This Is Not Architecture Media Constructions:

This is Not Architecture Kester Rattenbury, 2002 Book Review This is Not Architecture Kester Rattenbury, 2005-08-04 This is Not Architecture assembles architectural writers of different kinds historians theorists journalists computer game designers technologists film makers and architects to discuss the characteristics cultures limitations and bias of the different kinds of media and to build up an argument as to how this complex culture of representations is constructed Camera Constructs Mr Andrew Higgott, Mr Timothy Wray, 2014-09-28 Camera Constructs reflects critically on the varied interactions of the different practices by which photographers artists architects theorists and historians engage with the relationship of the camera to architecture the city and the evolution of Modernism Including twenty three essays by a wide range of historians and theorists this book provides a rich and highly original analysis of the relationship of photography to built form from the early modern period to the present day The Architectural Models of Theodore Conrad Teresa Fankhänel, 2021-06-17 Based on the recent discovery of his fully preserved private archive models photos letters business files and drawings this book tells the story of Theodore Conrad 1910 1994 the most prominent and prolific architectural model maker of the 20th century Conrad s innovative models were instrumental in the design and realization of many icons of American Modernism from the Rockefeller Center to Lever House and the Seagram Building He revolutionized the production of architectural models and became a model making entrepreneur in his own right Yet despite his success and the well known buildings he helped to create until now little has been known about Conrad s work and his impact on 20th century architectural history With exclusive access to Conrad s archive as well as that of model photographer Louis Checkman both of which have lain undiscovered in private storage for decades this book examines Conrad s work and legacy accompanied by case studies of his major commissions and full color photographs of his works Set against the backdrop of the surge in model making in the 1950s and 1960s which Jane Jacobs called The Miniature Boom it explores how Conrad s models prompt broader scholarly questions about the nature of authorship in architecture the importance of craftsmanship and about the translation of architectural ideas between different media The book ultimately presents an alternative history of American modern architecture highlighting the often overlooked influence of architectural models and their makers Participatory Culture and the Social Value of an Architectural Icon: Sydney Opera House Cristina Garduno Freeman, 2017-09-22 This book develops new and innovative methods for understanding the cultural significance of places such as the World Heritage listed Sydney Opera House By connecting participatory media visual culture and social value Cristina Garduno Freeman contributes to a fast growing body of scholarship on digital heritage and the popular reception of architecture In this her first book she opens up a fresh perspective on heritage as well as the ways in which people relate to architecture via participation on social media Social media sites such as YouTube Pinterest Wikipedia Facebook and Flickr as well as others become places for people to express their connections with places for example the

Sydney Opera House Gardu o Freeman analyses real world examples from souvenirs to opera house shaped cakes and untangles the tangible and intangible ways in which the significance of heritage is created disseminated and maintained As people s encounters with World Heritage become increasingly mediated by the digital sphere there is a growing imperative for academics professionals and policy makers to understand the social value of significant places This book is beneficial to academics students and professionals of architecture
