Voices of Revolution Rodger Streitmatter, 2001-08-20 Streitmatter tells the stories of dissident American publications and press movements of the last two centuries and of the colorful individuals behind them From publications that fought for the disenfranchised to those that promoted social reform Voices of Revolution examines the abolitionist and labor press black power publications of the 1960s the crusade against the barbarism of lynching the women s movement and antiwar journals Streitmatter also discusses gay and lesbian publications contemporary on line journals and counterculture papers like The Kudzu and The Berkeley Barb that flourished in the 1960s Voices of Revolution also identifies and discusses some of the distinctive characteristics shared by the genres of the dissident press that rose to prominence from the early nineteenth century to the late twentieth century For far too long mainstream journalists and even some media scholars have viewed radical leftist or progressive periodicals in America as rags edited by crackpots However many of these dissident presses have shaped the way Americans think about social and political issues

Deinstitutionalisation and After Despo Kritsotaki, Vicky Long, Matthew Smith, 2016-11-29 The book relates the history of post war psychiatry focusing on deinstitutionalisation namely the shift from asylum to community in the second part of the twentieth century After the Second World War psychiatry and mental health care were reshaped by deinstitutionalisation But what exactly was involved in this process What were the origins of deinstitutionalisation and what did it mean to those who experienced it What were the ramifications both positive and negative of such a fundamental shift in psychiatric care Post War Psychiatry in the Western World Deinstitutionalisation and After seeks to answer these questions by exploring this momentous change in mental health care from 1945 to the present in a wide range of geographical settings The book articulates a nuanced account of the history of deinstitutionalisation highlighting the constraints and inconsistencies inherent in treating the mentally ill outside of the asylum while seeking to inform current debates about how to help the most vulnerable members of society Jack Nichols, Gay Pioneer J.
