

Dear Georgia,

I am very happy to have you in my class this year. I bet you are excited about school.

I think you are really going to enjoy this year. We will be learning many new things and you will be making many new friends.

Please talk to me if you have something to share, if you don't understand something, or if you are ever upset. I think you'll find I'm a good listener.

School starts at 8:30 on Wednesday, August 21st. Our room number is 209. We have gym the first day, so wear your tennis shoes! See you in school!

Your teacher,
Mrs. Kotzin

It includes new information about therapeutic interventions, managing co-morbidities, and getting support for children with developmental differences at school. Additional information covers community resources, initiatives at hospitals, clinics, and even theme parks that make life easier for children with developmental differences and their families. The authors also offer a stronger focus on self-care for parents in this new edition with the pediatrician's perspective of supporting families as they go through the diagnostic process over time.
