A Faith Embracing All Creatures Tripp York, Andy Alexis-Baker, 2012-11-09 What is the purpose of animals Didn't God give humans dominion over other creatures Didn't Jesus eat lamb These are the kinds of questions that Christians who advocate compassion toward other animals regularly face Yet Christians who have a faith based commitment to care for other animals through what they eat what they wear and how they live with other creatures are often unsure how to address these biblically and theologically based challenges In A Faith Embracing All Creatures authors from various denominational national ethnic and cultural backgrounds wrestle with the text theology and tradition to explain the roots of their desire to live peaceably with their nonhuman kin Together they show that there are no easy answers on what the Bible says about animals Instead there are nuances and complexities which even those asking these questions may be unaware of Editors Andy Alexis Baker and Tripp York have gathered a collection of essays that wrestle with these nuances and tensions in Scripture around nonhuman animals In so doing they expand the discussion of nonviolence peacemaking and reconciliation to include the oft forgotten other members of God's good creation
