The East Asian Challenge for Democracy Daniel A. Bell, Chenyang Li, 2013-08-12

The rise of China along with problems of governance in democratic countries has reinvigorated the theory of political meritocracy. But what is the theory of political meritocracy and how can it set standards for evaluating political progress and regress? To help answer these questions this volume gathers a series of commissioned research papers from an interdisciplinary group of leading philosophers historians and social scientists. The result is the first book in decades to examine the rise or revival of political meritocracy and what it will mean for political developments in China and the rest of the world. Despite its limitations meritocracy has contributed much to human flourishing in East Asia and beyond and will continue to do so in the future. This book is essential reading for those who wish to further the debate and perhaps even help to implement desirable forms of political change.

Institutional Islamic Economics and Finance Ahsan Shafiq, 2022-03-30

Institutional economics claims that institutions and policies rather than the size of labour force technology or capital investment are pivotal for growth or under development. In this regard there are two kinds of institutions external institutions expressed in the form of laws organisations regulations companies banks and the like and internal institutions which are found in the hearts and consciences of individuals. Against this backdrop this book acquaints readers with the basic concepts related to institutional economics. It then brings to light the theoretical concepts related to the institutional perspectives on Islamic economics particularly highlighting areas where Islamic economic institutions lay at the crossroads with conventional ones. The book also reflects upon the organisational arrangements that comply with the basic tenets of Islamic institutional economics. Further it brings a collection of real world case studies into discussion to show the models of Islamic institutions that are pragmatic in today's business environment. The book contains novel dimensions on the subject includes conceptual debates as well as practical examples and explores hot topics such as waqf and fintech from an Islamic perspective. This is the first book to exclusively cover this topic and is written by well known and respected international economists from the field. Since the book is written in an accessible style and the concepts are expressed in plain language it will find an audience among academics researchers and students in economics and Islamic economic studies as well as policymakers and professionals engaged in the Islamic finance industry seeking to make their services and products conform to an Islamic institutional perspective Governance and Social Responsibility Güler Aras,David Crowther,2017-09-16 Recent corporate failures have attracted the attention of managers governments and the general public to the role of governance and social responsibility Ranging from managerial behaviour and reward systems to environmental protection and human rights governance and social responsibility encompasses a variety of thought provoking business issues In Governance and Social Responsibility Aras and Crowther bring together the considerable debates about what exactly it is and how it can be applied to business Key Features Written by leading governance and social responsibility experts International coverage and orientation Comprehensive coverage of CSR issues and debates Excellent pedagogy including case studies reflective questions and further reading Firmly grounded in academic research Governance and Social Responsibility is an ideal companion for CSR courses at all levels The Role of Corporate Sustainability in Asian Development Gilbert Lenssen,Jay Hyuk Rhee,Fabien Martinez,2017-05-11 This book examines the challenges faced by seven multinational companies Intel Lenovo Samsung Electronics ZTE BMW Hyundai Motor Company Mahindra and Mahindra in their endeavour to contribute to the economic environmental and social development of Asia The lessons learned from the examination of these business practices may directly contribute to an increase in the practice of sustainable management and may as such contribute to positive economic environmental and social impact of companies in this region The cases are highly relevant for management theoreticians seeking to deepen our understanding of corporate sustainability in an area where scholars practitioners and policy makers can expect new questions problems and challenges in the years ahead The book is also of high interest to policy review agencies policy makers and welfare economists seeking to support the development of a comprehensive sustainability framework for managing social and environmental issues in the context of Asia Walking the Talk? Rob van Tulder,Birgitte Grøgaard,Randi Lunnan,2024-05-16 Politicians and businesses alike agree that something must be done about the environment the question is what how when and by whom We ask are we actually walking the talk

Asian Ethical Urbanism: A Radical Postmodern Perspective William Siew Wai Lim,2005-07-15 With the impending demise of modernist planning the footprints and corpses of failed modernist visions are littered everywhere A vacuum of implementable urban theories has occurred at the time when unprecedented expansion and restructuring of cities in rapidly developing economies are taking place In this collection of essays William S W Lim zeroes in on the peculiarities and dynamics of present Asian urban and architectural conditions in order to challenge and transcend the socio ecological forms and political influences generated by the current system of global capitalism Part I of this book consists of the main essay which attempts to establish baselines for an effective formulation of ethical urbanism in Asia by clarifying issues that have previously been unquestioningly bound up with Western values and discourses As an architect urbanist Lim lends a determinedly spatialist and environmental perspective to issues such as rights ethics happiness and social justice while compelling his readers to rethink previously established notions about them Part II of this book consists of three city studies on Hanoi Shanghai and Singapore completed in the last two years which attempt to match Lim s theoretical formulation with actual conditions occurring in Asia today Also included is Asian Architecture in the New Millennium a fascinating discourse on contemporary design conducted from a postmodern perspective
