and who gets included Stories on Skin is committed to the rights of communities to tell their stories in their own way and to the power that right brings Fertile Visions Anne Carruthers, 2021-07-15 Fertile Visions conceptualises the uterus as a narrative space so that the female reproductive body can be understood beyond the constraints of a gendered analysis Unravelling pregnancy from notions of maternity and mothering demands that we think differently about narratives of reproduction This is crucial in the current global political climate wherein the gender specificity of pregnancy contributes to how bodies that reproduce are marginalised controlled and criminalised Anne Carruthers demonstrates fascinating and insightful close analyses of films such as Juno Birth Ixcanul and Arrival as examples of the uterus as a narrative space Fertile Visions engages with research on the foetal ultrasound scan as well as phenomenologies affect and spectatorship in film studies to offer a new way to look think and analyse pregnancy and the pregnant body in cinema from the Americas Revolting Subjects Doctor Imogen Tyler, 2013-04-11 Revolting Subjects is a groundbreaking account of social abjection in contemporary Britain exploring how particular groups of people are figured as revolting and how they in turn revolt against their abject subjectification The book utilizes a number of high profile and in depth case studies including chavs asylum seekers Gypsies and Travellers and the 2011 London riots to examine the ways in which individuals negotiate restrictive neoliberal ideologies of selfhood In doing so Tyler argues for a deeper psychosocial understanding of the role of representational forms in producing marginality social exclusion and injustice whilst also detailing how stigmatization and scapegoating are resisted through a variety of aesthetic and political strategies Imaginative and original Revolting Subjects introduces a range of new insights into neoliberal societies and will be essential reading for those concerned about widening inequalities growing social unrest and social justice in the wider global context

Self-Harm Behavior and Eating Disorders John L. Levitt, Ph.D., Randy A. Sansone, M.D., Leigh Cohn, M.A.T., 2005-07-05 The number of eating disorders patients presenting with symptoms of self harm is growing quickly and yet there is surprisingly little known about this unique population Self Harm Behavior and Eating Disorders explores the prevalent but largely uncharted relationship between self injury behaviors and eating disorders symptoms In the first major book to focus on this area a renowned group of international scholars and practitioners addresses the subject from a variety of theoretical and practical perspectives The book is categorized into sections covering epidemiology psychodynamics assessment and a final section covering potential treatment options including dialectical behavioral therapy cognitive therapy interventions strategies group therapy and pharmacological approaches This unrivaled collection of case studies theoretical exploration and practical application forms a benchmark for the field and offers a stepping stone for new research and innovative treatment strategies In an area with little available information previously spread out among diffuse sources this volume represents the state of the field resource for anyone working with complex eating disorders patients
