Thinking With Cases Specialist Knowledge In Chinese Cultural History:

Thinking with Cases Charlotte Furth, Judith T. Zeitlin, Ping-chen Hsiung, 2007-02-28 Case studies fascinate because they link individual instances to general patterns and knowledge to action without denying the priority of individual situations over the generalizations derived from them In this volume an international group of senior scholars comes together to consider the use of cases to produce empirical knowledge in premodern China They trace the process by which the project of thinking with cases acquired a systematic and public character in the ninth century CE and after Premodern Chinese experts on medicine and law circulated printed case collections to demonstrate efficacy or claim validity for their judgments They were joined by authors of religious and philosophical texts The rhetorical strategies and forms of argument used by all of these writers were allied with historical narratives exemplary biographies and case examples composed as aids to imperial statecraft The innovative and productive explorations gathered here present a coherent set of interlocking arguments that will be of interest to comparativists as well as specialists on premodern East Asia For China scholars they examine the interaction of different fields of learning in the late imperial period the relationship of evidential reasoning and literary forms and the philosophical frameworks that linked knowledge to experience and action For comparativists the essays bring China into a global conversation about the methodologies of the human sciences Contributors Chu Honglam Charlotte Furth Hsiung Ping chen Jiang Yonglin Yasuhiko Karasawa Robert Sharf Pierre tienne Will WuYanhong Judith T Zeitlin Antiquarianism, Language, and Medical Philology, 2015-01-27 Based on several research seminars the authors in this volume provide fresh perspectives of the intellectual and cultural history of East Asian medicine 1550 1800 They use new sources make new connections and re examine old assumptions thereby interrogating whether and why European medical modernity is an appropriate standard for delineating the modern fate of East Asia s medical classics The unique importance of early modern Europe in the history of modern medicine should not be used to gloss over the equally unique and thus different developments in East Asia Each paper offers an important contribution to understanding the dynamics of East Asian medicine namely the relationship between medical texts medical practice and practitioner identity Furthermore the essays in this volume are especially valuable for directing our attention to the movement of medical texts between different polities and cultures of early modern East Asia especially China and Japan Of particular interest are the interactions similarities and differences between medical thinkers across East Asia Contributors include Susan Burns Benjamin A Elman Asaf Goldschmidt Angela KC Leung Federico Marcon MAYANAGI Makoto Fabien Simonis Daniel Trambaiolo and Mathias Vigouroux TCM Case Studies: Dermatology Ying Huang, William Morris, Peng Wan, 2014-12-24 This textbook stresses the combination of theoretical analysis and clinical practice It provides detailed discussion focused upon pulses etiologies patterns therapies formulas and medicinals for 40 different skin diseases These are real cases treated at the Dermatology Department of Teaching Hospital of Chengdu University of TCM The compiling style employs a careful and detailed analysis brief and to the point picture accompanied with essay lively and specific description reality and credibility Each case has attached Key Points for Clinic and Study Questions to enlighten reader s thoughts and improve guiding significance and reference value of this book On the basis of highlighting the features of TCM dermatology this book particularly emphasizes the spirit of innovation Besides the ancient prescriptions more experiential formulas from authors are selected due to their complete compatibility under precise guidance of principles with significant therapeutic effects In addition this book is also featured by treating internal diseases by external therapies to improve clinical outcomes with TCM external therapy

