Reflective Teaching ,2004 Educational Yearning Thomas Oldenski,Dennis Carlson,2002 What room is there for a language of spirituality and the spirit in democratic forms of education This is the question posed in this collection of essays by a broad range of scholars working in education Beginning with the premise that postmodernism is associated with a re spiritualization of culture the authors seek to explore ways in which this re spiritualization can be pushed in democratic rather than rightist or fundamentalist directions What they celebrate is diversity of progressive traditions and discourses of spirituality that educators and other cultural workers can draw upon to inform practice even as they trouble all essentialistic notions of spirituality Together these essays move democratic education onto a fundamentally new cultural terrain and they suggest that the metaphor of the journey of the spirit is one of the most enduring and potentially democratic ways of thinking about what it means to teach and to become educated Religion in Dialogue with Late Modern Society Ann Aldén,2006 This book is a constructive contribution to a Christian spirituality for the late modern religiously plural society Based on a description of contemporary religion in which the author refers to modern sociologists some general and some specifically involved with religion this study outlines certain recent characteristics of our contemporary way of relating to religion and formulates a spirituality for the late modern religiously plural society It detects such spirituality arising within three dynamic fields continuity and internal diversity formal and informal structures and vita activa and vita contemplativa Against this background the author presents and analyses a case study of Aloysius Pieris a Christian theologian active in Buddhist Sri Lanka and of Thich Nhat Hanh a Buddhist monk active in Christian France Based on identified presuppositions and in dialogue with these two personalities the book proceeds towards a construction which contains some basic indicators of a Christian spirituality for the late modern religiously plural society The concepts community baptism and grace and concern are central to the construction
