British Literature in Transition, 1900-1920: A New Age? James Purdon,2021-12-02 During the first two decades of the twentieth century Britain s imperial power and influence was at its height These were years of daring when adventurers sounded the mysteries of the deep sea and the distant poles aviators sped through the skies and new media technologies transformed communication They were years of social upheaval during which long suppressed voices particularly those of women of the labouring classes and of colonial subjects grew louder and demanded to be heard They were years of violence of insurrection and political agitation and of imperial conflicts that would encompass continents By subjecting specific developments in literature and related culture to a fine grained and historically informed analysis British Literature in Transition 1900 1920 A New Age explores the writing of this extraordinary period in all its complexity and vibrancy

The Chemical Weapons Taboo Richard M. Price,2018-09-05 Richard M Price asks why among all the ominous technologies of weaponry throughout the history of warfare chemical weapons carry a special moral stigma Something more seems to be at work than the predictable resistance people have expressed to any new weaponry from the crossbow to nuclear bombs Perceptions of chemical warfare as particularly abhorrent have been successfully institutionalized in international proscriptions and Price suggests understanding the sources of this success might shed light on other efforts at arms control To explore the origins and meaning of the chemical weapons taboo Price presents a series of case studies from World War I through the Gulf War of 1990 1991 He traces the moral arguments against gas warfare from the Hague Conferences at the turn of the century through negotiations for the Chemical Weapons Convention of 1993 From the Italian invasion of Ethiopia to the war between Iran and Iraq chemical weapons have been condemned as the poor man's bomb Drawing upon insights from Michel Foucault to explain the role of moral norms in an international arena rarely sensitive to such pressures he focuses on the construction of and mutations in the refusal to condone chemical weapons
