Think Care Act Teaching For A Peaceful Future Peace Education:

Think, Care, Act Susan Gelber Cannon, 2011-12-01 Committed to teaching for peace and justice the author brings to life a teaching approach that empowers youth to think critically and creatively about historical current and future issues to care about classmates and neighbors as well as the global community to act locally and globally for the greater good Think Care Act Teaching for a Peaceful Future is readable practical conversational and intimate It will inspire readers to build a just and peaceful world Think Care Act depicts the daily successes and struggles a peace educator undergoes in encouraging students to envision peace and gain tools to build a culture of peace The author uses three imperatives think care act to infuse required curricula with peace character and multicultural concepts in daily activities throughout the year Chapters address critical and creative thinking media and political literacy compassionate classroom and school climate explorations of racism gender issues civil discourse global citizenship war and peace and school community and global social action projects Chapters include rationales lesson expectations and classroom play by play Students feedback about the impact of lessons is also featured With its combination of theory and practice Think Care Act is unique It will motivate teachers education students and scholars to employ think care act frameworks to empower students to build a peaceful future Peace Education from the Grassroots Ian Harris, 2013-09-01

Historians often ignore the day to day struggles of ordinary people to improve their lives They tend to focus on the accomplishments of illustrious leaders Peace Education from the Grassroots tells the stories of concerned citizens teachers and grassroots peace activists who have struggled to counteract high levels of violence by teaching about the sources for violence and strategies for peace The stories told here come from the grass roots meaning the educators are close to the forms of violence they are addressing This collection of essays tells how citizens at the grassroots level developed peace education initiatives in thirteen different nations Belgium Canada El Salvador Germany India Jamaica Japan Mexico the Philippines South Korea Spain Uganda and the United States A fourteenth article describes the efforts of the International Red Cross to implement a human rights curriculum to teachers on the ground in the Balkans Iran Senegal and the United States These chapters describe a variety of schools colleges peace movement organizations community based organizations and international nongovernmental organizations engaged in peace education Peace Education, 3d ed. Ian M. Harris, Mary Lee Morrison, 2012-12-13

Now in its third edition Peace Education provides a comprehensive approach to educating for a just and sustainable future It begins with religious and historical trends that have molded our understanding of peace and then presents a variety of ways to practice peace education in schools and communities and explains how it can motivate students The teaching and practice of peace education provides a basis of valuable knowledge about resolving conflicts and transforming violence without the use of force Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Peace Education Monisha Bajaj, Maria