A Historical Approach to Casuistry Carlo Ginzburg, Lucio

Biasiori,2018-12-27 Casuistry the practice of resolving moral problems by applying a logical framework has had a much larger historical presence before and since it was given a name in the Renaissance The contributors to this volume examine a series of case studies to explain how different cultures and religions past and present have wrestled with morality s exceptions and margins and the norms with which they break For example to what extent have the Islamic and Judaic traditions allowed smoking tobacco or gambling How did the Spanish colonization of America generate formal justifications for what it claimed Where were the lines of transgression around food money lending and sex in Ancient Greece and Rome How have different systems dealt with suicide Casuistry lives at the heart of such questions in the tension between norms and exceptions between what seems forbidden but is not A Historical Approach to Casuistry does not only examine this tension but re frames casuistry as a global phenomenon that has informed ethical and religious traditions for millennia and that continues to influence our lives today The Spatiality of Emotion in Early Modern China Ling Hon Lam,2018-05-15 Emotion takes place Rather than an interior state of mind in response to the outside world emotion per se is spatial at turns embedding us from without transporting us somewhere else or putting us ahead of ourselves In this book Ling Hon Lam gives a deeply original account of the history of emotions in Chinese literature and culture centered on the idea of emotion as space which the Chinese call emotion realm qingjing Lam traces how the emotion realm underwent significant transformations from the dreamscape to theatricality in sixteenth to eighteenth century China Whereas medieval dreamscapes delivered the subject into one illusory mood after another early modern theatricality turned the dreamer into a spectator who is no longer falling through endless oneiric layers but pausing in front of the dream Through the lens of this genealogy of emotion realms Lam remaps the Chinese histories of morals theater and knowledge production which converge at the emergence of sympathy redefined as the dissonance among the dimensions of the emotion realm pertaining to theatricality The book challenges the conventional reading of Chinese literature as premised on interior subjectivity examines historical changes in the spatial logic of performance through media and theater archaeologies and ultimately uncovers the different trajectories that brought China and the West to the convergence point of theatricality marked by self deception and mutual misreading A major rethinking of key terms in Chinese culture from a comparative perspective The Spatiality of Emotion in Early Modern China develops a new critical vocabulary to conceptualize history and existence Living Translation Sonya Pritzker,2014-06-01 Integrating theoretical perspectives with carefully grounded ethnographic analyses of everyday interaction and experience Living Translation examines the worlds of international translators as well as U S teachers and students of Chinese medicine focusing on the transformations that occur as participants engage in a search for resonance with foreign terms and concepts Based on a close examination of heated international debates as well as specific texts classroom discussions and interviews with publishers authors teachers and students Sonya Pritzker demonstrates the living translation of Chinese medicine as a process unfolding through interaction inscription embodied experience and clinical practice By documenting the stream of conversations that together constitute this process the book thus traces the translation of Chinese medicine from text to practice with an eye towards the social political historical moral and even personal dimensions involved in the transnational production of knowledge about health illness and the body Journal of Asian History ,2007 Journal of Sung-Yuan Studies ,1992 The Chinese Historical Review ,2006 〇〇〇〇 ,2005 A quarterly of comparative studies of Chinese and foreign literatures Variantology Gloria Custance,2005 Our endeavour is not to explain the history of the media as a consecutive retrospective but to move from reflections about the deep time history of arts and sciences to speculations that reach into the present The contributors to the third volume in the Variantology Series expand our ideas of the interplay between arts technology and science in at least three important ways 1 Themes Fireworks as a time based praxis of performance magnetised chess automata paper cuts thermometers radical interventions in the natural landscape by humans and the compass are revealed as areas where discoveries can be made that lead to much broader and richer concepts of what art and media are 2 Regions As we move with the authors from Europe to the Far East and back again it becomes absolutely clear that the history of the media cannot be written with only the former industrial metropolises of the world in our sights beginning and ending there 3 Time The evolution of the Chinese culture of science and technology takes us into dimensions that add unsuspected energies and historical possibilities to the concept of deep time Brecht's verdict from the 1920s that Chinese civilisation has already forgotten about innovations that the West proudly celebrates as innovations of the Modern Age is given new meaning Publisher's description Journal of Chinese Religions ,2009 China Review International ,2009 Journal of Daoist Studies ,2009 Zen Koans Steven Heine,2014-09-30 Koans such as What is the sound of one hand clapping and Does a dog have Buddha nature are concise confusing and often contradictory sayings expressed by ancient masters that serve as the centerpiece of Zen Buddhist learning and training on several levels First Koans form the central component of a remarkable body of literature contained in voluminous collections produced in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries These works include various styles of elegant poetic and eloquent prose commentaries on cryptic dialogues The Koan compilations were greatly influenced by one of the high points in the distinguished history of the literary tradition in East Asia The texts appealed to intellectuals in China Japan and Korea who sought spiritual fulfillment through interpreting elaborate rhetoric related to mysterious metaphysical exchanges 〇〇〇〇〇〇〇〇〇〇〇〇 〇〇〇〇〇. 〇〇〇〇〇〇,2010 Malady of Meditation Juhn Young Ahn,2007 Book Review Index - 2009 Cumulation Dana Ferguson,2009-08 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an
